Enjoyed Visit To Island Province

Describing in a New Brunswick exchange, a delightful visit to Prince Edward Island last summer Mrs. J. Leonard Steele, of Barnesville, King's County N. B. writes:
 "One of my outings was an all day ride. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Duffy, Mrs. Kerr and myself left home at nine o'clock and drove across the island to the opposite shore, passing many pleasant villages and beautiful farms with the largest fields of grain and potatoes I had ever seen. We stopped a few minutes at one fishing hamlet to view the great stacks of fish laid out to dry, and to enjoy the wonderful view. For some distance from this village our road ran close to the shore and at one point the sea had eaten away underneath and the road had broken away; a new one was being built further inland, and I could not but wonder how those little homes stood the force of Atlantic gales. This was called the Rustico District, and from here we drove on around the shore and then through more smiling valleys to Stanley Bridge where we rested for an hour and ate our picnic dinner by the wayside. We then travelled on pleasant country roads until we reached Kensington, a thriving village, and I might say right here, that one thing struck me forcibly on all my trips—and that was—the neat appearance and large number of country churches and school houses.

 From Kensington we drove through to Summerside and found it a close second to Charlottetown, with its large stores, good hotels and public buildings, also in the beauty of its surroundings. Leaving Summerside we drove near the shore and had a view of the water of the Strait in the evening light, passed the Bedeque villages on to Borden, and from there back to Charlottetown in time for supper tired and happy at the end of a perfect day.
 I was also taken for many other trips by Mr. and Mrs. Wise, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gallant, and visited New Glasgow, Hunter River, Milton, Wheatley River, and Southport, and enjoyed many beautiful drives around Charlottetown. I was especially interested in going out to Cavendish Beach and seeing for myself "Anne's Home," and the places made so romantic by Miss Montgomery. The beach is wonderful with its wide sweep of pure white sand stretching out so far from those red walls of sandstone. It makes a perfect playground for tourists, and has one or more pleasant tea rooms near the beach.
 Now for a few words about Charlottetown before closing my letter.
 I was charmed with the beauty of its shady streets and the numerous squares with their shade trees and lovely flower gardens, and a general air of prosperity, even on the smaller streets. I visited several of the large stores, and found in all the same courtesy extended to all visitors and a willingness to explain anything or help in any way the stranger in their midst.
 There are several good hotels to choose from, and garages and service stations where the motorist can have all his wants supplied.
 Charlottetown also has many beautiful churches and public buildings. I had the pleasure of going through the Parliament building, and the rooms where the Fathers of Confederation met, also the Public Library and Prince of Wales College.
 My last week was taken up with the exhibition, which was truly excellent for a small city. Perhaps the two things which impressed me most were the splendid racing horses, and the wonderful beauty of the ladies' embroidery work and hooked rugs.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION
 The congregation of St. Stephen's Church, Burlington, celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of the opening of their church on Friday, June 26th, 1931. This celebration took the form of two services. At the afternoon service Rt. Rev. John Hackenly, Bishop Co-adjutor of Nova Scotia, consecrated the newly enclosed portion of the cemetery.
 He was assisted in this solemn service by Rev. W. J. Phillips of Alberton, Rev. E. R. G. Bridgewater of Craupaud, Rev. Charles White of Windsor, N. S., Rev. George Westbrook of Milton, and Rev. G.

 T. Spriggs, rector of the parish.
 Following this service the congregation repaired to the church where the Bishop administered the rite of confirmation to four candidates namely, Hilda Cole, Jean Campbell, John Murphy and Leigh Paynter.
 He also dedicated a beautiful prayer book, a gift from the Paynter family in loving memory of their parents Richard and Martha Paynter. His Lordship was the preacher at this service and his address to the candidates was full of wise counsel applicable to the entire congregation.
 Rev. H. D. Raymond of St. Paul's, Charlottetown, was the special preacher at the evening service, speaking from the words "whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises." 2nd Pet.
 1-4. His eloquent and forceful sermon was listened to with close attention by the large congregation.
 The musical part of the service was enriched by a beautiful solo sung by Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon of Charlottetown, accompanied by Miss Lillian Earle.
 The present church building contains a good deal of the workmanship of the church of seventy-five years ago, the foundation and side walls being those of the original building. The men of parish erected the church with very little outside help; the scantling, boards, laths and shingles were all hand-sawn, the lime for the plastering was obtained from oyster shells from the river not far away.
 The land for the church property was given by Mr. Thomas Mil-man, whose grandson, bearing the same name, is now in training for the ministry of the church in Wy-cliff College, Toronto. The hallowed resting place of the dead has for years been exceptionally well kept due largely to the initiative of Mr.
 W. J. Paynter, the recently retired warden who served in that capacity for twenty-nine years.
 For the first years after the church was established there was no settled rector, the clergymen from St. Eleanor's parish coming for occasional services, performing marriages, baptisms and burials.
 The parish register gives the names of Rev. T. H. Walpole, Rev. F. Roberts, Rev. T. W. Johnstone, Rev. W.
 Wiggins, Rev. J. W. Forsythe, and Rev. J. H. Read of St. Eleanor's, who performed these services. Early resident rectors were Rev. Wm.
 Meek, Rev. J. A. Richey, Rev. J. C.
 Cox, Rev. O. S. Newham, who is still living in St. Stephen's, N. B.
 These were followed in order by Rev. T. B. Reagh, Rev. Thomas Lloyd, Rev. G. C. Wallis, and Rev.
 H. H. Aylwin, all deceased, Rev. J.
 A. Winfield now living in Nova Scotia, Rev. A. W. Nicholls in Arizona, Rev. A. Watson in Halifax, N. S., Rev. C. W. Neish in Nova Scotia, and the present rector Rev.
 G. T. Spriggs.
 The first recorded baptism is that of Benjamin Champion on March 16th, 1856, by Rev. Wm.
 Meek. The first burial recorded is that of Susannah Rundle, widow of William Rundle, Sept. 12th, 1858, also by Rev. Wm. Meek. The first marriage was that of James Evans and Maria Profit on Jan. 3rd, 1865, by Rev. J. A. Richey. Letters of regret at their inability to be present were read from His Grace the Archbishop, Archdeacon Newham of N. B., and Rev. J. A. Winfield, and Rev. C. W. Neish former rectors. Both services were well attended considering the unfavorable condition of the weather.—X.

 The Annual Examination of North Enmore School was held on the afternoon of June 26th, there being about thirty-five visitors present.
 The pupils, who were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Mary E. Trainor, assisted by Miss Evangeline Sabine, teacher of South Enmore School showed by their accurate answers the careful training they had received during the past six months.
 A short programme, consisting of songs and recitations was then carried out by the pupils, after which a vote of thanks was tendered the teacher for the efficient manner in which she carried on her work in North Enmore School.
 The pupils and visitors were then treated to candy by the teacher.
 Very appropriate gifts were received from the pupils and Mrs.
 David Bigger, Vice-president, of the Women's Institute read the following address, while Miss Rheta Bryant presented Miss Trainor with a leather under-arm bag.
 Dear Mary—As this is the eve of your departure, we, the officers and members of North Enmore Women's Institute wish to thank you for the interest which you have taken in our institute during your sojourn with us. We shall miss you in our meetings, but we hope you will see your way clear to come back with us again, but if not, we sincerely wish you success wherever your lot may be cast.

WATERVALE WOMEN'S INSTI-TUTE—The June meeting of this Institute met at the home of Mrs. Edward Boylan with nine members and eight visitors. The meeting opened with Institute Ode and roll call was answered by each member telling a story or paying a fine of five cents. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.
 The Secretary reported buying screen wire which was ordered for the school windows. The School Committee reported school need cleaning. It was decided to clean same Saturday, June 20th. Mrs. M.
 Hayes and Mrs. J. T. Grimes were re-appointed on the Sick Committee. Program, Mrs. Gertrude Mc-Leod; Correspondence, Miss Anne Byrne. After the meeting addressed, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and music and next enjoyed by all present. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wisner.

THE ONLY nicker drink on the market. Zip-o.
 Please accept this small token, not for its intrinsic value, but as a mark of appreciation for your kindness and ability.
 Signed on behalf of the members, Mrs. Geo. Bryant, President; Mrs.
 David Bigger, Vice-President.
 Miss Trainor although taken by surprise, thanked the members of the Institute and the pupils for their kind remembrances; she also expressed her appreciation for the co-operation and help from the rate-payers in her school work.
 The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close, which begins next Thursday.

MISS MABEL JENKINS, Millview, who has been visiting in the city the guest of her cousin, Mrs. E. C.
 Burhoe, has returned home.

 young couples took place at St.
 Joachim's church, Vernon River on Wednesday morning, June 24th, when Miss Irene Coady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coady, Mill-view, became the bride of Mr. Elmer McQuaid, Bideford. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white lace and satin, fashioned on long lines. She wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms, gloves and white satin pumps to match and carried a beautiful bouquet. The bridesmaid, Miss Mc-Quaid, sister of the groom, was becomingly attired in an ensemble of pink crepe, with large picture hat of pink. Mr. McIver was the best man.
 Following the ceremony dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. McQuaid received many beautiful gifts, which goes to show the high esteem, in which they are held. In the evening a reception
 groom's parents, Bedford. After wishing Mr. and Mrs. McQuaid many years of happiness, the guests returned to their homes.
 Mr. Albert MacLeod, Sr., who has been spending the past winter

WEDDING which held much interest for the many friends of the young couples took place at St.
 Wednesday morning, June 24th,
 when Miss Irene Coady, daughter
 mer McQuaid, Bideford. The bride
 Quaid, sister of the groom, was
 best man.
 Following the ceremony dinner
 diate relatives and friends were
 ly decorated with flowers. Mr. and
 Mrs. McQuaid received many beau-
 returned to their homes.
 Mr. Albert MacLeod, Sr., who
 has been spending the past winter in Chicago, returned to his home in Millview, recently.
 Mrs. McKenzie, Fort Augustus, has been spending a few days the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Coady Millview.
 Mrs. Rose Bradley, city, has been visiting in Millview.
 Misses Janie Acorn and Gertrude Villet, Boston, Mass., have arrived on the Island to spend the summer.

 and family, Roseneath, were in Millview Friday.
 Messrs Wm. Smith and Everett MacKinnon, have recently completed a filling station for Jenkins Bros. Millview.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jenkins and Miss Hazel MacEachern were visitors to the city Friday.
 Mr. Edmund Murphy, China Point, had the misfortune of breaking his collar bone.
 Mrs. James Redmond, Lake Verde was a recent visitor to Mill-view.
 The many friends of Miss Myrtle Ross, Vernon River, are pleased to see her home again after her recent operation in the P. E. Island Hospital.
 Miss Hien Smith was the guest of Miss Ora Jenkins, Millview.
 Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Weatherbie and family, Montague, passed through Millview, Saturday.
 Miss Olive Smith, Boston, Mass.,
