GRAND CHRISTMAS DISPLAY NOW ON

At The Store of Sinclair & Stewart, Ltd., Summerside

A visit to this modern department store at this season of the year whets the appetite of gobs whetwhet to gladden the hearts of others or as a visitor to see and be seen, is not only an education but an inspiration as well.

Passing by the silk counter the attention was drawn to a handsome pair of shot paillette silk, 36 inches wide and shown in a variety of different shades at $1.00 per yard.

In the ladies' Ready-To-Wear department are shown a dainty assortment of Xmas waists, nicely done up in individual boxes for Yule Tide greetings; here also is displayed a rich assortment of furs in natural mink, Alaska sable, Oranberry mink and other skins.

The grocery section is also very interesting place at this season being splendidly stocked with new fresh groceries of the best brands at qualities so essential for the enjoyment of the Yule-tide festivities.

The other departments which space will not allow to mention here are also admirably adapted to meet the demands of their rapidly expanding trade, the growth of which is a proof that the business peep of this hustling firm is looking upon with continued favor by the large host of customers that call visit the store.

TO BREAK EGG CORNER

CHICAGO, Dec. 17—Ten roads of eggs which Chicago clubwomen will place on sale tomorrow in an attempt to break retail prices could have been bought cheaper in an open market than from the unmanly commission man who supplied the according to a statement by Charles J. Bowman, secretary of the Chicago butter and egg board.

Executive officers of the men's clubs and other organizations met today and discussed the contract which Mrs. J. C. Bley, lead of the egg crusade, made with an egg speculator whose name she did not disclose. They admitted that they may have agreed to pay more than the present market price if they agreed to go ahead cheerfully and without faltering.

Winnipeg, Dec. 17—To prevent, if possible, any repetition of last year's condition at the head of the lakes in connection with the movement of all rail grain to the millers in Eastern Canada, and with a view to giving the farmers in Western Canada every opportunity of marketing their grain to the greatest possible advantage, the Grand Trunk Pacific are establishing rates to the Atlantic seaboard for export and to Eastern Canadian points via Chicago.

NO DIFFICULTY IN MOVING BALANCE OF CROP.

It is reported that the movement of grain over the Grand Trunk Pacific is very heavy and that with the available storage at the head of the lakes, coupled with the arrangements above noted, it is not anticipated that there will be any difficulty in taking care of the balance of the season's crop.

ASKED JUDGE TO RESIGN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 18—Representative James R. Mann, of Illinois, republican leader of the House, today called upon Ashley M. Gould, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and Judge George W. Atkinson, of the United States Court of Claims, to resign as vice president and director, respectively, of the First National Fire Insurance Company of the United States, when the House today ordered investigated. Mr. Mann declared that it was highly improper in his opinion for these two judges to be officers of a corporation of any kind that is engaged in trying to sell stock and is involved in business complications.

HEARST A WITNESS IN INVESTIGATION CAMPAIGN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17—William R. Hearst, who published the now famous "Archbold letters," today gave the Senate campaign funds committee all letters in his possession indicating a connection between John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Co., and legislative and campaign activities.

Mr. Hearst appeared as the first witness at the re-opening of the campaign investigation which had come to a halt before the election. The New York publisher told the committee at the outset that he had some other letters that had not been made public. He first produced the photographic copies of the letters already published and identified them for the convenience of the committee.
