

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY DRAGGED HIS WIFE WITH MULE TEAN

It pays to buy in this Province... The plan for "At Yale" will open at 10 o'clock this morning to coupon holders.

Miss Katie Oliver, City, is spending two weeks visiting friends in Kensington and Summerside.

No one should fail to attend the fancy sale and tea in St. Peter's Schoolroom, tomorrow, from three p. m. to seven p. m.

Three drunks arrested on Saturday, will appear before His Honor this morning.

The weather of Saturday was the first of the real winter variety which has been experienced in this section of the Province this season.

The many friends of James Kelly, grocer, City, will be sorry to learn of the death of his mother, Mrs. John Kelly, who died on Saturday night.

The storm was a decided drop in the temperature added to the discomforts of the day.

Harmony Rose Glycerine Soap is one of the most perfect toilet soaps on sale.

The large Young was in tow of the steamer Isabelle Boyce from which she was separated when the tow line snapped shortly before noon Friday.

HOW LOVE WRECKS NAVIES. In the time of crime or disaster the French proverb says chechez la femme, search for the woman.

The Young's spar snapped off at 11:55 o'clock. Progress had been difficult before but with the added incumbrance of the rigging dragging over the side it was next to impossible.

THE GOSPEL OF PAIN. (Harper's Weekly.) Men are beginning to see the value of living in the moment.

Capt. McLean tells it simply and unambiguously that Mrs. Christwell and Mate Genrow declared that everything in human power was done to handle the craft and bring her to a place of safety.

"Nobody will ever know what we endured on that trip," said one of the men. "It was cold, terribly cold. The waves were the most terrible I have ever seen."

ANNOUNCEMENTS *The annual meeting of Stratcona Institute will be held in Hazelbrook Schoolroom on Dec. 1st at 6 next. 11-27d11.

"Mate Genrow shows two frozen thumbs as a result of the terrible ordeal." Mrs. Christwell, not overly strong at any time because of her advanced years, lay in the bottom of the boat with seas breaking over her one after another.

They found a fisherman's shanty when they reached the shore and to this the men stumbled supporting the stiff fisherman's woman. They built a meagre fire with the supplies they found at hand and hovered about it until the captain and another mustered strength enough to go to the turnbull mill from where they telephoned to Alpena.

The captain and three seamen came to the city last night but the mate and Mrs. Christwell were so exhausted they were kept at camp for the night until this morning.

ANNOUNCEMENTS *The annual meeting of the Clyde River Farmers' Institute will be held in the Kingston Hall, on Monday next. 11-27d11.

The Young lies in 30 or 40 fathoms of water several miles from Middle Island. She was viewed by Middle Island life-savers yesterday afternoon just before she sank but was then in such a condition that nothing could be done for her.

The men are still so dazed that they are unable to talk much of the experience. Capt. McLean alone is cool as a cucumber and shakes his head deprecatingly when it is suggested to him that he has done anything out of the ordinary.

ALLEGED OPIUM GANG CAPTURED AT WINDSOR

WINDSOR, Nov. 23—The organized gang of opium smugglers which has been operating along the Canadian frontier for several months, and using Windsor as its base of supplies, is now believed by the United States special agents to have been broken up by the arrest in Chicago recently of its members.

The London newspapers are reserving comment until they have heard the editorial remarks that Europe looked into the abyss and recoiled with horror.

Lord Charles Beresford's speech is regarded in some quarters as an attempt to justify the recent removal of Reginald McKenna from the admiralty.

MAKES PLEA FOR MORE DIVORCE

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 23—Dr. Julia Seaton Sears, one of the leaders of the New Thought movement, defended her plea for more and easier divorces.
