Eastern News

Mr. Paul Campbell, Bayfield, was in Souris, this week.

Mr. Higgs, city, was among the visitors East this week.

Miss Patricia Mullan, Souris West, has entered the City Hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Sara McDonald who has been visiting friends in Souris returned to her home in the city.

On Thursday Nurse Vickerson and Dr. A. A. McDonald visited Rollo Bay West School for health inspection.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Aitken motored to Charlottetown on Thursday also Mr. Lloyd Davidson and Mr. J. D. Coffin.

Mr. Jack McLure, Albion Cross, accompanied by Mrs. Charles McKenzie, Cornwall, were in Fortune, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dingwell, Bay Fortune, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby son born in the P. E. I. Hospital.

We regret to report the death of Miss Flora McCowan, R. N., Mount Hope. Deceased was a great favorite with all who knew her and her passing will be deeply mourned by her numerous friends. Her funeral was very largely attended.

Miss Lynn Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mills, Little River, is attending Business College in the city. Also Miss Bertha Dingwell and Miss Francis Jenkins of Annandale.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. Harold Stead, Red House, recently, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Frank Stead. Dancing occupied the earlier part of the evening, followed by a very delightful repast. Mrs. Stead was furnished by Mr. Warren McKenzie. Among the guests was Mrs. Robert McKenzie.

During their inspection tour among rural schools the nurses were the instigators of several Junior Red Cross Clubs being formed. Two were formed among the children of Fortune, one for the senior and one for the junior children. They have received their badges and are delighted with their club. On Saturday morning the members on the sick committee took what penalties they had in funds and set out to buy a treat for and pay a visit to their two little companions Fred and Stanley Wilt who returned from the P. E. I. Hospital where they had tonsils removed and other defects attended to. Needless to say such clubs encourage the spirit of helpfulness and neighbourliness hurried helpers to the scene. In tiny tots and help to do away telephones on the line were also used to summon aid.

Miss Myrtle Condon, Souris, left last week for Boston.

Mr. Charles McCormack, "Gowan Brae", was a visitor to Souris Wednesday.

Mr. Marshall Paquet, Souris, has recently been appointed Clerk of the Court.

Messrs Edmund Davie and E. Sweeney, Souris, left this week for Trenton, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, Fortune, were visiting in the city for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wood, Red House, were visitors to Mt. Hope Thursday evening.

Mr. M. R. Dingwell, merchant, Bay Fortune, was on a business trip to Souris Wednesday.

Mr. Earl Johnstone, Fortune, was East this week buying chickens and fowl for his cannery.

Miss Mildred Coffin, Rollo Bay West, is attending the Convent School, taking up entrance work and music.

Mr. John Ladner, St. Peter's, and Mr. Howard Wood, Red House, bought a carload of cattle in this vicinity recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townshend, Rollo Bay West, have returned after an enjoyable visit to Canadian and American cities.

The members of the Rollo Bay branch of the Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Johnstone, Fortune, for their November meeting.

Among the autumn events was the marriage of Miss Bertha Robertson, Annandale and Mr. Wesley Dingwell, Bay Fortune, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Constable, Dundas.

Messrs Walter Burdett, Edward Burdett, Herbert McLeod, and Charles Clay, Dundas, rendered very special music in the United Church, Souris Sunday evening. A large number of people attended and had the pleasure of hearing them.

A bad fire occurred at Fortune Bridge Tuesday night when the house of Mr. Hector McNevin was burned to the ground. The alarm was given to the neighbours about 1:30 at night and despite their efforts nothing could be done to save the building nor contents. They were successful however in saving the other buildings on the premises and also kept the flames from doing damage to the home of Mr. John Davidson which was very near by. Even the ladies of the community "did their bit." Mr. Roy Johnston took a motor truck and in tiny tots and help to do away telephones on the line were also used to summon aid.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Dundas, were recent visitors to Fortune.

Mr. Chester Pratt, St. Peter's, was on a business trip East last week.

Miss Cassie McInnis of Boston, arrived last week on a visit to her mother.

Mr. Leigh McKenzie, Bay Fortune, has secured five wild geese this fall.

Messrs Leon and Sam Johnston are on a business trip to Charlottetown.

Miss Mildred Coffin, Souris Convent, is at present ill at her home in Rollo Bay.

Messrs Garnett Prefitt and Ralph Dingwell, city, were among the agents East last week.

A whist and dance in the B.I.S. Hall was among the events last week. This was largely attended and the proceeds go towards the Orphanage Fund.

The Rollo Bay-Souris road is in very fair condition for the season. Most of the "bad places" were gravelled during the summer and are in excellent shape.

The sale of Mr. Cyrene McDonald, Greenville, was held on Tuesday and was a splendid success, everything going "sky high."

A twisted clothes line, easily opened, has been invented to hold articles hung out to dry without pins.

Hunter River And Vicinity

Mrs. Ivo McDonald, wheatley River has returned from an intended visit to Amherst N. S.

Mrs. A. B. Cutcliffe has returned from Kensington where she visited her sister, Mrs. (Dr) Jardine
