SPECIAL MEETING for women in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Monday, Oct. 20th at 3 p. m. Address by Mrs. Donaldson of the Dominion Board, Church of England Missionary Society. 1646-10-18-m1i

THE Y. W. C. A.—An institution that is unostentateously but very effectively doing a great work in the city is the Young Women's Christian Association. The beautiful home recently fitted up for the organization is full and its activities are in the hands of capable and willing committees. A new feature has recently been added, of which intimation has been in the Guardian, namely, classes for cooking, sewing an millinery etc., These classes are so arranged as to give tution in these subjects to all desiring it, for a normal initiatory for which is refunded on fulfilment of certain conditions.

INTERESTING SUBJECT. — The Shipbuilding and Harbor Construction Magazine, published in Montreal is interesting itself in the proposed damming of th Strait of Belle Isle and has asked Mr. F. W. Hyndman, of this city for permission to republish his letter on the the subject which was published in the Guardian of June 6th last. Mr. Hyndman has given his permission and articles for an against the proposal will appear in the next two issues of the Magazine. The quetion is a serious one for the eastern provinces as the damming of Belle Isle would not only exclude cod and seal from the Gulf of St. Lawrence but would also probably keep the gulf full of ice during the greater part of the summer, besides unquestionably having serious ecect upon the climate of the Maritime Provinces.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Wednesday morning, October 8th of Sadie E. Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Currie, Fairview to James P. Cavanagh, New Haven. Rev. Maurice McDonald officiating. The bride wore a tailored suit of navy blue with hat to match and beautiful raccoon fur, he gift of the groom. Miss Mary Cavanagh, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Leo Currie, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Immediately after the ceremony they breakfasted at the Revere Hotel and then motored to the bride's home where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. The bride received many beautiful presents, including some very substantial cheques. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful gold brooch and to the groomsman a gold stick pin. FROM OVERSEAS.—Among the Island soldiers who arrived this week from overseas was Driver Peter Ogar of Southport. Driver Ogar enlisted in Major D. A. MacKinnon's Battery in Halifax, fought in France with the D. A. C., of the Third Division, and last September went to Archangel, Russia with the 16th C. F. A., He was in several engagements against the Bolsheviki, two of his sections of the battery being surrounded last November. There were two other Islanders in the Battery, Whitlock and Sergeant Higgins of Charlottetown. While in Archangel, Ogar saw the wreck of the Minto, or rather her smoke stack above the surface of the Dvina River where she had been sunk. The report was that she was in the hands of the Bolsheviki when she was destroyed by the Allies gun fire. Driver Ogar left Archangel last June via Norway, for England. He sailed from there by the Belgic which docked in Halifax last Sunday.
