GERMANS COLDER NOW

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The results of the representation made to Emperor William recently by Chancellor Von Buelow and the consequent imperial pledge to keep both the speeches and the acts of His Majesty within close constitutional bounds are measured in colder mood by the people of Germany today. The Emperor is still much isolated from the sympathies of both the upper and lower levels of society. The talk among the friends of the Chancellor and the Ministers today is that they must wait to see how the Emperor acts when the next keenly interesting public question comes up. Doubt exists as to whether at the age of 50, the Emperor's impulsive and candid disposition can be so deeply modified by the events of the past fortnight that he will depart from a practice that he has followed during the twenty years of his reign.

BRITAIN HOPES FOR CHINA

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The British attitude toward the new rule in China is one of hopeful expectancy. The real management of affairs it is believed, probably will come into older hands than Prince Chun's. Those best acquainted with China hope that Yuan Shi Kai will be the power behind the throne. Among commercial houses having Chinese interest, it is a period of anxiety, lest the reformers or Chinese revolutionists should consider the time ripe for rising against the Manchudynasty but general feeling here is optimistic. Sir Robert Hart, the director-general of Chinese customs, who is here on leave of absence, speaking of Prince Chun, said recently: "It is agreed by those acquainted with him that Prince Chun is intelligent and amiable. It remains to be seen whether he is the kind of a man to give satisfaction as regent. He has shown some promise and it is fair to assume that he will do well. A year ago he was appointed to the grand council and has had to do with great affairs and the policy of the government since that time."
