Letter of Sympathy

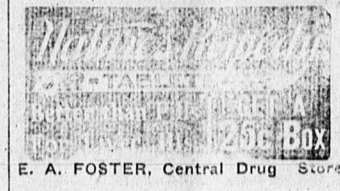

Mrs. Leith Graham of Peters Road has received the following letter from Major MacGillivray regarding the death of Mr. Graham who went over with the 106th and was later drafted to the 26th.

Namur Nov. 26

Dear Mrs. Graham—Your gallant husband was instantly killed while nobly doing his duty, on the 27th of August last. He was buried on the battlefield, in a place called "Sun Quarry Cemetery" near the French Village of Chensy. A cross has been erected over his grave, and here he rests, with many companions, until the great day when all shall be reunited never again to be separated or to suffer pain. He was a good man and an excellent soldier, respected and admired by his companions, while his mode of life and manner of death reflected great credit on his dear ones. Though his death is a very great loss to you, you should be proud of the manner in which he died, and surely the God who called him will give you strength to bear your loss.

Please accept our sincerest condolence.

Sincerely Yours R.C. MacGillivray C.F. Major 26th Batt. Canadian

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY

Mrs. Roderick Matheson, Upper Hillsborough St., has received the following sympathetic letters on the occasion of her recent bereavement in the death of her husband and daughter:—

The Elms, Annan, Dumfriesshire Scotland, 21-10-18

DEAR MRS. MATHESON,—I am in receipt to-day of a copy of the Charlottetown Guardian which tells me of your bereavement in the death of your husband, good old Rory how well I remember him in our old days, ever a keen, loyal member of our Battery and intensely interested in all that concerned its welfare and how he did work in our shifting ordnance competition, and I think he worked you up too, for I remember you coming to see how we were getting along. And I see his boys have his spirit and are now with our glorious and victorious army in France. All honor to them and I am sure you are proud of them. It is sad to think that their father was not spared to see them on their return, and greet them in all the pride of a father's love.

Pray accept my warmest sympathy and best wishes for your future happiness and well being. I am, Your truly JAS. D. IRVING.

Kensington, P. E. I., Nov. 21st, 1918

Mrs. Roderick J. Matheson, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

DEAR MADAM,—Permit me to extend to you my sincere sympathy in your exceeding sad bereavement. Your loss indeed is a great one. A kind and faithful husband and a dearly beloved daughter to be taken from your side at one stroke. It was not my privilege to know your daughter but I remember your children sitting in the "Kirk" when I was a boy. But it was my great privilege to know Sergeant "Rory" Matheson both as a comrade at arms in old No. 1 Battery and a gallant soldier. He was a splendid example of true manhood to us young men and we looked up to him as a father, a more gallant non-commissioned never put on a uniform and as a friend in every day life I found him, always so kind and courteous, considerate of other people's feelings. I truly miss him at his old post of duty at the railway station.

I have met many men, both in civil and military life but there is none whose friendship I prize more highly than your late husband. It was a great privilege to know him. His soul has gone to be with the great captain of his salvation and his body will peacefully sleep until that glad new day when the day breaks and the shadows flee away—here at the final trumpet call he shall rise in newness of life—when he shall wear the uniform of the King of
