The most fashionable wedding to take place in the parish of East Bay, North Sydney, was solemnized Tuesday, Sept. 17th in the Catholic church, by Rev. M. MacKenzie, parish priest, and uncle of the bride. The contracting parties were J. H. McQuaid, of the Commercial Bank, Antigonish, and a native of Charlottetown, and at one time manager of the Merchants Bank of P. E. Island, at Sydney, and Miss May MacKenzie, niece of the officiating clergyman and daughter of W. and Mrs. MacKenzie, Alton, Mass. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The front pews of the church were reserved for the guests, who were present from Sydney, North Sydney, Antigonish and other places. A nuptial high mass with Professor Horrigan, of Sydney, leading the choir, was sung by Rev. Father MacKenzie, Miss Agnes McPherson, of North Sydney, presiding at the organ. The bride, charmingly attired in a dress of Eolene cloth, with hat to match, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of white roses, was led up the aisle by her cousin, Frank N. McMillan, of Sydney. Miss Millie Elliot, of Montreal, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a costume of grey broadcloth with hat to match. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations. William Chisholm, M. P., barrister of Antigonish supported the groom. After the wedding ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served at the Glebe House. Several handsome cheques, costly cut glass, Chiraware and bric-a-brac, besides numerous other valuable presents, were received by the popular young couple. The groom's present to the bride was a magnificent necklace of pearls and opals. To the bridesmaid he presented a gold crescent-shaped brooch set with pearls. Mr. and Mrs. McQuaid's wedding tour will include Upper Canada and the New England States.—Halifax Herald.

There is more Catarrh in this country than all other diseases together, and until the last few years, it was considered incurable. For a great many years do cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for Constipation.

The death of Mrs. William Vessey of Covehead Road took place on Wednesday the 11th inst, and her remains were interred in the Methodist Cemetery at York on Saturday 14th. The obsequies were conducted by Rev. G. F. Dawson of York and Rev. Mr. Hawley of Marshfield. An unusually large number attended the funeral, attesting to the great respect and esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew her. Early in life Mrs. Vessey (Margaret Stewart) united with the Presbyterian Church and until her death remained a consistent member of the same not living conveniently near to the church of her choice, her broad minded and liberal spirit caused her to throw herself into the activities of the Methodist church which will greatly miss her presence and hearty co-operation. She was particularly interested in the cause of Christian missions and was an active member of the W.M.S. at York, where as one of the officers of this society she endeared herself to all her fellow workers. By the sick and dying bedside and in the homes of the sorrow and distress Mrs. Vessey was a true friend. She shed the radiance of a lovely Christian character upon all with whom she came in contact. She passed from earth in the full assurance of faith triumphantly resting in the merits of the Crucified Redeemer. Beside a sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn one daughter, Agnes at home, and two sons, Rev. Herbert Vessey of the Saskatchewan Conference and Edith at home. The family has the deepest sympathy of all their friends in their sore bereavement.
