SEASONABLE SAUSAGE TALK

The time for the choice table delicacy has arrived. Now that the season is here, it is only right to look for the choicest article the market affords.
STRICKLAND'S STANDS SUPERIOR
Alone in a class by themselves. The finest portions of the meat are carefully selected, carefully chopped by a machine made for the purpose, and mixed with exactly the correct quantity of pure spices, by an expert who has made a close study of what pleases the Sausage Epicure. The day of guess work in Sausage making has passed away. "A little spice," "a pinch of salt," will not satisfy particular people to-day.

THE PERFECT PROCESS

Of manufacture that we operate gives universal and complete satisfaction to customers. If you want to be convinced that our Sausage stands pre-eminently alone. 15 Cents—One pound will do it. ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The Princess arrived at ten minutes to nine and the express twenty after nine Saturday evening.
It is regrettable to learn that the condition of Hon. F. de St. O'Brien was reported unimproved at a late hour last night.

The Campana arrived in port Saturday morning at three o'clock with a full cargo of general merchandise. She sailed again at four and returns to-day for her outward cargo.

A despatch to A. P. Clark & Co. from Montreal, says the Marcher Shipper will leave Montreal on the 11th and will be here on the 14th. Shippers will all take notice.

Miss Maud Horne, daughter of A. Horne of this city, graduated last Thursday from the New Brunswick Training Hospital, Miss Horne did exceedingly well in her examinations.

The P. E. Island Railway will give one first class fare, returnable the following day to all attending the WCTU conference in Summerside Tuesday. Entertainment provided for all.

It is probable the St. Dunstan's football team will go to Halifax and play the Wanderers on Thursday next, Thanksgiving Day. In that case the Abegweits and St. Dunstan's will not play here.

His many friends will be pleased to see John Smith of Bowral out again after his recent severe illness. Mr. Smith is making continued though slow recovery towards his wonted strength and vigor.

WHILE the Princess was coming to this port Saturday night she was hailed off Point Prim by the Bridge tug J. H. Hackett with the Antelope in tow. The Hackett had broken down and asked to have another tug sent to her assistance. The tug went out, and she came to the City yesterday morning.

AMONG those leaving the City on Saturday were F. Parker Carvell on a trip to Montreal; Frank Bradley to Boston, on a ten days visit; J. P. Woodbury to Sydney; Mrs. Reginald Clarke to Pictou, where she spent yesterday; Mrs. George Hughes to Alberton; Eustace Purdy to Toronto, to resume studies in Wycliffe College; Miss Annie McDonald, Charlottetown Royalty, to Boston.

NOTWITHSTANDING the downpour of rain yesterday afternoon there was an immense crowd of people at the funeral of the late Lorne Peake. The remains were taken to St. Peter's Cathedral where they were joined, after memorial service, by the militia and the remains conveyed to the cemetery on a gun carriage. Beside the militia there were very many citizens in the funeral procession.

SATURDAY afternoon Al Sinclair in the employ of Carter & Co. fell from the third to the second storey in the warehouse at the rear of the store. Upon examination it was found that no bones were broken though he was badly shaken up.

ALL Saint Church, Cardigan, was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday, when Owen Wood of Lake Verde was united in marriage with Miss Alice Bowlen, daughter of Michael Bowlen, Cardigan. The bride who was attired in fawn colored cloth with pink silk and white chiffon trimmings, was attended by her sister Miss Margaret Bowlen while the groom was supported by Michael Grant of Webster's Corner. Rev. J. C. McMillan performed the marriage ceremony after which the newly wedded pair returned to the home of the bride's parents where about sixty-five guests had assembled. After partaking of the wedding breakfast several most enjoyable hours were spent in music and dancing. Accompanied by upwards of thirty friends the happy couple left in the afternoon for their future home in Lake Verde. The presents were numerous and beautiful including a filled purse from the bride's father.

A very interesting S. S. C. convention was held in the Dundas Presbyterian Church last Monday Oct. 5th. The rain prevented a large attendance, but those who did attend were fully rewarded. The following schools were represented: Dundas, Presbyterian; Dundas, Baptists; Bridgetown, Methodist; Annandale Baptist. Wm. McLeod, the District President presided at the first session. Interesting reports were given by the delegates and a helpful conference on general features of S. S. work was conducted by the Field Secretary. The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Rev. M. N. McLeod, Dundas; Vice President—Wm. McLeod, Bridgetown; Sec. Treasurer, W. E. Leard, Bridgetown; Additional Executive, John Houlett, Annandale and Stewart Hunter, Dundas. At the evening session, the Field Secretary gave a Normal lesson with the aid of the black board. Rev. Mr. Crawford, Presbyterian pastor of Great Village, N. S. gave a most inspiring address. Although Mr. Crawford had made no preparation and was unexpectedly present yet his address was highly appreciated by all present. Miss Annie McDonald presided at the organ most efficiently at both services and a united choir rendered appropriate music.

MINERS FOR FREE TRADE.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Miners' Federation of Great Britain at a meeting in Glasgow today after a heated discussion passed a resolution by 80 to 5 votes protesting against any alteration of the Free Trade Policy which has existed for the past sixty years. "It was announced that the majority represented 347,000 miners.
