

Contentment

Is the greater part of life and contentment in the possession of Diamond or other jewelry can exist only when one has positive knowledge that the jewels are above criticism.

That satisfaction in jewel buying will be found here for the very reason that our well known reputation as Jewelers and Watchmakers has been gained only through persistent adherence to the policy of offering only such gems as will bear the most critical inspection.

And the high value we place upon your patronage regardless of the amount of your expenditure.

"THE TEA SITUATION"

The "Canadian Grocer"—says "TEA—The reported lifting of the Old Country embargo on tea is the chief feature in this market. While this has created an easier feeling here, yet it should be remembered that this tea in London, England, will not arrive for four or five weeks at least. From a week ago the situation in package teas remains same generally as week ago except that the Salada Tea Co. have dropped prices five cents per pound.

Tea men state that no auctions are being held in Colombo or Calcutta, and no tea is going forward to London. It is stated that there are only seventy million pounds of Tea in England, which is only enough to last six weeks. If no new tea comes forward in the meantime the embargo might be replaced at any time, it is thought."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. DANIEL McDONALD.

At Charlottetown, July 28th, after an illness of several weeks duration, there passed peacefully to her eternal rest and reward, Annie McLeod, widow of the late Daniel McDonald, at the age of 67 years. The late Mrs. McDonald was a woman of a very kind and affectionate disposition, highly esteemed by all who knew her. She had lived in Charlottetown for a number of years. She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving sister, 4 brothers, Norman, Donald, Jno R., and Angus McLeod, residing in Brookfield, and two sisters, Mrs. Elmie McLeod, Brookfield and Mrs. Wm. McLeod, Vancouver. The funeral service, conducted by the Rev. J. H. McFie, was held at the home of her brother, John R. McLeod, Brookfield, and was largely attended. Interment was in the family plot in the Presbyterian cemetery, Hartsville.

MRS. FREDERICK MCKAY.

There passed away at Midgell, after a long illness, an aged Christian lady, in the person of Mrs. Frederick McKay. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Howatt, was born in Tryon, about 82 years ago, but lived for about half a century in Midgell. Her home was noted for kindness and hospitality. The P. O. having been in it for many years, drew young and old thereto, where they were always met with a kindly greeting.

The deceased possessed splendid qualities of mind and heart, and was highly esteemed for her fine Christian spirit and genial disposition. She was an invalid for over two years, and for the last year was bedridden. She is survived by her husband, who has reached the ripe age of 87 years, and by an only daughter, Cassie, who lovingly and faithfully cared for her mother during her long illness. The funeral, which was largely attended, was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. M. McLeod, and the interment was in the cemetery close to her home.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
