REV. JAS McDUGALL left yesterday morning for Boston, Mass. to support the call from Birch Hill to Wm J. Campbell, Cambridge. During his absence Ewen McDougall will supply.
THE Schooner Lady May, Capt. McDougall arrived yesterday from Belle River—the first arrival of the season. The schr. Henry Ellsworth is loaded with salt by Carvell Bros. for New London.

W. A. WEEKS returned last night via Summerside from a visit to the other Provinces.
THE Mass meeting in Association Hall Sunday afternoon at 3:45 p. m. is open for all. Rev. Wm. Dobson will speak and First Methodist Church Choir will repeat the Easter music.
THERE were two full foreign mails each of about seventy five bags last night. The first came to the city via Georgetown about 8:30 and the latter via Summerside at midnight The day's mail was gained in the transfer to the summer route.
GEORGE J. ROGERS of the Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd., returned last night from Saranac Lake, N. Y., where he has been spending the past winter for the benefit of his health. Many friends of Mr. Rogers will be pleased to learn that he is completely cured and it will not be necessary for him to return to the Lake where he was compelled to spend the past four winters.
PETER JANSON, the Swede who was supposed to have been lost off the immigrant train on Sunday between Moncton and Petitcodiac was a passenger on the 5:40 p. m. express yesterday. He was not lost, as was reported, but owing to over-indulgence in alcoholic drink missed the train at Truro. He remained there until found by the officials and put on board the express.—St. John Star.

FRANK HEARTZ was a passenger last night returning from Calgary.
J. A. MATHIESON has been appointed K. C. by the Local Government.
THE Minio leaves Picou at five this morning for this port and will return Monday.
JOS. SAUNDERS and D. McLaren, Belle River came to town yesterday by the Lady May.

THE death took place at Albany, Thursday, of John Huestis, aged 87 years, one of the aged residents of that section. The deceased, who is a brother of Louis Huestis of this City, leaves to mourn a wife and a large family.
REMITTANCES of whatever nature whether by Bank cheque, express, money or postal order or registered letter must be made payable to The Island Guardian Publishing Company and not to any member of the staff, as individual persons are often absent from the city.
At the ball in Georgetown to the officers of the Stanley, Thursday night, the chaperones were Mrs. (Capt.) Gordon, Mrs. W. W. Jenkins, Mrs. Hilshey and Mrs. McDonald. The promoters were Dr. Stewart, G. W. Hibbett, J. W. McPhee, W. W. Jenkins, T. W. McDonald, Mrs. (Capt.) Gordon, Mrs. Hilshey.

THE marriage was solemnized at St. Matthew's Church, Upper La Have on Wednesday, of Rev. Innis F. Fraser Rawdon, and formerly of St. Eleanor's and Miss Cora Leary of Summerside, Lunenburg County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Gelling, rural dean, assisted by Rev. R. W. Norwood, rector of Bridgewater. Mr. Fraser is a brother to Mrs R. H. Sterns, city.
THE Guardian is pleased to announce that C. W. Sullivan, son of Chief Justice Sullivan, and Edwin O. Brown, son of Abram Brown, York, have successfully passed their final law examinations and are now ready for admission to the Bar. Both were very successful, each making high marks. Mr. Sullivan 87 per cent. and Mr. Brown 85 per cent. The former has studied with Morson & Duffy, and the latter with McLeod & Bentley. That their work has been thorough is shown by the high standing they have taken in a hard and rigid examination. In this time of continued emigration to the West it is hoped that these clever young men may be induced to remain in this Province and add to the ranks of "successful Islanders at home."

It is expected that the Local Legislature will be prorogued on next Thursday. A number of the members of both parties have gone to their homes and will not again return this session owing to their business engagements.
THE work of passing the estimates at the Legislature last night was accomplished in what was probably the quickest space of time for some years. The House did not go into committee till about 9:30 and was finished shortly after midnight. The passing of supply has in former times sometimes taken a week.
REVS. J. W. ATKINSON, G. B. McLeod and M. A. McLean, have been asked to appear before the Police Committee of the town this evening at 8 o'clock, in reference to statements they made in their temperance sermons last Sunday evening. We understand the three Reverend gentlemen will face the Committee.—Truro News. [Rev. Mr. McLeod is a native of Murray River and Rev. Mr. McLean a native of Montague, P. E. Island.]
R. S. Low has left for Halifax where his company has secured the contract of putting in bitulithic pavement on Grand street, work on which started yesterday. Mr. Low desires the Record to say that the statement attributed to the Stellarton delegation that they considered the price of bitulithic as too high is incorrect. What they said was that the ratepayers of Stellarton would first have to be consulted before the pavement was ordered. Sydney Post.—Mr Low recently laid a number of such side walks in Charlottetown.

MONTREAL

At the instance of the Opposition Leader and others in the House of Commons, Ottawa, the bill to authorize the Dominion Atlantic Railway to take over the Midland road was stood over, and it involved the question of the power of the Federal parliament to legislate as to railways, incorporated by provincial charters.
THE steamer Bonavista was splendidly painted and decorated at St. John's, Nfld., recently. The saloon staterooms were done with white enamel and gold, while the saloon proper is done in green buff and gold and the interior of the ship presents a very handsome appearance. The saloons of the Cape Breton and Cacouna will also be similarly decorated at that port.

THE death took place at Truro, Thursday night, after an illness extending over two months, of spinal meningitis, of Amy, the twelve year old daughter of Albro and Mrs. Howatt of that place. The event is doubly sad, from the fact that another sister, two years younger, died a little over a month ago. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their hour of sorrow.
A GRAND pie social and concert was held at St. Teresa's last Monday evening. The program included the following performers: Miss Nellie McDonald and Charles A. McDonald, Joseph McDonald, Frank McDonald, Alphonse McIntyre, Wm. McLeod, Stephen McDonald, Thomas Mooney. The pies were sold by Phillip Mooney and Patrick Byrne and brought excellent prices.
DURING the past few days the Hillsboro Consolidated school and neighborhood has been especially lively, about fifty men being employed by Lowe Bros. on the building and surroundings. The foreman of the construction work, George Gowden, has made some very much needed improvements on the interior of the school by removing some of the posts and substituting iron columns instead. It is expected that the school will be opened about May 15th.

Mrs. A. D. McPhee, Georgetown, has gone to Nova Scotia on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Minard Ferguson, Harwood Lands, Hants. Of her report says—Mrs. Minard Ferguson, of Harwood Lands, Hants, who was returning from a visit to her home in Prince Edward Island, Tuesday evening, went into Reid's store at Midford immediately on leaving the train apparently in the best of health; but a few minutes afterwards she was stricken with paralysis and at last reports was unconscious and her life despaired of. Her husband died from injuries received in British Columbia about three months ago. She has two daughters and one son.

BOWKER'S FERTILIZERS
A Pickard & Co., Charlottetown, Distributing Agent.
Bowker Fertilizer Co., Boston.
Gentlemen:—I planted one acre of potatoes last year on your fertilizers. I planted an acre adjoining on manure. I had a good yield on both acres; but the acre planted on chemical manure yielded 30 bushels more potatoes than the acre planted on manure.
I had the best yield of turnips from your fertilizers that I ever had.
