McInnis' Bakery Features High Quality Products. Try Bradley's When Car Trouble Develops. Although only starting in business a short time ago nevertheless the Bradley Service Station on Great George Street is rapidly making a name for itself judging by the trade that is flowing towards this business premises. Managed by Robert (Bob) Bradley who, previous to starting out on his own had been manager of the Red Indian Service Station, this budding young firm is handling Irving Oil products and in addition also carry Dominion tires and tubes, Presto-lite batteries in addition to other auto accessories. They are also readily available to do tire repairs, wash jobs, greasing and simonizing work. And a feature of the station is the Balcrank automatic grease gun now installed, believed to be the only gun of this style in the City. Bradley's Service Station is at yet in its infancy, but before long promises to be the point toward which all car-troubled motorists will be heading.

McInnis' Bakery. Bread, pastry, cakes of all kinds have been rolling out of their ovens for that length of time and the quality has never varied. In fact, if anything, it has improved. This is attested to by the fact that they have been supplying their product to the P. E. Island Hospital, the car ferry at Borden and during the war to both the R. A. F. and R. C. A. F. These are but three of the many establishments they are serving and there never is a complaint. One of the busiest spots in town the crew of skilled employees are continually on the move. Speed is stressed but quality must be watched closely and that is the reason why McInnis Bakery products have found so much favor over that long stretch of years. But they are by no means content to lean back on their laurels. Seeking to improve all the time they have now on order an electrical doughnut machine manufactured by the Lowe Doughnut Co. of N. Y. It is the only machine of this type to come to the Maritimes as very few of them have been made and has a capacity of turning out 100,000 doughnuts per hour. All machinery in the plant is of the very latest so it might be a good idea to give McInnis Bakery products a try if you are not already one of their many customers.
