Gay's Seeds

Sometimes it may be advisable to buy cheap goods, but it is doubtful. It is an absolute certainty that cheap seeds, or poor seeds are dear at any price. Seeds at 20 or 25 a dozen packages may be good (what there is in them) but speaking with a practical experience of many years, we would have none of them. The extensive experience we have had of planting, testing and growing the different varieties of vegetables and flowers, enables us to offer to the public seeds that we know are reliable and best suited to our climate.

Now that the roads are in good condition, farmers and others will be coming to town in large numbers, and we honestly believe it will be to their advantage to call on us in the market, and buy their requirements in the vegetable seed line from us. Our advertisement of plants will be in this paper later.

Seed and vegetable market open every day, from 8 to 6, Saturday's until 9 in the evening.

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Office in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnson, Manager, and in Souris, M. S. Acorn, Manager

...The latest news, first of all.

...McKay Bros. who have for the past number of years been doing business in Souris, have gone into the carriage business in Kentville, N.S. The company is now known as the Nova Scotia Carriage Company Limited.

...There passed peacefully away at the home of her brother-in-law and sister in Weston, Mass., on the 28th day of April past Margaret Gilli, dearly beloved daughter of John Gillis Sr., Head of Montague, aged thirty years. During her long illness of heart disease she exhibited the greatest patience, always resigned to the will of her Heavenly Father, and looking forward with great joy to the time when her Saviour whom she knew was calling her, would take her to himself away from the troubles and sorrows of this life. She leaves to mourn besides her father, two brothers and two sisters, viz Alexander in Montague and Angus on the homestead, Mrs. Munn in Weston, Mass., and Mrs. Young in Yarmouth, N. S., besides hosts of friends and relatives. Also at the home of Magnus and Bella Munn, Weston, Mass., on the second of April last they passed away their dearly and beloved daughter, Jennie May, aged 12 years, their only surviving child. The remains of both were brought to the Province accompanied by Mr. Munn to be buried in Wood Islands cemetery in the one grave in the family plot. There is much sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Munn in the death of a sister and daughter.

...At the sale in connection with the estate of the late Jas. R. McEwen, of Mt. Stewart, twenty-two acres of land on the north side of the river, were brought by S. C. Clark, and a lot adjoining the Methodist parsonage was purchased by the trustees of that property.

...Miss Katie McLean, Milliner of Montague, will be at Murray River on Wednesday and Thursday, May 12th and 13th at the store of A. M. Ross, where she will display and take orders for up-to-date millinery.

MAY DAY.

Grenstone girls are gay-and-twenty. On the first of May: Grenstone graves are grey and plenty. Then and every day.

CONCERNING INTERESTING MEN AND WOMEN.

NEW YORK, May 6—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is well liked by all who meet him. His modesty and the absence in his manner of all foolish importance and affectation call for admiration. In his Bible class in the Fifth Avenue Baptist church he is just like the most humble of its members, and no one coming there would ever pick him out as the heir to the biggest fortune in the world. In fact visitors who do come seem very much disappointed when Mr. Rockefeller is pointed out to them, expecting to see a most dignified young man, whose tone and manner would hold every one at a distance. Not a bit. He is most democratic, kindly and courteous.

Just as the class was being dismissed the other Sunday Mr. Rockefeller rushed out and greeted Mrs. Rockefeller, who was coming into the church with one of the children. He took the little boy by the hand and brought him into the reception room of the church, where all the members had gathered for a social chat. "Is that your youngster, Mr. Rockefeller?" said a member, as he came in with the little boy. "Why, certainly it is," replied Mr. Rockefeller with a laugh. "Whose youngster did you think it was? You didn't think I went parading around with other folks' children, did you?"
