TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1899.

AN EMPIRE DAY.

It has been proposed to set apart the school day immediately preceding the 24th of May as Empire Day in the public schools. Last year the Dominion Educational Association adopted a resolution in favor of such an anniversary. In doing this they acted on a suggestion from Hon. G.
W. Ross, Minister of Education for Ontario. The department of Education for that province, the Protestant section of the Council of Public Instruction for Quebec and the Council of Public Instruction for Nova Scotia have all acted on the recommendation and set apart the 23rd of May this year to be celebrated in the schools under their control as the first Empire Day.

The movement is not likely to stop there, but to extend throughout Canada and the Empire. The Toronto Globe notes that Lord Meath recently wrote a letter to the London Times calling attention to the action of the Ontario government, and adding:

"This appeared to me such an excellent idea, and one (especially if connected with a half-holiday) so well calculated to advance the cause of unity within the empire, that I ventured to ask her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies whether he could not see his way to use his great influence unofficially to push this movement throughout other portions of the empire so that ultimately the anniversary of her Majesty's birthday throughout the length and breadth of her dominions might be associated in the minds of her subjects (especially of the young) with that vast empire which has in so large a measure been the product of her long and glorious reign."

Mr. Chamberlain expressed his cordial approval of the idea, coupled with the suggestion that in England the celebration might take place on the 24th, which it appears is not generally observed throughout the kingdom as a school holiday. As the time is now short and THE GUARDIAN would be very glad that the movement should commence this year also in our patriotic province—if the Board of Education should be willing—we subjoin a copy of the official circular sent to the school inspectors of Ontario, giving suggestions as to the manner in which the day might be observed. We quote:

"Part of the forenoon might be occupied with a familiar talk by the teacher on the British Empire, its extent and resources; the relation of Canada to the empire; the unity of the Empire and its advantages; the privileges which, as British subjects, we enjoy, the extent of Canada and its resources, readings from Canadian and British authors by the teacher; interesting historical incidents in connection with our own country. The aim of the teacher in all his references to Canada and the Empire should be to make Canadian patriotism intelligent, comprehensive and strong.
The afternoon, commencing at 2.30, might be occupied with patriotic recitations, songs, readings by the pupils and speeches by trustees, clergymen and such other persons as may be available. The trustees and public generally should be invited to be present at these exercises. During the day the British flag or Canadian ensign should be hoisted over the school building."

We venture that when once a beginning is made teachers and pupils alike will find it a congenial task to devote a few hours to the consideration of imperial and patriotic subjects. It is truth as well as poetry that "we hold a vaster Empire than has been," but is equally true that the true greatness of the Empire lies not in its enormous area, its hundreds of millions of people, its mastery of the seas, or its glorious victories, so much as in the institutions which give us a well-ordered liberty, and have proved they are worth fighting for. The function of Empire Day may therefore be two-fold, as has been stated—"to give an Imperial aspect to Education and to give an educational aspect to Imperialism." Such an anniversary, fittingly observed would react from the schools upon the parents and the community at large, and we trust with greatly beneficial effect.

There have been several statements going the rounds of the press to the effect that the international conference which stands adjourned till August next, is not likely to meet again.
Sir Charles Tupper inquired about this a few nights ago in the Commons and Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that so far as his information went there was no foundation whatever for the report. Simultaneously the London Daily News publishes an interview with "a distinguished diplomat, who says he is very hopeful of a settlement on the questions pending between the United States and Canada.

"To Do Ill Costs More Than to Do Well."

This "wise saw" might properly read, "It costs more to BE ill than to BE well." The source of all health is rich, strong blood.
It is to the body what the mighty streams are to the earth. If the blood is pure, the body thrives; if the blood is weak or impoverished, then every pulse-beat carries weakness instead of strength.

Why make the cost of living more than it need be? Purify your blood and give your constitution a chance to do its level best. The only perfect blood purifier and vigor-maker in existence is the world-famed Hood's Sarsaparilla. It brings good, perfect health.
It never disappoints.

Erysipelas Sores—"After scarlet fever a running sore was left on my nose. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured me. My brother was also relieved by it of erysipelas in his face." ELLA COURSEY, Burden, N. B.

Bowel Trouble—"My mother, Mrs.
John Ried, suffered with bowel trouble for four years and tried different doctors, but obtained no relief until she began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured her." LIZZIE REID, Tracy Station, N. B.

A Good Medicine—"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family as a spring medicine and used Hood's Pills for biliousness and found both medicines very effective. For impure blood we know Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine." R.
S. PATON, publisher Bee, Atwood, Ont.

Loss of Appetite—"I was in poor health, troubled with dizziness, tired feeling and loss of appetite. I was completely run down. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and after while I felt much better. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up." LIZZIE A. RUSSELL, Old Chelsea, near Ottawa, Que.

Dyspepsia—"For twelve years I was dyspeptic and broken in health, had terrible pains in my back and was unable to work. When I had taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I recovered my health.
I always recommend it." J. B. MANOR, 362 8th Street, Oswego, N. Y.
