New Annan and Vicinity

The gentle month of March is speeding
Swiftly on its wing.
Soon we'll hear the robins singing,
We are messengers of Spring.
Soon the days shall stretch out longer,
Soon the work of Spring begin.
We should worry! for we all shall
Be there, too, with noise and din.

Mr. John Cullicut, Clermont, had the misfortune to severely hurt his shoulder blade while skating some few days ago.

Miss Mamie Mill, Clermont, has been spending a few days very pleasantly at Lower Bedeque, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. McParlane.

Mr. B. F. Pillman, Sherbrooke, was a recent visitor to New Annan.

Mrs. Wyman Clark, Wilmot Valley, recently visited New Annan.

Misses Evelyn and Margaret Pillman, Indian River and Margate, respectively, spent the week-end with their mother at Traveller's Rest.

Mr. Harold Mill, Clermont, recently paid a business trip to New Annan, reporting the roads in good condition.

Mr. Arthur Enman was in Kensington Friday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Albert Moase, New Annan, has been spending a pleasant visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cairns, Summerside.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Percy Marchbank, who underwent an operation some time ago in Prince County Hospital, has returned to her home at New Annan.

Mrs. Joseph McDonald was a passenger on the eastern train Monday morning en route to Charlottetown.

We are very sorry to report the critical illness of Mrs. Parmenas Mill, Clermont. Her many friends hope for her recovery.

Mrs. Jessie Jardine, Mr. Oran Jardine, Wilmot Valley, Mrs. John McAull, North Bedeque, and Mr. David McKay, New Annan, were passengers on the Eastern train a short time ago en route to the Canadian West.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marchbank, Traveller's Rest, made a business trip to Summerside on Tuesday.

We have it from good report that Mr. Harry Walker, one of New Annan's enterprising fox men, is the owner of a brand new litter of silver black foxes. Congratulations!

The funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel Hall, Sherbrooke, took place on Friday afternoon, from her late residence, to Trinity United Church, Summerside, thence the cortege wended their way to God's Great Acre, the People's Cemetery. Mrs. Hall shall be greatly missed as she was a woman of sterling qualities and integrity, which made her a great favorite among old and young.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald and family, Clermont, have been indisposed for a few days with a severe cold. We are glad to report they are much improved.

Mr. T. A. Driscoll, Clermont, was a recent visitor to New Annan.

This surely has been some winter. To look out some days one wonders whether he is really on P. E. Island or in some southern clime, for besides sleighs we see other conveyances such as cars and bicycles going at a pretty good rate of speed, too. Keep it up, "Garden of the Gulf," some of these days you will "have it" even on Sunny California.

When you read these notes of ink,
Do not let the spirits sink,
But just wait another week,
And in The Guardian take a peek.

When March comes in, it is a sign
That Spring is getting handy,
The days grow longer every week,
And sunshine! It's just dandy.

Mr. Ernest Rayner, Traveller's Rest, was a visitor to Summerside Thursday on business.

Mr. Daniel Gillis, Clermont, had his car on a joy ride Saturday evening. Mr. Gillis says the travelling in winter never was better for cars—and this gentleman can surely handle a car

Mr. James Somers, Wilmot Valley, recently attended the hockey match at O'Leary.

Miss Viola Haggarty, Kinkora, formerly of New Annan, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heggarty. Her many friends were pleased to see this popular young lady about again, if only for a short time.

Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Traveller's Rest, has been laid up with a severe cold. Her many friends are glad to hear she is about again.

Mr. Ephraim Phillips, Tyne Valley, paid a visit to New Annan on Monday, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Ramsey.

Mr. Wm. Heggarty paid a flying visit to Summerside on Tuesday morning.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mill, Clermont, has been very sick with la grippe. We hope the little sufferer shall soon be well again.

Mr. John Heggarty, of this place, drove to Kinkora Monday, where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cairns.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Campbell of Chelton, spent Monday visiting friends at Wilmot Valley.

Miss Myrtis Picketts, Wilmot Valley, recently spent a number of days very pleasantly with friends in Chelton and Carleton.

Mr. Henry Moase has been busily engaged sawing his wood.

Among the many people who attended the game of hockey between Saint John and Summerside Crystals were Messrs. James Marchbank and J. Samuel Waugh, Traveller's Rest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marchbank and family, Traveller's Rest, were recent visitors to North Bedeque.

Mrs. Robert Moase, Miss Lila and Mr. Harold Moase paid a business trip to Kensington Tuesday evening.

Mr. Benjamin Pillman, Sherbrooke, was a visitor to New Annan Thursday evening. He reports the roads in good condition. Methinks Mr. Pillman is contemplating a longer drive.

Miss Emmeline Marchbank, of Traveller's Rest, was a recent visitor to Summerside.

Miss Irene Cotton, Clinton, is spending a few days very pleasantly, a guest of Miss Lilian Huestis, Wilmot Valley.

Mr. H. R. Moase was a week-end visitor to Clinton.

Mr. Waldon Lowther, Cornwall, is spending a few days visiting in New Annan and Wilmot Valley. He drove from Cornwall to Bedeque on Wednesday.

Many people from Traveller's Rest and vicinity enjoyed a service in the Hall there on Friday, the 24th inst. This was conducted by the Salvation Army, who are always ready to give to the listening public Christian facts., They are truly termed "Soldiers in His Army."

The people of New Annan and vicinity are busily engaged storing ice. Mr. Harold R. Moase, general merchant here, has had several teams on the job.

Misses Mamie and Lois Mill, of Clermont, returned after spending a pleasant visit at Marshfield, Charlottetown and other places in the East.

A very delightful afternoon was spent on Feb. 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Urch, Traveller's Rest when a number of schoolmate were invited in to celebrate the Leap Year Birthday of their daughter, Miss Edna. Everything was done to oust the party along, the house fairly ringing with laughter and song. After indulging in this for some time they sat down to a menu of delectable eats under which the table positively groaned, served in Mrs. Urch's favorite and well-known style. Beautiful birthday gifts were left from each child, showing not only the popularity of Miss Edna but also the love and fellowship her schoolfellows have for her. After wishing the happy young hostess many happy returns, all departed for their homes feeling they would not forget this afternoon treat for a long time to come.

Mrs. Isabelle Moase recently spent a few days at Traveller's Rest, a welcome guest of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Moase. Grandma, or "Aunt" Bell, as she is familiarly and lovingly called, is always a welcome guest among high and low, rich and poor. They say for many a mile, 'twould do you good no matter in what mood, to just see Grandma's smile.

A most enjoyable evening was spent in Wilmot Valley Hall, on March 1st, when Excelsior Division held their "open" evening to the delight of a multitude of people. Bro. Harry Waugh, W.P., as chairman, in well-chosen words admirably gave in part the meaning of the great Temperance Union, and outlined the very important part Excelsior Division was playing in its cause, and aimed to do in the future to make it worthy of its name. Bro. Waugh then proceeded to cause the following program to be carried out: Chorus, "The Battle Cry of Temperance"; recitation, Bro. John Burrows, Sr.; duet, Bros. Huestis and Large; reading, Bro. Darrell Picketts; music by orchestra; dialogue, "An Engaged Girl" (three acts); reading, by Sister Carrie Burrows. Sale of candy. Reading, Bro. Fleming; quartette, "Touch Not the Cup"; reading, Bro. James Marchbank; solo, Bro. Edward Poole; music by orchestra. Their G. W. Scribe, Mr. Emmerson Huestis, spoke very appreciatively concerning his title in connection with Division and in general terms made it clear that the grand old Temperance Union has to be strengthened, financially; consequently the Excelsior being a branch was taking a collection from the audience to further the cause, after which the plate was passed, and a goodly sum realized. Quartette by Messrs. Poole, Tomlinson and Fleming; chorus, Away, Away, the Bowl. The National Anthem was then heartily sung by all, after which the crowd dispersed, feeling that Excelsior was a very suitable name for this Temperance Division of real workers.

This news is all that I have now. I'm sure there is more to follow. In just five minutes from this hour, I'll be in Sleepy Hollow.

THREE CANADIAN WOMEN REGAIN THEIR HEALTH

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Every Suffering Woman Should Be Interested in Reading Their Letters

Sussex, King's Co., N.B.—"I have taken your medicine and find that it does just what you say it will do. I am the mother of four boys and they are all healthy. When I was carrying my first baby I was suffering from bearing-down feelings and could hardly get around to do my work. I would have to lie quiet for a good deal of the time. There was not a great deal to do, so I managed for six or seven months by lying down several times a day. I saw in one of your little books what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for women in my condition, so I said to my husband, 'I am going to try this medicine.' He got me a bottle and it gave me great relief. I got so I was able to stand on my feet and get around at my work. Now, I have my own work to do, as I am a widow. I always recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and tell them just what it has done for me. I have recommended it to my neighbor and she says she is feeling some better since taking it."—Mrs. PHOEBE ANDERSON, R. R. 2, Sussex, King's County, New Brunswick.

Women pay attention to what their neighbors say regarding health matters. In this way the results of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound are circulated in every neighborhood.

Barrington, N. S.—"I had terrible feelings, headaches, back and side aches and pains all over my body. I would have to go to bed every month and nothing would do me good. My husband and my father did my work for me as I have two children and we have quite a big place. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then got a little book about it through the mail, and my husband sent to Eaton's and got me a bottle, and then we got more from the store. I am feeling fine now and do all my work and am able to go out around more. I tell my friends it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that makes me feel so well."—Mrs. VICTOR RICHARDSON, Barrington, Nova Scotia.

The Advice of Friends

Shebo, Sask.—"I was irregular and had severe pains in my left side during my periods. Through the advice of friends I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now have more regular periods and am without pain at those times."—Mrs. F. E. DARLING, Sheho, Saskatchewan.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all these troubles.

Sold by druggists everywhere.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FANNY CAMPBELL

Mrs. Fanning Campbell, the subject of this necrology, was the widow of the late Alexander Campbell, Irishtown, died at the home of her daughter Ruth, Vancouver, B. C., January 25, 1928. Previous to her death she had lived with her daughter Marian, in Alberton, P. E. I.

Her death was sudden, the cause being heart failure. Her husband, the late Mr. Campbell, died suddenly at their home twenty-two years ago.

In maidenhood she was Joanna Fanning McLean, and was born in Baltic, Lot 18, in the year 1865.

Young in life she was married to the late Alexander Campbell, son of the late William Campbell, Irishtown, and initiated housekeeping there.

Their family comprised one son, Wilfred, living at home, said daughter Marian and Ruth, already noted.

The remains were forwardad from Vancouver, B. C., to Kensington, P. E. I., thence to her former home.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. Fleck, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ayers. Mr. Ray Phillips, Kensington, sang most pathetically "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere".

Interment was effected in the "Ceddie Memorial Cemetery," beside her husband, and her daughter Lois. The pallbearers were Alexander H. Campbell, Oliver Campbell, Garnett Campbell, Fred Campbell, Carl Weeks and Kier Bernard.

Left to mourn are the members of the family already mentioned, and one brother, John Cousins, Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Campbell was a most dutiful wife, as well as a kind and considerate mother, always making the home the kingdom of the family. In scenes of legitimate pleasure she was the very soul of enjoyment, and in periods of sorrow she proved herself a solitary sustaining influence. She lived, indeed, a highly praiseworthy life, and her reward in the eternal world is assured.

Her family and her many friends have the assurance that the many eminent qualities of the deceased will perpetuate her memory far, far into the future.

Pownal News

The weekly Prayer Service of the Alexandra Baptist Church was held on Friday the 9th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Judson, Pownal Village. A large number were present and a very helpful and enjoyable time spent. In the absence of the pastor, who is spending a few days in North River, the service was conducted by Brother Henry Lindsay, who brought a beautiful message to those present, the keynote being Obedience. That the young man has chosen the finer things of life, and is being used as a chosen vessel for God was plainly manifested here. During the service two solos were rendered, one by the speaker and one by Miss Jessie Jenkins, of Marshfield, who is spending a pleasant holiday in Hazelbrook and vicinity. Discussion, Prayer and testimony also found an important place in the meeting. After the regular meeting an old time sing song was heartily enjoyed. Another step in the right direction for our little village. Who will be we next?

We are pleased to learn that Miss Francis Wood, who was quite seriously ill with measles, is able to resume her duties at P. W. C.

Miss Bertha Wood, Mt. Mellick, spent the week end with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones Hazelbrook.

Mrs. Will Stewart, Point Prim, is spending a few days at her old home in Alexandra.

Miss Martha Robertson teacher, Royalty, spent the week end at Waterside, the guest of Miss Vinla Ballem.

Mrs. H. Thompson and son John were recent visitors in Pownal.

Messrs Fred Matheson and Albert Acorn of Bridgetown, who were in the city during farmers week, spent a very pleasant week end in Mt. Mellick, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wood.

The pulpit of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church was occupied on Sunday afternoon by Mr. Henry B. Lindsay (L.C.), who was supplying in place of his brother, Rev. Robert Lindsay. This young man, who is just on the threshold of his grand and noble vocation, held the rapt attention of his large congregation as he expounded to them the scriptures in his well modulated, clear, ringing voice, his perfect enunciation being a pleasure to all, especially to some of the older members of the congregation, whose hearing faculties are somewhat impaired. The text chosen was "Joseph was already there." The speaker illustrated this text in several different ways, making the message clear to the people. Joseph or Jesus was already there. The way which the Christian must travel has already been trod by the Master. Why should we stop to doubt or fear? Our hour of Gethsemane is made easier because "He was already there." The following was a very fitting climax to this beautiful message.

O ye of little faith, said Christ,
Why did ye stop to doubt
When you believe with faith Supreme
That blessings like a mighty stream
Will compass you about.

The duet by Mrs. Tanton and Mrs. J. Jenkins, and a solo by the latter was very enjoyable. That the speaker is heartily welcomed on the field by one and by all is quite discernible.

The following program was admirably carried out at the concert in the hall here on Friday. Before submitting the program probably I should say I was not present for the first numbers and should any mistakes occur I sincerely hope no one will go up in the air. Program:

Piano Duet — Mrs. Beatrice and Miss Bea Judson.
Song—Mr. Joseph Haley.
Reading—Rheta Gay.
Trio—Mrs. Judson, Bea and Mrs. Littlejohns.
Violin Solo—Mr. Littlejohns.
Duet—Helen Judson and Doris Beaton.
Song—Miss Vivian Gay.
Solo—Mr. Lewis.
Duet—Helen Peters and George Lawton.
Song—Mrs. W. MacEachern.
Sale of Boxes
Violin—Bea Judson.
Dialogue—Rolly Gay and Lewis Herneau.
Song—Joseph Haley.
Cello—Mr. Littlejohns.
The King.

While all the numbers were heartily enjoyed, special mention might be made of the songs by Mrs. MacEachern and Mr. Haley, respectively. These voices have not been heard among Pownal artists for some time, consequently they received a big ovation. We hope to hear them soon again.

Some of the performers, who were booked for this entertainment were unavoidably absent — consequently the gap was filled by mysterious performers. The following is the personell. Mrs. N. Gay, Mrs. George Carver, Mrs. Wilfred Lawton; Mrs. V. Wood, Miss Bea Judson, Miss V. Gay and Mr. Arden Richards. Each of the singers in turn were concealed, after which the audience were given a chance to guess who they were. This performance was a change as well as something new.

What is Home With a Sick Mother?

Peterboro, Ont.—"Following motherhood I developed a trouble that pulled me completely down in health. My nerves were bad, I was weak, had severe pains in my sides, my back ached and I was a nervous and physical wreck. I recommend the "Favorite Prescription" to all women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. Maurice Tobin, 100 Steward St.

Mr. Harold Easter of the Royal Bank staff, Charlottetown, spent the week-end at his home in North Wiltshire.

The Highfield Granites played the Rustico hockey team on the Hunter River Rink Wednesday night, and won out by a score of 5—4. The game was an intensely interesting one, and was witnessed by a large number of fans. Mr. Russel Roper very satisfactorily refereed. The two visiting teams were entertained to a bountiful lunch after the game by the Royal Sisters.

On Saturday, the Royals went to North Wiltshire and in the afternoon played the hockey team of that place. The game ended in a score of 4—1 in favor of the Royals. Mr. Sheldon Easter refereed to the entire satisfaction of all. The boys enjoyed the trip and look forward to the return game.

Young and old enjoyed the fancy dress Carnival on the local Rink Saturday evening. The ice was in splendid condition and the varied and multi-colored costumes worn by the large number of skaters presented a very pleasing appearance. The prize-winners, juidged by Mr. S. M. Daniel and Dr. J. R. Murchison, were as follows:

Most original costume, representing an aged couple—the Misses Hazel Sellar and Dorothy Cutliffe.

Best costume (men) representing Potato Growers' Association — Mr. George Whitlock.

Best costume (Ladies) representing an Irish Coleen—Mrs. Howard Court.

Children under 12 (Boys)—Hilton McMillan, representing a cowboy.

Children under 12 (Girls)—Florence Noy, representing Little Red Riding Hood.

Several other very fine costumes that required much time and ingenuity to prepare, elicited many complimentary remarks.

Altogether, the affair was a success and similar skates will be eagerly anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Clarke spent the week-end with friends in Kensington.

Mr. Peter Gallant was a visitor to Charlottetown on Monday.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN NEW ZEALAND

(Special to Daily Times)

AUCKLAND, February 1. — The unemployment situation was referred to to-day by the city missioner, the Rev. Jasper Calder.

"Human nature can stand a certain amount," he said, "but so far as we are concerned, we have reached the end of our tether. I predict that if something is not done soon there will be a big political revolt, because there is an ugly tone from some of the men — a tone that I do not like."

The city missioner accepted full responsibility for his utterances, declaring emphatically that for the first time in the history of the mission he had been compelled to inform people that he could not assist them, so great was the stream of people who passed through the institution daily in search of food, drink, and clothing.

The unemployment position has steadily grown worse during the past few months, and it is estimated by those with intimate knowledge of the market that there are over 2000 men alone out of work in the city and suburbs. Trade union books disclose startling figures and even to midwinter the out-of-work lists are no greater than they are at present. City relief workers shudder to contemplate what is to happen before the winter of 1928, as the situation has never been so tense in mid-January as it is revealed to be at the present time.

Asked if he could suggest a remedy, Mr. Calder said: "There is only one remedy—work. If you handed me now a cheque for £1000 — and heaven knows I could do with it here—it would not give these men what they want. They do not want charity. They want work."

"I say that 90 per cent of them are genuine cases. You see, we know them so well that they are not strangers to us. We get a few larrikins, but we soon pick them out."
