MR. ALLEN MACINTYRE

A sad gloom was cast over Pleasant Grove and vicinity on December 31, 1937, when Allen MacIntyre, dearly beloved and only son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacIntyre suddenly passed away at the early age of 25 years.

Deceased had been in his usual good health until he suddenly became ill on December 30th, and despite medical aid and tender nursing passed peacefully away on the above mentioned date to his Heavenly Father in whom he trusted.

Allen, as he was familiarly known by all his friends, was of a kind and gentle disposition and his sudden passing at such an early age was a great shock to all young people of the vicinity both young and old. While his numerous friends and relatives mourn his loss no where is he missed as in the home where his absence is keenly felt.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother, his grief stricken parents also two sisters, Bertha, Mrs. Wilson McDonald, John's River and Belle at home.

His funeral was largely attended despite the inclement weather and road conditions. Interment was in Long Valley Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Adam Finlayson, Joseph Kelly, Daniel McNeil, Sybil Grant, Roland Douglas and Lorne MacKay. Undertaker, Howard L. MacKay.

LONG CREEK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Long Creek Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Rod MacLeod on Wednesday evening, Jan. 5th, with an attendance of thirteen members and six visitors. Two members paid their fees. The meeting opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Creed, roll call was an unaltered "miscellaneous."

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The sick committee gave their report. A letter was read from Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie thanking the members for the gift given her at Christmas. It was moved by Mrs. Paul MacLeod that all bills be paid.

The remainder of the questionnaires were distributed between the members. Lunch was served by the hostess and the meeting closed with singing. Place of next meeting undecided. Roll call a veritable who needs one badly.

Perhaps the stores have one they would give. She has not had a new winter coat for over 9 years, and she sure needs it, and I know she has no winter underwear or winter stockings this winter. Well, I must stop now and thank you for the way you sent that little blue and white parcel. It was so thoughtful of you, the way it was done. May God bless and reward you for all the good you have done.

Your friend ever, MRS. GLADYS SHOLLENBURG, Flat Valley, Sask.

JOHN J. BRUCE

The death occurred on Jan. 14th, of Mr. John J. Bruce of Milltown, in his 74th year. The late Mr. Bruce was born at Kilmuir, Oct. 2nd, 1861, the son of the late John Bruce and Chrissy MacQueen. He was a good citizen, a Christian gentleman in every respect of the word, and highly esteemed by all who came in contact with him.

He was a layman and esteemed member of the Presbyterian Church in Glendon, and took a keen interest in all the affairs of the church and congregation. Two years ago he took a heart attack from which he never fully recovered, and he never lost his faith and trust in Him who had been his hope and stay, quietly passing into his Master's embrace on the afternoon of Jan. 14th.

His wife predeceased him seven years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss two sons and four daughters, namely, Christine, Belle and Neil at home, (Mary, Mrs. Arthur G. Moore, of Powell, (Aunt) Mrs. Angus MacLeod of Braintree, Mass., John D. of High Bank. Two brothers and three sisters, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Marbury, Mass., The Misses Effie and Jennie Bruce of Boston, Messrs. Lauchlin Bruce of Milltown, and John of Brooklyn, a brother

William and a sister, Mrs. Jacob Cross, predeceased him some years ago.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. A. S. MacLean of Presbyterian Church at his residence at Milltown, who spoke from the text Rev. 14th. Chapter 13. The hymns sung were, "Asleep in Jesus," and "Abide With Me." A favorite piece of the deceased, None but Christ Can Satisfy, was sung by Messrs. Willard Bruce, Johnny Bears and Mack Menroe. A large number of friends and neighbors attended the funeral, showing the high esteem in which he was held by all. The pallbearers were Messrs. Duncan Bruce, Willard Bruce, Dan Matheson, Lauchlin MacKinnon, Alex. R. MacDonald and Robert Brown. The remains were buried at Glendon, waiting the Resurrection morning.

MR. ROBERT ANDREWS

A sad gloom was cast over Norboro and vicinity on Jan. 10, when the Angel of Death called and took from our midst a respected and honourable citizen in the person of Robert Andrews. He had been in failing health and bore his suffering with patience and had that blessed hope that he was going Home where there is no more pain. He was in his 79th year. Born at Hunter River in 1859 he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews. There were nine in the family and Donald, of Hunter River is the only one surviving. Mr. Andrews moved to Norboro about 50 years ago and leaves to mourn a family of seven: Nellie, Mrs. William Stavert, Kelvin; Bessie, Mrs. Edmund Stavert; Freeborn; Annie, Mrs. Truman Paynter, Nivestown; Everett; and Sterling of Freeborn; James, of Hunter River and John on the homestead, also twenty-one grandchildren who dearly loved their grandfather. His funeral which took place from his late residence on Jan. 12th was largely attended, friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend, a neighbour. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. O. Rhoad, who spoke from Corinthians, words of comfort to the bereaved. The hymns sung were favourites of several weeks. The Lord is My Shepherd, For ever With the Lord, and I Am Coming Lord, Coming Now to Thee. A solo The Old Rugged Cross was feelingly rendered by Mr. George Hiltz, Kensington. The pall bearers were Messrs William Stavert, Edmund Stavert, Truman Paynter, Willard Nicholson, George Smith, Mayne Stavert. He was laid to rest in Kensington cemetery, Rev. W. O. Rhoad officiating at the grave.

MRS. ANNA B. PRIEST

PICTOU, Jan. 31.—The death of Mrs. Anna B. Priest, wife of Mayor John W. Priest, occurred this morning at her home on Faulkland street. In her health for some time, Mrs. Priest had been confined to bed for several weeks.

Mrs. Priest was before her marriage Miss Anna Murdoch, a member of a well known Pictou family. She spent her entire life in Pictou, where she was born and where her passing will leave a decided blank. She was prominent in social circles and in community affairs. A member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, she took an active part in church work particularly in the Ladies' Association, from which she retired this year, after 12 years service as treasurer.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. H. V. Corbin (Sarah), Halifax, and Mrs. John Quincy Adams (Loy), Pictou, and one son J. Ernest Priest, of Halifax.

Help Acknowledged

Mrs. Harold Carver, Hazelbrook, R.R., has received the following list of thanks which speaks for itself.—Flat Valley, P.O., Sask. Jan. 11, 1938

Mrs. Harold Carver, Hazelbrook, R.R., P.E.I.

Dear Friend, As I am the one who received the box of clothing and papers I hasten to write you to thank you so much for your kindness in sending these things to the needy in this district.

You can not imagine how the things that are sent are appreciated by all. I do not know if the box was sent on to me as it was sent by you or not, but we were so glad to get them anyway, and I want you to tell the others for me, that could be so joyful in the things bring to people who need them so much, they would surely be repaid for all their kindness.

We are situated about 160 miles north of Battledore. We live 60 miles from the R.R. and so we are not one of the lucky ones who receive a car-load of apples. How I wish a few barrels of apples could be sent to these districts also a few cheeses and beans. I surely could place them where they could be a God-send to little children who hardly ever see an apple. One boy told me he never had all the apples he could eat yet, at one time. How I would like to put a barrel of apples in each of 80 homes here. Cheese is 35 cents per lb. here, and I heard on the prairie lots of people received one or two cheeses, beans, honey and apples sent from the east.

Well I must stop but before I do, I want to ask if in your district there is someone with a large size 44 or 46, warm coat, they would care to donate to a woman who needs one badly.

Perhaps the stores have one they would give. She has not had a new winter coat for over 9 years, and she sure needs it, and I know she has no winter underwear or winter stockings this winter. Well, I must stop now and thank you for the way you sent that little blue and white parcel. It was so thoughtful of you, the way it was done. May God bless and reward you for all the good you have done.

Your friend ever, MRS. GLADYS SHOLLENBURG, Flat Valley, Sask.

PLEASANT GROVE W. I.

The members of the Pleasant Grove W. I. held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. John Hardy. Meeting opened by singing O'Canada. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. Roll call answered by New Year's Resolution, Reports of the different committees were heard and new ones appointed. Sick: Mrs. W. E. Hardy and Laura White; School: Mary Donovan.

Program: Mrs. Randolph Murray and Mrs. Golden Matthews. Mr. Arthur Wyatt was appointed President for the district convention which is to be held in the community hall.

The Questionnaires on Canadian Industries and Home Economics were discussed and filled out.

Conveners for next month, Mrs. Murray and Miss Donovan. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Edith Hardy. Roll call with exchange of Valentines. The members and visitors were delightfully entertained by Radio music. Meeting closed with God Save the King. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

ZONSHAW W. I.

The January meeting of the Zonshaw Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Crosby with a very good attendance of members. There were two visitors present. With the president presiding the meeting opened by singing "O Canada" and repeating the Creed in unison. The roll call was answered by a National Anthem. In the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. Dan Darrach was appointed to take her place. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to leave repairing the organ until spring. The sick committee reported having visited and sent fruit to three people, and a bill for fruit was presented. On motion, this bill was paid. The school committee reported having visited school and advised that four new blinds are needed. It was moved, seconded and carried that these blinds be bought. Correspondence, consisting of letters of thanks and appreciation, was read by the secretary. The "League of Nations" and questionnaires which were in the hands of Mrs. J. W. Boyce and Mrs. Geddie MacLeod, were fully discussed and filed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Carson, R.R. 1, on Wednesday, Feb. 10th. Ancient and Modern Methods. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. A delectable lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Mildred Crosby.

"Canadian and National Events"

Electors of Ward Three

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I take this opportunity to announce I have nominated as Councillor for Ward Three, and hereby respectfully solicit your support.

If I am elected, I pledge strict, honest attention to conserve, not squander the tax-payers money—to insist that the policy of the Council be strict economy—that ALL Council meetings be open to the public—to insist that all Civic laws and regulations be obeyed by all.

Strict economy must be the watch-word of all Council meetings if the property owners are to retain their property—and finally—

JUSTICE TO ALL—FAVORS TO NONE.

Yours sincerely, JAMES T. MCKEE
