A SURPRISE PARTY.—On his departure for his home in London, Ont. the following address was presented to the Rev. A. Stewart who labored as a Missionary at Bradalbane and Rose Valley during the summer months just past, at the residence of Mr. Alex. McLure.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—Whereas you are about to leave us for the present, we, the undersigned, in behalf of the ladies of the Mission of Bradalbane, and Rose Valley where you have labored with much acceptance during the past summer desire to present you with these small gifts: a fur cap, driving mitts, a clergyman's muffler, and a pair of parlor slippers. Moreover we pray and trust you may be spared many years in health and comfort to wear them; and we trust, Rev. Sir, that your labors amongst us, may be blessed by our Heavenly Father, and redounded to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ the Head of the Church.

Signed in behalf of the ladies of the Mission—Mrs. Alexander McLure, Mrs. Murdoch Graham, Mrs. Malcolm Matheson, Mrs. M. D. Matheson, Miss Mary Graham, Mrs. J. A. Matheson, Mrs. Hugh McLure.

In reply Mr. Stewart stated that he was taken with such a sudden surprise that he was unable suitably to express his feelings, that he accepted these valuable gifts as tokens of the good wishes which prompted the ladies who presented them, and prayed that our Heavenly Father would be pleased to bestow upon them all needed good gifts. Rev. Mr. Stewart left for his home in London Ont. yesterday morning, he will be absent for the winter. He is delighted with P. E. I.

UP Late Nights, endless engagements generally run down! Take "The D. & L." Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It will tone up your system and make you feel yourself again. Made by Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd.

You cannot spend Thanksgiving night in any more pleasant and profitable way than making a visit with Rev. J. W. McConnell to some of the most wonderful places in Europe. In his lecture "Here and there in Europe," he will take you to the famous field of Waterloo, the celebrated Rhine of Germany, the Alpine districts of Switzerland, the canals and sights of Venice, the art galleries of Florence, the majestic ruins of the City of the Caesars, the crater of fire, scathed Vesuvius and the silent streets and temples of Pompeii. Grace church at 7.30. Admission 10 cents.

EASTERN NOTES.—A few showers of hail are all the signs of winter we have yet and these rapidly disappear, as the ground is still warm underneath, the sea comparatively warm around us and a hot sun invariably follows the hail. Ploughing is still going on, and by the numbers of red fields but little will have to be done in the spring.—George Le Pierrie has landed some cod fish at the Basin Head the last few days, the only catch of any consequence made on the south side this fall.—Seth McLean and Ira Kennedy have arrived home from the harvest fields of Manitoba. Only a few more are now to come. In interviewing the returned excursionists a considerable difference of opinion exists as to the resources, the prospects, the advantages and disadvantages of that country. Their experience as employees was also widely different. Like our own country some employees were reasonable in their demands and moderate in their expectations, and some harsh in their demeanour and extravagant in their demands. Our boys from here were not raised like the serfs of Europe or even the farm laborers of England, they were chiefly the sons of farmers in fair circumstances and expected to give a fair day's work for a fair day's pay; they had certainly to work harder than at home but in a majority of cases they were not used unreasonably, and would not object to return under similar circumstances. While they all believe there is a great future before that country, yet in social conditions in many of the small things that go to make up life they consider their Island home the first and the best.—Cyrus N. Stewart and Silas Robertson have arrived home from their U. S. cruise. Cyrus had a sleigh drive in Maine on his way down.—John McLean of Red Point still continues seriously ill. James Stewart of South Lake, and his son Charles are also poorly.—Fred Beers and Ewen Cameron of your city were visiting their customers here recently in the interests of E. F. Purdy and Fennell & Chandler respectively.
