Passed Away

REV. J. J. McDONALD

DEATH OF BELOVED PASTOR

Province Loses One of Most Esteemed Citizens
In Passing of
Rev. J. J. McDonald
At Summerside.

Summerside mourns today the loss of one of its most beloved citizens, Rev. John James MacDonald, pastor of St. Paul's Church, a man of sterling worth who worked unceasingly for his church. Death came at 10:45 last evening after only two weeks' illness of bronchial pneumonia. Since Sunday his condition had been critical. Rev. Father MacDonald's last duty was to assist with the mission recently closed. He was present at the luncheon in honour of the Earl of Beesborough on Oct. 6th and was chairman at the reception at the Convent that day. The same evening he went to bed suffering from a chill from which he did not recover.

"Father John," as he was affectionately called by his parishioners, was in his 68th year, having been born in June 1864, and was the second youngest son of the late Donald A. MacDonald and Isabella MacDonald of Glenfinnan. He received his early education there and later at St. Dunstan's University.

King's Apologia From Valley Of Humiliation

Liberal Leader Makes Labored Excuses For His Party's Acceptance Of Beauharnois Campaign Funds And Charges Investigating Committee With Partisan-ship.

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Oct. 20.—A defence of the former Dominion government's position in relation to Beauharnois featured the address of Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader here tonight. He dwelt with the campaign fund contributions to party war chests whether large or small. He repeated his demand made in Parliament for a royal commission to go into the whole question of such contributions. He vigorously attacked the manner in which the parliamentary inquiry had been terminated.

The Liberal leader laid bare the needs of the Liberal party for more funds to provide for a proper functioning organization. He called upon his fellow Liberals throughout Canada to provide ways and means for party organization and education and appealed to them to begin at once to organize in the provincial and federal fields. He saw little chance for success in the next Dominion election unless steps were taken to maintain a properly equipped organization, and educational offices. His speech was delivered at the annual meeting of the Ontario Liberal Association on "Political Organization."

It was only fair, he said, to inform the Liberal party that his physical endurance was not "what it was as a younger man. If I had to contemplate a further period of leadership under conditions of lack of organization and education in the party's work such as that of which I have been speaking, I question if I should be equal to the strain or be able to do what is expected of me by the party in the advocacy of its causes." He had no fear of anything of the kind, however. He believed that once the exact position was known to the party, its members would not be wanting in appreciation alike of their opportunities and responsibilities.

CITY OF SUPER-MEN

PARIS, October 20. (British United Press)—Following reports received here of the extraordinary success of a super-garden city near Strasbourg, hundreds of Parisians have applied for permission to join this "colony of supermen."

The colony was founded in natural surroundings by a group of idealists who believe that the human race can be improved by artificial means.

Those who wish to join the colony have to pass the most stringent of tests for physical, mental and moral fitness. All the inhabitants are recruited from almost physically perfect young married couples of the artisan class.

Once members of the community, they have to abide by its health laws and accept all the carefully framed regulations designed by experts to safeguard health and morals. Classes in eugenics are one of the features, and attendance at these is compulsory.

Births in the colony exceed deaths by 35.6 per thousand, compared with the figures of 2.7 per thousand in Strasbourg itself. There is no disease at all, and the children are stronger, taller, heavier, healthier, and more beautiful than anywhere else in France.

First Flier To Cross Atlantic Gives Interview

(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Sir Arthur Whitten Brown, Briton, who in 1919 with Sir John Alcock made the first non-stop trans-Atlantic flight arrived today for a visit declaring trans-Atlantic flying had progressed as far as it can with existing equipment.

In 1919, he said, he predicted that another ten years would see trans-Atlantic flying made a matter of routine, but he confessed he had changed his opinion.

He said he was skeptical that aviation would become a commercial success in the next few years because so much space is required for crew and fuel, leaving little for cargo. Perhaps a new departure will come, he declared. The former aviator, whose flight from Newfoundland to Clifton, Ireland, brought him fame, comes to attend an industrial conference at Columbia University. He is now an executive of an electrical concern in England.

HEAD OF PENMANS DEAD

PARIS, Oct. 20. (By the Canadian Press)—One of the leading figures of the textile industry in Canada, John Penman, died at his home here today after an illness of one week. Although he withdrew his active interest from the company which bore his name in 1907, he was actively connected with several knitting mills and other business ventures after that date.

Born in New York State, he came to Woodstock in 1865 and proceeded here in 1868. He was a former chairman of the Paris Board of Education.

Mr. Penman was prominent in the councils of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. For many years he was a staunch supporter of the continuing Presbyterians at the time church union was proposed.

Construction of Chignecto Canal Strongly Urged By Witnesses Before Commission.

(Canadian Press)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Oct. 20.—A comprehensive picture of the improved trade conditions which it is claimed, would result from the construction of a canal across the Isthmus of Chignecto, linking the Bay of Fundy with the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was presented here today in the written and oral evidence of witnesses who appeared before the federal commission, appointed to inquire into the feasibility of the project, at the opening of a Maritime Province itinerary.

Headed by Dr. Arthur Surveyer, B. A., B. Sc., C. E., of Montreal, and with D. W. Robb of Amherst, N. S., and John F. Soward, of Kingston, Ont., as its other members, the commission opened its Maritime sittings with morning and afternoon sessions. It will meet again tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Reference was made to the fact that the construction of the canal would facilitate the shipping of grain, flour, feeds and general merchandise eastward, and of coal, lumber, apples, potatoes, other agricultural products and fish, gypsum and sugar westward. A. F. Blake, chairman of the Board's Chignecto Canal committee, presented the brief.

Four witnesses who appeared in the afternoon discussed the project from a wide range of viewpoints, including a shipbroker, a practical navigator and a manufacturer. They were H. B. Gault, manager of the Eastern Canada Coastal Steamships Ltd., Saint John, Captain A. B. Taylor, an employee of that company, Allan H. Wetmore, Saint John until his recent retirement connected with the Canada Spice and Specialty Co.; and A. Neil McLean, Saint John, President of Connors Bros. Ltd., Black's Harbor, N. B., Fish Cannery. All urged vigorously the construction of the canal.

"From the standpoint of the Eastern Canada Coastal Steamship," Mr. H. S. Gault, Manager of Eastern Canada Coastal Steamships Ltd., the first witness, said, "the Chignecto canal would be a boon to business. At present it is too far to go around Nova Scotia up into the north shore of New Brunswick and to Prince Edward Island.

"If the canal were built we could be able to open up new trade routes taking in all important centres in that part of the Maritimes.

"The big thing for us would be to open up a route between Saint John and Prince Edward Island.

"Another thing is that it would be possible to open up a trade route to the St. Lawrence River. This is impossible at the present time." He said his company had 26 boats which were engaged in the Maritime coastal trade.

(Canadian Press)

YORKTOWN, Va., Oct. 20.—Standing before 30,000 persons here President Hoover recalled the struggle at Yorktown as a victory for mankind and one from which present and future generations might draw a lesson for unswerving progress in the face of great adversity.

Bringing the speech making of four-day observance of the 150 year old revolutionary war victory here to an official end, the president said:

"While temporary dislocations have come to us because of the world war, we must not forget that our forefathers met similar obstacles to progress time and again, and yet the nation has swept to ever-increasing strength."

(Canadian Press)

PETERBORO, Ont., Oct. 20.—The report of the executive committee was presented at this morning's session of the Ontario and Quebec Baptist conference by the secretary of the convention, Rev. C. E. In accordance with the action of the last convention regarding the Baptist missionary enterprise in the Dominion and the possibility of closer cooperation between the conventions and the union, the recommendation in the report appointing a special committee to study the missionary problem was endorsed by the campaign.

It also recommended an all-Canada committee to be composed of four delegates from the Maritime convention, four from Ontario and Quebec and two each from the two western conventions.

GANDHI GOING BACK HOME DISSATISFIED

(Special to the Guardian)

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Mahatma Gandhi, who has indicated on several occasions that he is deeply disappointed with the lack of progress made by the Indian round table conference, has made reservations to go back to Bombay next month.

Great Britain, he said today, is no more prepared to grant the demands of the Indian Nationalists now than when he left Bombay and he professed to see no hope that Great Britain's attitude would change.

In the absence of any assurance as to what the Government intends to do, he said, he feels that he is wasting his time here.

Other delegates to the conference discouraged by their failure to settle the Hindu-Muslim communal problem also are planning to go home within a few weeks.

Bankers Face Serious Charge

(Canadian Press)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Joseph A. Broderick, state superintendent of banking for the last 31 months and for 35 years before that a banker himself, was indicted today, with 28 directors of the bank of United States, in connection with the closing of that $200,000,000 institution last December. Broderick, charged in three indictments with neglect of duty and in a fourth with conspiracy, appeared in court late in the day. He pleaded not guilty and was released in $2,500 bail.

Six of the 28 directors, all charged with "negligently participating in the fraudulent insolvency of the bank," also were arraigned. They pleaded not guilty, were given 10 days in which to change their pleas and were released in $1,000 bail each.

The directors if convicted, face a maximum sentence of a three year penitentiary term and a $500 fine. The maximum penalty for Broderick, if convicted, would be a 12 year term and $2,000 in fines. Today's action was one more step in the turbulent aftermath of the bank's closing, which affected 400,000 depositors.

Government Official Jailed

(Canadian Press)

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., Oct. 20.—The second of Newfoundland's civil servants to be jailed within a week, James Ryall, chief clerk in the money order department, was sentenced by Chief Justice Horwood last night to serve eighteen months on a conviction of embezzlement. Sidney Hart, former clerk in the Department of Agriculture and Mines, was sentenced last week to serve a similar term for the same offence.

Ryall was dismissed from the service last August, following discovery of a shortage of $5,569. Later other discrepancies were found to make the total shortage in this department $6,240.96.

Ryall accounted for about $3,000 of the shortage by swearing that he had cashed cheques for other officials of the department and some of the cheques had been dishonored at the bank. Also, he had advanced them money from time to time on I. O. U. slips. Further court actions are expected to follow as a result of his evidence.
