NEIGHBORLY NEWS FROM POWNAL

Miss Annie Boisener, Alexandra, spent a very pleasant week-end in the city, the guest of Mrs. Arthur Godkin.

Messrs. Alton Boswell and Tupper Ferguson, Marshfield, were recent visitors in Pownal.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mellish and family of Summerside were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mellish's sister, Mrs. George MacLellan, Alexandra.

Mr. and Mrs. Chari Jones were recent visitors to Ugg attending the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dawson, twenty-five years of married bliss. Congratulations folks, and keep up the good work for twenty-five more years.

The November meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Pownal United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Smith. This being the annual mite box opening a special program of vocal numbers were rendered by the children of the Mission Band and by a number of invited artists. A beautiful lunch served by a lovely hostess brought a delightful evening to a close.

The annual meeting of the Pownal W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Edison Smith with an attendance of ten members. The report of the year's work was given by the retiring president, Mrs. Charles Jones. The financial statement was presented by the treasurer, Mrs. Harold Acorn. A pleasing feature was the report from the bazaar and lunch which was held the previous week when the sale of aprons and apples, jellies and cookies, mitts and eggs, etc., netted the neat sum of fifty dollars. Mrs. Harold Smith, president for the coming year, concluded the meeting.

In the absence of the regular Minister of the Alexandra Baptist Church, the pulpit was occupied on Sunday night, Nov. 2nd, by Mr. Bryer Jones, Bryer, who is a third year student at Prince of Wales College, is a brilliant scholar and was listened to with much interest as he expounded the scriptures found in Ephesians ch. 6, verse 11: put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. His pleasing enunciation and clear diction would have done credit to a much more experienced speaker. It will be remembered that Bryer was one of Pownal's successful teachers. His many friends here and elsewhere wish him the best of luck as he further pursues his studies. The people of Cross Roads may well feel proud to send forth from their midst a preacher of the gospel. A delightful feature of the service was a vocal solo by Master
