WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. To the strains of the Wedding March, sweetly rendered by the bride's cousin, Mr. Ernest ...nning, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Fream, in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride looked very beautiful in a gown of white satin with hat and accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of gladiolus. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Etta, who wore a yellow crepe, with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of yellow gladiolus. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Harry Tuplin. In the Scottish Kirk of Cambridge, Dr. J. W. S. Lowry preached at last Sunday's vesper service, with a good attendance of the congregation, after the summer exodus, drawing moral and spiritual lessons from the burning of the Morro Castle at sea. Dr. Lowry took from Psalms 107:23-30 "They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep. For He commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still; then are they glad because they be quiet; so that he bringeth them unto their desired haven.' The preacher said that men were sadly forgetful in these days that Jehovah was the God of both sea and land; that the winds and the sea obey Him; that He "holds the winds in his fist, and the waters in the hollow of his hand." And the same Lord Jesus who stilled the stormy tempest on the Sea of Galilee could alone calm the troubled in the storms of life, and bring the wandering ones home unto the haven of their desire. Christ is mighty to save when the waves and billows of sin and temptation, of trouble and care pass over the soul.

CUSACK-MURRAY NUPTIALS—St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross was the scene of an event of more than ordinary interest on the morning of September 5th when Miss Kathleen Gertrude Cusack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cusack of Brookvale became the bride of Mr. Matthias Murray, son of the late James Murray and Mrs. Murray of Tyrone. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were pleasingly rendered by Miss Mary Creamer cousin of the groom. The bridal party left the church to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Mary A. Kelly. They then motored to the home of the bride's parents where a delightful wedding breakfast was partaken in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and the officiating clergyman. Later in the day the happy couple left by motor on a short honeymoon tour through the Maritimes, accompanied by the sincere good wishes and hearty congratulations of their many friends. The bride's travelling costume was of blue wool crepe with shoes and hat. Previous to her marriage upwards of two hundred friends and admirers assembled at the home of the bride and showered her with gifts, both appropriate and costly, which testify to her popularity and the estimation she has always held in the community. Being one of the Island's efficient school teachers she has always actively participated in all community undertakings and will be greatly missed in activities and social circles. The groom is well and favorably known as one of Tyrone's most prosperous farmers, where Mr. and Mrs. Murray will reside. The Guardian joins in sincerest wishes for many happy years of nuptial bliss.

Plans for the construction of the trans-Canada highway between Charlottetown and Borden, under special arrangements with the Federal Government, are being pushed steadily forward, reports Hon. G. Shelton Sharp, Minister of Public Works, who returned this week from Ottawa, which he visited after attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Good Roads Association at Murray Bay, Quebec.

It is proposed that eight miles of hot-mixed asphalt road, composed of gravel, sand and asphalt of an assured standard of permanency, will be placed this fall, the work to commence at both the Charlottetown and Borden ends.

Under way at the present time is the construction of two miles of concrete road at Borden.

This work will be in addition to the experimental work which is being done on sections of secondary roads with cold mixed asphalt, both mixed in place and plant mixed, to which reference was made some time ago in The Guardian. These sections, costing considerably less than the process to be employed on the Charlottetown-Borden highway, are being laid to determine whether, as in other Provinces, they will stand up to winter conditions satisfactorily. A mile stretch at North River, and another mile at Souris beach, have been completed under this plan. There is approximately a mile at Hampton Corner which is partly constructed and workmen are also engaged on an experimental stretch at Southport near the cross-roads.

The width of the road surfaces in every case is eighteen feet.

Last year open meetings were held to which the public were invited and which were largely attended, showing the interest the community is taking in the work of the Music Club.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB—The Charlottetown Y's Men's weekly meetings, which were adjourned for the summer months, resumed last night with the President of the Club, A. M. Douglas in the chair. President Douglas opened the meeting by welcoming the attending Y's Men back again. He then called upon Mr. Luck, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for a few introductory remarks. Mr. Luck responded with an account of his transfer to Charlottetown and the welcome he has received since coming. He also extended the greetings of the Toronto Y's Men's Club to the Charlottetown Club, and then paid a fine tribute to his predecessor of the Charlottetown Y. Past President Reuel LePage called upon, gave a very interesting talk on his recent trip to St. Paul, Minn., remarking on the conditions of roads travelled over in the States and the wonderful system of marking same. Mr. LePage travelled in all, four thousand and ninety-six miles and spoke highly of the treatment given to tourists enroute.

BROOKFIELD—The power of sacred song to soothe the cares and lift the hearts of men was abundantly demonstrated on Sabbath evening last when a large congregation assembled in Brookfield Presbyterian Church to take part in a service of song. Old and familiar Psalms as well as more recent hymns were joined in heartily by those present. A number of items by the choir were effectively rendered under the guidance of Mrs. Ella MacDonald, who presided at the organ throughout. Mrs. Harold Gillespie, Mrs. Robert MacLeod, Miss Eileen Howatt and Mr. David Ward each sang solos with fine effect. Simplicity and beauty characterized a duet by little Kenneth and Lloyd MacDonald and Mr. Ira Auld paired admirably in two beautiful numbers. Mr. F. T. Lawson who was in charge of the meeting prefaced the singing of the hymn, "Lead Kindly Light," by a brief history of its composer, John Henry Newman. As the large congregation passed out into the darkness of the night they were heard to say the one to the other, "it was good for us to be here."

GIRLS' CLUB ACHIEVEMENT DAY AT ST. CHRYSOSTOME—The St. Chrysostome Girls' Sewing Club, organized last December under the auspices of the Women's Institute, held a very successful Achievement Day at St. Chrysostome on Monday afternoon, September 10th. The work was of an exceptionally high quality and all of the articles were very neatly made. Miss MacMillan and Miss Haszard of the Women's Institute Branch were present and judged the work. In the class for girls under thirteen (13) years of age, three dresses made by girls of eleven (11) years of age were outstanding and deserving of special mention. The prize winners in this class were as follows: (1) Zelma Arsenault, (2) Olive Arsenault, (3) Anna Gallant. In the class for girls over thirteen (13) years of age the competition was keen and the work excellent. The prize winners in this class were as follows: (1) Lauretta Arsenault, Sophie Arsenault (equal), (2) Philomene Arsenault, (3) Margaret Arsenault. An interesting feature of the program was a dress parade with each girl wearing the dress she had made. Special credit is due Mrs. Ben Gallant, club, leader, who so efficiently coached the girls during the club year. At the close of the meeting Miss MacMillan presented Achievement Certificates to the girls who had successfully completed the years work.

The marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Proctor, 213 Prince Street, Wednesday at high noon, of Margaret Jennie, daughter of Mrs. Douglas and the late Nathan Douglas, formerly of Mt. Stewart, to Henry Benjamin Douglas, trainman of the C. N. R., Rev. Hugh Miller, B. A., B. D. officiating.

The couple were unattended.

RETURNING TO NEW YORK—Rev. Brother Ambrose Jerome (Michael Cunningham) left Wednesday morning for New York where he has been residing since he joined the Christian Brothers forty years ago. Brother Ambrose spent two weeks on the Island, one week in Morell where a sister, Mrs. John Kenny and two brothers John and Francis reside; he also spent a week in Kinkora being a welcome guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnston. The Reverend Brother intends spending a few days visiting relatives and friends in St. John and Boston before arriving in New York.

The County Court room was crowded yesterday morning as Earl Lund, Maurice Gormley and George Kerwin faced His Honor Judge Duffy on a charge of robbery. Lund and Gormley were first called. The Clerk of the Court read the charge that of robbing Gertrude and Blanche MacNeill of approximately $200 on the 25th day of August, concluding with the words "are you guilty or not guilty." Both prisoners replied "guilty."

Kerwin was then called and charged with robbing Gertrude and Blanche MacNeill of approximately $200 on August 25, with violence to the person; when asked whether guilty or not guilty he replied "guilty."

The court then adjourned until today at 11 a. m. when the three will be sentenced.
