

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

Western Locals

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a nature may be inserted at a special rate strictly payable in advance.

FRESH BROKEN SODAS, in barrels, Ross-Miller vita-cumbrina and fine puppy meal, in stock at Brace's. L-834-3-27-21.

LIQUID SOLDER for repairing nearly everything, sold at Brace's.

FRENCH BALM for chapped skin at Taylor Drug Co., Kensington.

HIGH TEA—St. Mary's Hall, this afternoon. Join the crowd. Tickets 50c. Sale of work. L-974.

JUST ARRIVED fresh stock boness beef, tripe, hearts, liver and horse meat. At lowest prices. Pond and Delaney. L-954-3-27-21.

FOX RANCHERS Easter Specials Saturday and Monday. Fox cubes and biscuits 50¢ bags at $2.50. Pond and Delaney, Summerside. L-954-3-27-21.

CASE ADJOURNED—An assault case came up before Magistrate E. H. Strong, K. C., in the Summerside Police Court on Saturday, but was adjourned. —S.

NEW ATTRACTIVE six room apartments in lot. Modern conveniences. Very warm and cosy. Moderate rental. These carefully planned apartments will be ready for occupancy on or before May 1st. Apply R. B. Richardson, 16 Myrtle Street, Summerside. L-904-3-25-31.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH—The regular Holy Week services were held in St. Paul's Catholic Church, Summerside, on Holy Thursday morning at 8 o'clock the celebrant was Rev. G. J. McLellan, P. A. V. G., on Thursday evening at 7:30, Mr. McLellan conducted the Holy Hour, taking as his subject "The Blessed Sacrament." At 1 o'clock on Good Friday morning the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified was celebrated by Rev. Eugene Murray. At 3 o'clock, Good Friday afternoon, there was a sermon on the Resurrection and Death of Christ, and finally the Way of the Cross devotion. Father Murray, who preached the sermon on "The Crucifixion" took as his text "Lord, it is good for us to be here" (St. Matthew, 17: 4). The services of Holy Saturday began at 7:30, and concluded by the celebration of High Mass, the celebrant being Rev. E. L. Murray. —S.

PERSONALS
—Mr. R. C. Holman and Mr. Arthur Allen have returned from a short holiday visit to Bermuda. —S.
—Mr. Keith Jelly is spending the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jelly. —S.
—Mr. Muncy Tanton is spending the Easter holidays with his parents, Dr. E. T. and Mrs. Tanton. —S.
—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schurman of Summerside left this week for Boston on a holiday visit. —S.
—Miss Helen Holman, student at Dalhousie University is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Holman, Summerside. —S.
—Mr. Ray Schurman, who brought two car loads of Western horses to the Island for sale is leaving on Tuesday morning on return to Dodsland, Sask. —S.
—Miss Marjorie Reddin of Charlottetown is the guest for the Easter holidays of Miss Francis Titus at the Clifton Hotel. —S.
—Mr. Kenneth Bell, student at the Technical College, St. John, N. B., is spending the Easter recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bell, Summerside. He was accompanied by Mr. Beleson, a fellow student, who will be his guest during the holidays. —S.

COAL MINE

(Continued from page 1)

The five men killed by the first blast were identified by mine officials as:
John McHenry, 49, Dubois, Pa.; Andrew O'Connor, 54, Punxsutawney, Pa.; Thomas Heberling, 46, Dubois; Francis Dixon, 43, Dubois; George Hill, 30, Dubois.

The other four who died in an effort to reach them: Steve Yasenchak, 29, Stamp Creek, Pa.; William Lewis, 59, Punxsutawney, Pa.; William Laird, 43, of Big Run, Pa.; Bill McCormack, 42-year-old assistant foreman.

TIT FOR TAT

"When did you blow in?" sarcastically asked the Sergeant.
"With the last drift," replied the recruit.

P. L. Bowness & Son

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS

Prince County Hospital Ambulance in Charge Summerside, Bedouque and Kensington Phone 77-1

O'Leary and Vicinity

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Nesry Shelfoon, Unionville, on the arrival of a new baby girl.

Miss Anna Coughlin, Campbellton, was a recent visitor to Howland and O'Leary.

The stock visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Meggison, Unionville, last Tuesday, March 16th and left a baby girl. Congratulations.

Miss Linnie Platts, Charlottetown, spent the week-end at her old home in Howland, visiting with her mother and brother.

The Board of Review under the Farmers Creditors' Arrangement Act held court recently in O'Leary. Several cases came before the board and were disposed of. Mr. Justice Saunders presided, assisted by Mr. Gavin Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Harris, Knutsford, are receiving the congratulations of their friends and neighbors on the arrival of a baby daughter recently.

Thirty Hungarian partridge arrived at O'Leary for distribution. Ten of them were sent to Mr. Ed. Boulier, Glenwood, ten to Mr. Gordon Adams, Forest View, and the remaining ten to Mr. George Warren, Mill Road. These birds were allowed to go where they wished and let us hope that they will be protected.

Many friends are glad to see Mr. Watson Sellicker out again after a severe illness. Mr. Sellicker has been confined to his home for quite a while.

Mr. G. L. Black manager of the Bank of N. S., O'Leary, who has been very ill has recovered. His many friends are glad to learn that he is back to work again.

Mr. George Adams and Mrs. J. A. Pate drove to Alma and spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Joseph Dunbar and Mr. Dunbar.

Mr. Frank Binns formerly of Cardigan, has received a month's leave of absence from the railway on account of illness. Mr. Binns is one of the section men from O'Leary section.

We are glad to learn that one of our former O'Leary girls, Miss Dolly Mathew was chosen as one of the students to attend the Coronation. We extend to her hearty congratulations.—O.

SOUTH AFRICA PLANS DEFENCE

Reveal Program To Bring Defences Up-to-date.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
CAPE TOWN, March 28—The South African Government has a five-year defence plan to make the country's defences as up to date as any in the world. This is revealed by a special correspondent of the "Cape Argus" in the first of a series of articles to which Defence Minister Oswald Pirow contributes a foreword.

Robben Island in Table Bay is to be fortified and provided with 15-inch guns. A radio beacon will be erected there and a local airport will be constructed. The possibilities of industrial mobilization are to be investigated and a small arms factory will be built at Pretoria. Arrangements are also to be made for the manufacture of aerial bombs and artillery ammunition.

The Government's air plan includes the provision of 1,000 pilots and 750 machines, the latter including 250 first line machines and an equal number of second line and reserve machines.

The article goes on to state that the Government's aim is the creation of a highly mobile striking land force of 50,000 cooperating with a mobile anti-tank force and with 50 heavy bombers and 250 interceptor fighters, the whole supported by artillery on the scale required, and gas de-contamination units.

A large explosive corps will be recruited from miners and a native labor corps will be formed. Fifty thousand riflemen and scouts are expected to be recruited within the next four years to act as second line troops. A national policy of civilian fitness is also contemplated.

Smythe Signs The "Busher"

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
TORONTO, March 28—Toronto's National Hockey League Maple Leafs are through for this season, but Manager Conn Smythe is already laying plans for next season.

Saturday he announced the signing of Harvey "Busher" Jackson, all-star left winger, to a 1937-38 contract. With Jackson, Leafs now have three of this year's roster under contract for next season. Syl Apps, the season's outstanding rookie, and Monckton's Gordon Drillon, who rated next to Apps as an outstanding first-year man, both are under two-year contracts.

Smythe also announced that Bill Kendall would revert to Chicago Black Hawks to start next season and Pep Kelly would be back with the Leafs. Kendall and Kelly, right wingers, were exchanged by the Hawks and Leafs midway through this season.

The line to Bermuda, 800 miles long, can be opened without an annual contract because passenger traffic alone would pay but the longer ocean hops cost much more.

SALTED ALMONDS

Most people love salted nuts, and they are nutritious and sustaining.

Put the almonds into a pan of cold water and bring quickly to the boil, then, when cool enough to handle, remove the skins, and dry the almonds.

Heat a little olive oil in a small frying pan, and when hot, drop in the almonds, and brown evenly.

How You May Get Rid of Those Painful Boils

When boils start to break out it is an evidence the blood is clogged up with impurities and requires to be thoroughly purified by a good blood medicine.

We believe there is no better blood cleansing medicine than Burdock Blood Bitters. It helps to remove the foul matter from the blood, and once the blood is purified the boils disappear and your misery is at an end. Try it!

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

When boils start to break out it is an evidence the blood is clogged up with impurities and requires to be thoroughly purified by a good blood medicine.

We believe there is no better blood cleansing medicine than Burdock Blood Bitters. It helps to remove the foul matter from the blood, and once the blood is purified the boils disappear and your misery is at an end. Try it!

Trans-Atlantic

(Continued from page 1)

Now England's Empire network is almost done. On April 1 she will inaugurate the world's greatest airmail service. Every letter a Briton posts to another part of the Empire will be flown whether he marks it airmail or not.

Only Canada remains to be hooked up with Britain. The English are ready to tackle the Atlantic. The House of Commons has been asked to authorize flights will start in June on two routes: by way of Ireland and Newfoundland in the summer and by way of the Azores and Bermuda in the winter. Big air bases have been set up at Foynes, Ireland, at the mouth of the Shannon River; at Bolwood, Nfld.; and at Hamilton, Bermuda.

On the American side, Pan-American which has no competition is ready to start as soon as the United States Government gives the word and Congress approves a $750,000 appropriation for a trans-Atlantic airmail service in the treasury post office appropriation bill.

Bankers Win Commercial League

The Bankers playing in the final round with the Barbers captured the cup in the Commercial League Bowling fixture at the Capitol Alley, Summerside on Thursday evening.

The cup will be presented at a later date.

The Commercial League games were very close all through; the Barbers were the runners-up but the Bankers proved to be the superior team.

The score is as follows:

Bankers:
B. MacIntyre	539
J. Williams	545
W. E. MacDonald	456
W. A. Tower	609
R. Boves	2811

Barbers:
A. Gallant	483
E. Houghton	580
G. Houghton	595
P. Noonan	440
Doc. MacPherson	2460
	S.

SET APRIL 10

(Continued from page 1)

at for prorogation. The session may spill over into the next week but there would still be ample time for the parliamentary delegation to reach England for the Coronation. By April 10 the end should be in sight at least.

The trans-Canada Air Lines Bill and the annual relief legislation of Labor Minister Rogers will be among matters before the House this week, the Prime Minister said Thursday night just before the Easter recess.

The bill to revise the capital structure of the Canadian National Railways will be up for third reading and the bill founded on the agreement is out of committee and on the order paper for second reading. Opposition leader Bennett may speak on the latter measure before it is given final approval.

A mild storm may blow up over the relief bill. Mr. Bennett's dissatisfaction with the government's employment policies led him to move an amendment to the budget and he may desire to emphasize his criticism when the relief legislation is before the House.

The Airways Bill which sets up the company to operate the projected airplane passenger, mail and freight service from coast to coast will be dealt with in detail in committee. A safe landing was predicted for the measure after transport minister Howe stated last Thursday night an amendment would be made to retain 51 per cent of stock control in the Canadian National Railways.

The Senate, which recessed for Easter on March 18, will resume sittings Tuesday. From now until the end of the session the Upper House will be chiefly engaged in dealing with legislation initiated in the Commons, having disposed of most of its own work.

Morning sittings of the House suggest the end of standing and special committees. The railways and shipping committee, which approved annual reports of the C.N.R., Canadian National Steamships and the Canadian Government Merchant Marine in record time and disposed of the C.N.R. recapitalization bill after some opposition, is about to present its final report.

Another soon to make its last report is the elections and franchises committee which decided against compulsory voting in Dominion elections.

Lovely flowers adorned the church and a full choir rendered very beautifully the anthems and hymns. Mr. Ralph Bolton was at the organ. Miss Helen Davies, Mr. Graham Rogers and Mr. Lowell Hancock were the soloists for the evening. Rev. L. E. G. Davies, pastor of Trinity Church and Rev. J. B. Wilson, pastor of Baptist Church assisted at the service.

Funeral Of Mrs. Jane Waugh Held Yesterday

Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. Jane Waugh, widow of the late Samuel Waugh of Wilmot, whose death occurred on Good Friday evening after a few days' illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Smallman, Summerside.

Mrs. Waugh was in her ninetieth year and was well and active until a few days before she passed away. Mrs. Waugh was a native of Clearmont and came of a hardy pioneer stock. Her parents, Neil and Jane Little, came out from Scotland and settled in the district of Clearmont. Mrs. Waugh during her long life devoted herself to the service of others, ever mindful of the needs of the sick. Her Christian character and loving and cheerful disposition made her always a welcome guest wherever she visited. Her daughter, Mrs. Smallman, and one stepson, William Waugh in Calgary, besides several grandchildren are left to mourn.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from the United Church, Rev. Mr. Davies conducting the service. Mr. George Jones sang with sympathetic feeling "He Wipes the Tear From Every Eye." The choir sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "The Sands of Time." The pall bearers were Mayor Robinson, Councillor MacKay, Morley M. Bell, Alfred Groom, Merritt Dawson and Wilbur MacFarlane.

Rev. W. McCleary, S'ide Preaches Farewell Sermon

The Presbyterian Church at Summerside was filled to capacity last evening with many standing in the entry to hear the farewell sermon of Rev. Walter McCleary who leaves this week to take up missionary work in Northern Ontario. In a stirring message Mr. McCleary challenged the people to recapture the vision of God; to recognize His sovereignty and power in their daily lives.

Taking for his text "God gives an increase" from verses 6 and 7 of 1st Cor. Chap. 3, Mr. McCleary laid emphasis on the fact that the continuity of life is only possible through God. The church must recognize that only through God can it accomplish anything.

The early church had the vision of God's purpose and people today must recapture that vision. The need of the present civilization is a moral and spiritual uplifting, to follow God's pattern and scheme of things in daily life to His honor and glory.

Rev. Mr. McCleary thanked the people very sincerely for their many kindnesses to himself his wife and family during their sojourn in Summerside and he assured them that they would look back to these years as ones with pleasant memories.

Lovely flowers adorned the church and a full choir rendered very beautifully the anthems and hymns. Mr. Ralph Bolton was at the organ. Miss Helen Davies, Mr. Graham Rogers and Mr. Lowell Hancock were the soloists for the evening. Rev. L. E. G. Davies, pastor of Trinity Church and Rev. J. B. Wilson, pastor of Baptist Church assisted at the service.

Duke Of Windsor Attends Easter Service In Vienna

VIENNA, March 28—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor today attended the Easter service of the Anglican church here.

The former King was neatly but unobtrusively attired as he strode down the aisle. The few Vienna fashion experts who slipped through the civilian guards who tried to make it a service for English only observed the Duke set no new styles.

He wore a deep green, conventionally cut suit, with a shirt with a faint bluish tinge and a dark purple necktie with a red stripe. The Duke also wore a dark brown top-coat.

The Duke stepped to the lectern and the first chapter of the Revelations of St. John in a firm voice.

Rev. C. H. D. Grimes, Chaplain of the British Legation, smiled benignly as the Duke faced the large congregation.

The Duke read with much spirit. He waved from side to side, and his blond head was all that was visible above the Easter lilies draped on top of the reading desk. His earnestness approached the dramatic as he read:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

Duke Of Windsor Attends Easter Service In Vienna

VIENNA, March 28—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor today attended the Easter service of the Anglican church here.

The former King was neatly but unobtrusively attired as he strode down the aisle. The few Vienna fashion experts who slipped through the civilian guards who tried to make it a service for English only observed the Duke set no new styles.

He wore a deep green, conventionally cut suit, with a shirt with a faint bluish tinge and a dark purple necktie with a red stripe. The Duke also wore a dark brown top-coat.

The Duke stepped to the lectern and the first chapter of the Revelations of St. John in a firm voice.

Rev. C. H. D. Grimes, Chaplain of the British Legation, smiled benignly as the Duke faced the large congregation.

The Duke read with much spirit. He waved from side to side, and his blond head was all that was visible above the Easter lilies draped on top of the reading desk. His earnestness approached the dramatic as he read:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

The theme of Mr. Grimes' sermon was "The New Life." Certain passages seemed to be addressed to the former King. The preacher observed that after the dead past hope begins anew at this season. He recited Tennyson:

"Behold, I am alive forevermore and I have the keys of hell and heaven."

Behind The Headlines At Ottawa

By Dean Wilson

It is impossible to conceal the fact that there is an undulatory wave sweeping the Capital now, which has for its basis the amendment of the seventy year old document commonly referred to by Canadian statesmen as the Charter of Canada, but which history has recorded as the British North America Act.

Whenever there is an informal gathering of Members of the House of Commons, or of the Senate, either in House or lobby, one is certain to hear some mention of this old Act, and it is usually a complaint, and this sort of reaction is not limited or restricted to members of any particular political party.

There are a number of reasons for this reaction at the present time, but two recent happenings have brought the issue to a head in the Capital, with the natural result that all sorts of wild schemes are going the rounds, though they boil down in each case to a suggestion that an immediate amendment of the original document of the Fathers of Confederation must be made.

One of the reasons for this reaction amongst the legislators can be traced to the recent judgments of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. These judgments declared null and void all measures, except one, that were passed by the Bennett Government in 1935 and which aimed for a social betterment of the Canadian people, because they were considered to be outside the competence of the Federal Parliament and really a serious infringement of the Provincial rights.

The other and more recent cause for complaint against the British North America Act as it stands to-day was brought about by the defeat of the Howe Transportation Bill in the Senate, because this famous Bill perished chiefly on account of the Seventy year old Act which provides that when a truck or bus service refrains from crossing a Provincial boundary, it is subject to the Provincial jurisdiction only. It was estimated by experts that more than ninety-eight per cent of these modern transportation services come within this limitation, and therefore, no real object could have been achieved by the Howe Transportation Bill under the existing laws of the British North America Act, although the Bill aimed to help the railway systems to compete with the truck and bus services, which enjoy a certain amount of privileges and rights that explain a good part of the deficits of the railroads in this country.

It is obvious from these facts that this undercurrent of complaint will come to head very soon, and when an amendment to the British North America Act is proposed, or becomes crystallized in action before the proper body of legislators, there is sure to be no particular political alignment on the subject, since the arguments pro and con to such a movement, come from persons of very political shade of opinion.

Although every care has been exercised by the Government and high Ottawa officials to minimize the importance of the latest movements on the part of the Government in its negotiations with the United States on certain matters of mutual interest to the two countries, there are indications in Ottawa now that seem to point out that an opinion expressed in this column previously will be corroborated in the very near future. The opinion was that Prime Minister King and President Roosevelt had conferred on an extremely timely and important matter when they met recently in Washington, and an exchange of views between experienced Ottawa and Washington correspondents seems to indicate that this is the case. The official reports stated that the recent conversations between the heads of the Canadian and the American Governments centered around the questions of the Saint Lawrence Waterway Treaty, mutual trade, and other such problems, but that is not the complete story behind these manoeuvres.

History is being made, and the Dominion of Canada is doing it right now by cementing the relationships between Great Britain and the other parts of the British Empire with the United States, and thus forming a powerful alliance of the Anglo-Saxon people in the event of any new world war. Although deep secrecy covers every move made by any of the Governments and no person has offered any commitment on this subject, yet there are signs of this historical and momentous agreement being made, and when the forthcoming Imperial Conference meets in London, immediately after the Coronation ceremonies, there may be specific hints of such an alliance, especially when the preparations for the defence of the Empire are disclosed to the general public.

These disclosures will contain many surprises according to the best informed opinions in Ottawa and some of these astounding reports will be revealed exclusively in this column next week.

FROM ANOTHER ANGLE

A police surgeon in Philadelphia says a person is sicker if he is able to say "Susie sat in the soup."

"The one to wonder about is Susie."

J. L. DAVISON FEDERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER KENSINGTON

Day and Night Calls Promptly Attended. PHONE 7-4.

SUNGLO

FREE practical information by writing for SUNGLO SERVICE SLANTS Published 8 times a year. Let us have your name and address. We do the rest. INTERNATIONAL FOX & ANIMAL FOODS, LTD. Summerside, P. E. Island.

OUT OUR WAY

OOH ~ LOOKIT THAT! YOU WANDER AROUND WITH SUCH A DUMB LOOK-NO WONDER TH' CAT THOUGHT YOU WAS A STUMP!

A CAT? OH, I THOT IT WAS YOU THOVING ME UP AGIN ~

A very pleasing report was given of the Social Evening the Institute had in the hall on March 26, the second the sum realized was $15.50.

It was moved by Mrs. Harold Mayhew and seconded by Mrs. Mont MacEwen that five dollars be taken out of the funds to be spent on any needy ones in the district, the motion was carried and a committee was appointed to look after same, namely Mrs. Harry Whitehead, Mrs. Murray McKay and Mrs. E. Harold Dunning.

The Questionnaire on Legislation was discussed and filled in by the convener.

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Erma Constable, and the roll call to be answered with a "House hold hint," and the program committee Miss Margaret Ramsay and Miss Edna Champion. The Social Hour consisted of a contest "An old fashioned dinner" by Miss Hazel Carr a reading by Mrs. Mont MacEwen and social chat, all was much enjoyed.

The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem after which lunch was served.

Take care not to allow them to over brown or they will be hard. Drain free from oil, on parchment paper, then sprinkle with sifted salt, and store in small corked bottles.

THE FAMILIAR TOUCH. COPYRIGHT 1937 BY N.S.A. SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. 2-29

HATED TO GET UP MORNINGS

Now Wakes up Full of Peppy Go Rid of Tired, Headachy, Half-Sick Feeling.

Banish penalties of modern living. Get rid of tired, sluggish, bad-taste, headachy mornings. Wake up peppy and