ISLAND LADY DEAD—Mrs. Wm. McKay, 214 Queen Street, has received the sad news of the death of her aunt, Mrs. George Pyne of Marlboro, Mass. The late Mrs. Pyne was Janet MacLean of Canoe Cove.—(Patriot please copy).

HOME FROM SASKATOON — Mr. Jack Roop of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Saskatoon, is being welcomed home on a holiday. He and his family are returning to the city of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Roop and is renewing many old acquaintanceships. He travelled from Toronto by auto and intends returning all the way back to Saskatoon by the same mode of transport.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE — A near tragedy occurred Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bentley, with two other City companions were fishing off Ovehead. The party, which also included the owner of the boat, were caught in the storm which blew up very suddenly. They lit flares to attract attention, but either the flares were not seen or the sea was too rough to get to the rescue. They threw anchor but it helped none as the line broke, leaving them at the mercy of the sea. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bentley were washed overboard. Mr. Bentley grasped a tow line thrown to him and climbed back to safety. Seeing his wife had also been tossed out, he swam back to her with the tow line and the two were pulled back into the boat. Their boat was battered by the wind and sea all night and when finally they drifted ashore early Monday morning the boat had been just about smashed to pieces.

40TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—On Wednesday evening last, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oakes, in a surprise party, to congratulate them on the occasion of their 40th anniversary. The house was appropriately decorated during the afternoon, while Mr. and Mrs. Oakes were in Charlottetown. Mrs. Oakes presented the wedding march, and Mrs. Fred Walsh escorted the couple to the bridal chairs. Mr. Vernon Moore was master of ceremonies and expressed the good wishes of the community to Mr. and Mrs. Oakes. Individual expressions were also made by Mr. Brent Wood, Crapaud, Mrs. A. Hyndman, Ottawa, and others. A number of presentations were made. Mrs. Lewis Francis presented a purse on behalf of those present. Mr. Stafford Leard presented a silver butter dish on behalf of the Crapaud Orange Lodge, and Mr. Arthur Innan presented an appropriate address. The family presented them with a beautiful kitchen cabinet. Other gifts received were a silver butter dish from Mrs. A. Hyndman and a mirror from Miss Evelyn MacAulian. In a few appropriate words, Mr. and Mrs. Oakes expressed their thanks to all present. Toward the close of the evening generous refreshments were served under the patronage of Mrs. Parker Francis. A lively sing-song of old songs and favourite hymns brought the evening to a close.

PERSONALS

Miss Evelyn MacAulian, Toronto, is visiting on the Island the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oakes, Crapaud.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Roland Beaton and Family, Winsloe, wish to thank neighbours and friends and also Staff of P. E. Island Hospital for their kindness to all those who sent floral tributes and Messages of Sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.

TELEVISION CHANGES COSMETIC FASHIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—(CP)—Television may revolutionize the cosmetics industry and change the color of your make-up. That is what such experts as Elizabeth Arden say.

In television the old-type make-up is not satisfactory; make-up is in light brown tones, starting with an almost tan foundation, shade, brown eye-pencils, and eye-shadow, and an orange-red lipstick. Canadian-born Miss Arden predicts this orange-red is the shade to watch for in lipsticks for fall.

Television lights bring out a girl's freckles or a man's beard, so the skin is covered with a smooth foundation. The usually-photogenic Clare Booth Luce was a striking example of this when she was on television at the Republican Convention in Philadelphia. Her friends—and Mrs. Luce—were horrified at the result.

Rouge is definitely out. However for television a deeper shade of brown is used to accentuate cheek highlights and emphasize the lines of a face.

To cope with the bearded look on men's faces a simple pancake foundation is used, to which is added a second lighter, almost white pancake. The men may look as if they'd fallen into the flour box under ordinary light but before the television camera, it's just right.
