Important Telegraphic News of the week for Saturday Subscribers.

MONTREAL, May 4—(Special)—Carsley's and Scroggie's departmental stores engaged in a pitched battle for the possession of the Scroggie store.

The police were called and men were thrown through glass doors into the streets.

A couple of years ago the Carsleys bought the store occupied by Scroggie.

Scroggie made no arrangements to leave, claiming that Carsley senior, before his death had given consent to their staying another year, but has no paper to that effect.

The Scroggie firm were notified that they could not sell goods today.

Carsleys had men in the store all night measuring for counters.

When Scroggie and his men came they were let in but told all they could do was to take their goods out.

They opened the front door by force and then they threw the men from Carsley's out.

Scroggie has had a writ issued asking Carsley to appear in the criminal courts on a charge of housebreaking.

Carsley has new stock to put in and Scroggie has made no arrangements, so he has no place to which to move his immense stock.

It will now be settled in the courts

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 3—Because Alfred H. Wilcox, of this city, heeded the wish of his mother and did not marry during her lifetime, he is richer today by $15,000, besides a share of $2,000,000. Mrs. Antonia Arguello de Wilcox, the young man's mother, was a direct descendant of one of the oldest California Spanish families. She was a relative of the famous governor Pio Pico. She died April 18, and the will was probated yesterday. The instrument disposes of property valued at $2,000,000.

OTTAWA, May 3—(Special)—The Commons began morning sittings today.

This is regarded as the beginning of the end of the session which is looked for in the course of a couple of weeks.

There will be no further legislation brought down by the Government, but a small budget of supplementary estimates and railway subsidies is expected this week.

The Prime Minister stated that he had been asked by members if it were the intention to present the usual address on their departure to the Governor General and Countess Grey for the appropriate manner in which Canada.

Sir Wilfrid was happy to announce that there was no occasion for such an address, as the term of His Excellency would not come to an end this year.

This means that Earl Grey does not propose to follow the precedent in case of Governors General, who, while appointed to Canada for six years have left as a rule at the end of five years.

DORCHESTER, May 6—(Special)—Judge Daniel Lionel Hanington of the supreme Bench died this morning after a lengthy illness, the end being totally unexpected as the patient had been steadily improving.

Judge Hanington was born in Shediac in 1835, admitted to the bar in 1859 and until his elevation to the Bench practiced at Dorchester.

He was promoted to the Bench in 1892, but for twenty years previous had been one of the foremost figures in provincial politics being Premier for some years, giving way to the late A. G. Blair.

He was a leader in Church of England affairs, being delegate to the Pan-Anglican Congress, and was for fifty years Superintendent of the Dorchester Sunday School.

SACKVILLE, May 6—(Special)—Three funerals with the burial of five persons were held this afternoon.

The funeral of Conductor Trueman, took place from his late residence with service at the Methodist Church.

At three o'clock three children of Chas. Crossman, who were suffocated in Tuesday night's tragedy, were buried.

An hour later the funeral of five year old Clara Allen, who died from the effects of burns was held.

Such a day of sorrow has not been known here before.

REGINA, May 6—(Special)—Prairie fires raged through Regina district yesterday and last night.

McNally Bros. 10 miles southwest, lost all their buildings, feed, seed and hay and only saved horses.

In the fire which started four miles east and travelled nearly to Pilot Butte, the barns of a farmer named Kopaf were destroyed.

The fires in most instances were started by farmers burning stubble.

SYDNEY, May 6—(Special)—The lobster fishery men of Gabarus are on a strike.

The lobster men will not accept the packers' prices and positively refuse to set a trap.

They demand that their prices be paid by Saturday night, viz. $3.25 per cwt and 25 per hundred.

They count five cents each for large and ten cents for small seed lobsters.

The packers will eventually be obliged to grant these prices or close their factories, as the fishermen there are united and determined.

WASHINGTON, May 5—British riflemen in the international small bore match just ended demonstrated their superiority over the Americans by scoring an overwhelming victory. The match was a friendly one with small bore rifles on gallery ranges in the respective countries, the targets were issued by the British Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs, were signed by the respective associations and interchanged, and the results were announced by cable. Australia, the other contestant, has not yet been heard from, but the National Rifle Association of American, under whose auspices the contests were conducted in this country, is of the opinion that their scores will not equal those of the British team.

KINGSTON, St. Vincent, B. W. I., May 5—It may be that Captain Collins Stephenson and the crew of the whaling ship Carrie D. Knowles, long since thought to have been lost at sea, are alive in a Venezuelan prison.

An American seaman, who gives the name of Payne, an escaped prisoner from Venezuela, has made his way to Kingstown, where he had before the authorities an astounding story of the seizure of the Carrie D. Knowles at a Venezuela port where she arrived five years ago in distress and the incarceration of the captain and his men. So convinced are the authorities here that there is truth in Payne's story, that they have taken his full statement and have taken steps looking to a speedy investigation.

On January 27, 1904, the Carrie D. Knowles sailed from Provincetown (Mass.) on a whaling voyage. Her captain was Collin Stephenson and her first mate, H. A. Martin. In addition, she carried about a dozen men.

Payne asserts positively that all of these men are at present confined in a Venezuelan prison.

The vessel was supposed to have been lost in a West Indian storm with all hands. Some of the men belonged in St. Vincent and after all hope was given up of their ewturn, their relatives put on mourning and the local insurance company paid the claims against it on the assumption that the sailors were dead.

A SHINING MARK

What Parisian Sage did for Chas. S. Baker, it will do for you. Read the following:

"I was so bald and such a shining mark for my friends, that I, as a last resort, tried your Parisian Sage (after trying several bottles of the highly advertised and high priced so called hair restorers), and I am glad to say I now have a heavy growth of new hair. I am now 44 years old and I have a heavy growth of new hair after carrying my shining mark for over seven years. I gladly recommend Parisian Sage to all afflicted with baldness." Chas. S. Baker, 491 Main St., East, Rochester, N.Y.

Parisian Sage, the only natural hair restorer, is guaranteed by Geo. E. Hughes to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, and cure itching of the calp, or money back. It is the ladies favorite hair dressing, because it adds charm and luxuriance to the hair. 50 cents a bottle. Ask Geo. E. Hughes about it.

HALIFAX, May 6—One hundred thousand dollars damage was wrought this morning when seven buildings on the water front of this city were consumed by fire. For four hours the entire fire department aided by the Dartmouth brigade and several hundred soldiers from the Garrison battled with the flames and before they were subdued the premises of E. H. Fuller Co., Hardware dealers, E. W. Fraser, Flour and Feed dealer, Donovan & Brennan, Plumbers, J. Simon, Junk Dealer, G. E. M. Stephens, Clothier, and the Eureka Hotel were consumed.

The fire was poorly handled in the first ten minutes and spread rapidly. Before it was finally subdued seven engines and three water-boats were engaged. One fireman, Geo. McGuire, was seriously injured by a falling wall.

The insurance will only partially cover premises.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6—(Special)—The Duma in a secret sitting adopted the first and second readings of the Military and Naval Bill with amendments, imposing a special tax on those who do not serve in the Army and extending this tax to Finland.

Animadversions from the extreme Right on the Jews culminated in a declaration from Deputy Zamislovsky that no Jew should be admitted to the army.

The debate at times was very stormy.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 5—William Sherring, winner of the Marathon at Athens in 1906, has turned professional. Many attempts have been made to get the little fellow to turn over, but none were successful until Charles Ellridge, promoter of the Marathon in Montreal on May 24, saw him and induced him to sign to run in that race. The inducement offered is $1,500 win or lose, with the same terms for a race within the month. This means guarantee of $3,000 for two races.

NELSON, B. C., May 5—Fire yesterday almost completely wiped out the little town of Westley, twenty-five miles west of here, on the boundary. Only two buildings were left, office and cook-house belonging to Yale-Columbia Lumber Company. The Company's mill, valued at $50,000, lumber valued at $50,000 more as well as all the employees house and other buildings, belonging to the firm, were completely destroyed. The fire started from a refuse heap. A high wind carrying the sparks to dry sawdust, and spreading to the mill and lumber yards. It broke out at the noon hour and reached the engine room before being discovered, rendering pumps useless.

Do you know him?

Every horseman knows him to be king of sires for the Maritime Provinces of 1908, with 2 to 1. He was a champion colt trotter, and is a sire of champion colt trotters, he has ten in the standard list to-day, and a dozen more ready to drop in with the asking. 3 of his colts have brought in upwards of $2,000 in the last few months

Did you see him and his four year old son "Ozen" D. (3) 2.27, step an exhibition mile at the Kings County fair last September at Georgetown in 3.25, without any preparation. "He is a dandy". Did you ever see the like?" was the expression of every one, and it was well said for it was never before equalled in King's County.

If you don't know all about him, look him up, before you risk breeding your valuable mare elsewhere.

I have a little booklet which is yours for the asking, that will tell you all about the Leading Sire of the Maritime Provinces and his progeny.
