LOCAL BRIEFS

The Latest News of the City and Province.

Gathered By Guardian Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

[See also on page 7.]

MR. GEO. S. INMAN, Barrister, &c., Montague Bridge, is in the city.

MR. H. P. DUCHEMIN, B. A. of the Pictou Academy and Mrs. Duchemin are in the city for a few days.

A FEW days ago, two boys named Babcock and Oulton, of Grand Aunee, N. B., shot four deer within one mile of where they live. The miraculous increase of deer in that locality says the Transcript may fairly be attributed to the game law of New Brunswick.

POLICE COURT—Saturday morning, Joseph McKenna was sentenced to one month's imprisonment for stealing a quarter of beef from Neil McNevin, of Bonshaw. The beef was stolen from McNevin's sleigh, which was left in the yard of Mr. F. McKenna's on Richmond Street.

COPIES of the Prince Edward Island Almanac and Miscellaneous Directory for 1899 have been received at this office. In addition to the usual information found in all almanacs it contains much of special value as a reference book for this city and province and for Canadians generally. Well executed portraits of the Queen, Sir Louis Davies, Premier Farquharson and Mayor Warburton also grace its pages. The mechanical work is well done, and does credit to the publishers, Messrs. Hurley & Gamm, successors to John Coombs. No family in this province should be without this almanac, which is on sale by the publishers and at the book-stores.

THE Crescent Cycling Club had a great time at the Revere Hotel last night. There were about forty guests who joined in making an entertaining event pass off in the most harmonious and joyful manner. The Crescents are jolly good fellows and the assemblage last night was a select one. They went in for making this their second annual dinner, one of especial pleasure. Their efforts were not in vain and when all was done the affair was voted a decided success. A menu of a high order was prepared in excellent style and served in the most becoming manner by the Revere. The following toast list was disposed of with interest and enthusiasm, amid much applause: The Queen—God bless her; Sister Clubs—Messrs. Brehaut, Acorn, Trainor and Brown; Song—E. H. Mitchell; The Ladies—Messrs. G. S. McLean and Charles Woods; Our Worthy President—Mr. Wendall Harvie; Instrumental duet—Gaudet Bros.; Local Government—Mr. Brent Melniss; The Bench and Bar—Mr. W. C. Cook; Song—Mr. W. F. Collings; Fisheries—Mr. A. J. Biffin; Song—Mr. Brent Melniss; Our Island Champions—Messrs. Clark, Newsome and Brown; The Press Mr. Redmond. In conclusion cheers were given for the host and hostess and the Crescents proclaiming that each and all had spent a Merry Christmas, exchanged wishes for a Happy New Year and compliments of the season. They dispersed at an early hour—in the morning—feeling that 'twas good to have been there.

MR. R. JOHNSTON, of Bell and Johnston, Summerside, spent Sunday and yesterday in the city.

MR. J. H. BELL, M. P., Summerside, and Mrs. Bell spent Christmas in the city, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Anderson.

MARKET DAY on Saturday, brought a good many country people to town and the market was fairly well stocked. There was no change in prices.

I. O. F.—Meeting of Court Avondale to-night, at 8 o'clock. Election of officers; annual reports; payment of dues. A full attendance is requested.

PRINCE EDWARD DIVISION, No. 1, will meet in Wright's Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, at 8 o'clock. Visiting members will be welcome. The G. W. P. will pay an official visit.

THE SS. Stanley arrived at about 7 o'clock last evening and will leave for Pictou at 7 this morning. She will continue making daily round trips as long as the weather and ice permit.

It may be impossible to have the Hillsboro rink opened for the children this afternoon in consequence of the very large number who skated last night and the mild weather affecting the ice. If the rink is closed a notice will be placed on the rink door and in the drug stores.

AMONG the many who received mementoes of the happy Christmas season was Mr. J. P. Hood, Business Manager of the GUARDIAN. A handsome office clock was informally presented him on Saturday by Mr. D. K. Dobie, on behalf of himself as foreman and the employees of the mechanical staff. Mr. Hood was taken entirely by surprise, but was none the less pleased by this expression of the cordial esteem in which he is held by every one in his employ. The clock now graces the new counting room of the GUARDIAN where it keeps time for all within the establishment.

THE New Executive of the Railways' Gospel Meeting for the year 1899, are as follows:—President, John Dalziel; Vice Presidents, John McPherson and T. L. Aitkin; Secretary, J. J. Chappell; Room Committee, Rod'k Corbett, William Turner, Horace McEwen, F. Damarell, John McLean, Chas Clark, Henry Coffin, John Ross and Henry Cra-well. In future the meetings will be held in Mechanics' Hall, Prowse's New Block, every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Song Service at 3 45. Next Sunday the new president, Mr. John Dalziel will lead the meeting. Strangers always welcome.

AT THE RINK

Brilliant and Successful Opening Last Evening.

Good Ice, Good Music A Good Crowd and A Good Time.

The opening of Hillsboro Rink last evening was attended by a large gathering of skaters and promenaders.

It was a perfect winter's night—barren snow. A clear sky with a bright, shining moon and exhilarating frosty air, made it a capital time for recreation and pleasure and the rink was the centre of attraction.

The fair maidens, and active married ladies, middle-aged and young bloods, having been anxiously looking forward for a long time, to the first night at the rink, took advantage of the fine weather, good ice and merry occasion.

There was first rate skating in the open air at several other places beneath the silvery moon, but the rink was opening; there was music there, the company were of the best and a jolly time was in store for all.

It was Christmas holiday night and the happiness of the hour was universally exemplified in the cheerful and joyous faces.

Galbraith's band furnished the music and the name is sufficient to convey the value of the excellent rendition of the following selections which constituted the PROGRAMME.

- March—"Salute to Chicago." (T. P. Brooke.)
- "El Capita." (Souss.)
- Waltz—"Flowers of Italy." (Z. Stepheno.)
- Two Step—"At a Georgia Camp Meeting." (K. Mills.)
- Waltz—"Wiona." (Robt. J. Stevens.)
- "March of the First." (T. P. Brooke.)
- "Princes of Mulberry Bend." (R. Al-linson.)
- "Dewey's Victory."—March. (R. A. Hall.)
- Waltz—"Leonard." (F. R. Webb.)
- March—"Victor." (J. C. Heed.)
- Waltz—"Approach of Spring." (F. Zikoff.)
- March—"Beau Monde." (M. A. Altheul.)

God Save the Queen.
The boys lips were in a good trim and the above was rendered to the satisfaction of the crowd.

Mr. Bartlett in order to comply with the wishes of his patrons, hurried the arrangements for the opening on Christmas night and in doing so found it impossible to get all things in the shape he desired, and though those present were well pleased with everything, Mr. Bartlett will in a short time have still better accommodations and give the public better facilities for enjoyment than ever before. The advance sale of tickets has been remarkably good and bespeaks a full patronage for the popular resort during the winter.

THE person who in mistake took a walking cane, which was not his own, from the Hillsboro rink last night, will kindly leave it at the GUARDIAN office, or with the janitor at the rink.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. Longworth, relict of the late Hon. John Longworth, took place yesterday, at 3 o'clock, p. m. from her late home to St. Paul's church and thence by rail to Sherwood Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. L. C. Owen, Senator McDonald, H. W. Aitkin, H. J. Cundall, Dr. Anderson and F. de St. C. Brecken. The impressive services were conducted by the Rector, Rev. J. T. Bryan.

ONE of the city pistols in making pastoral visits yesterday found a family without food or fire in which the bread-winners, father and son were sick and the mother was vainly trying to comfort a sick infant. It is too bad that such things should be in a land of plenty, but it is feared there may be others who are suffering, but reluctant to make their wants known. It is true Christian work to seek out and relieve such cases.

CHRISTMAS EVE and the holiday yesterday were disgracefully observed by a few who under the influence of strong drink, made it their pleasure to celebrate the occasion in the most disrespectful manner within their power. On Saturday evening it was the duty of the police to make arrests with no little difficulty, their efforts being interfered with by many of the onlookers. The officers however manfully performed their task at the expense of those they had to deal with and no less than seven arrests were made. On Sunday evening one arrest was made and yesterday evening a repetition of Saturday night's trouble was experienced by the police. Drunkards were numerous and noisy and it was only with hard work by the officers that four arrests were made. Struggles between police and toughs were witnessed by many which lasted for some time but ended in the successful efforts of the energetic officers in carrying out their respective duties. Twelve victims will answer to the police court this morning for the deeds done in violating the law.
