BRITAIN PLACES CARDS ON THE WORLD'S TABLE AND APPEALS FOR APPROVAL

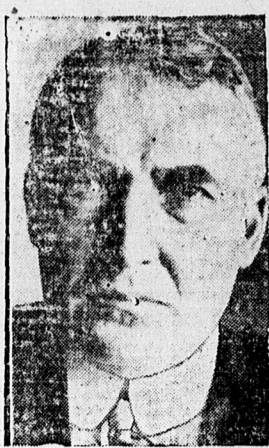

Notice is Served on France that Her Present Policy Must be Interpreted as Indicating Military and Political Rather Than Economic Causes, and Must Mean Dissolution of Entente.

(British United Press) LONDON, Aug. 3.—The real meaning of the official statement and Premier Baldwin's speech in yesterday's debate in the British House of Commons upon the world's table face up and she appeals to the court of the world's opinion particularly to the dominions and United States for approval of her attitude in the Ruhr situation and notifies France that persistence in her present policy must be interpreted as indicating political and military rather than economic causes and must mean dissolution of the Entente.

The government obviously has the support of the majority of opinion in the House.

Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the Opposition while demanding further information and expressing his doubts as to the wisdom of the course which has led to the present crisis has promised the support of his party.

Mr. Chamberlain criticized the methods adopted but went further than others in his doubt of the

PRESIDENT HARDING

Vice-President Calvin T. Coolidge who is acting as president.

Calvin Coolidge Sworn in as President of U.S.

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, August 3.—Calvin Coolidge took the oath as President of the United States at Plymouth, Vermont today.

The burial of President Harding will be made at Marion, Ohio, a small Ohio city, where Harding was born and brought up. The trip across the continent will be made in the same train that brought him to the west.

Naval and military honors will be paid the dead commander by the army and navy throughout the whole trip.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Calvin Coolidge, who took the oath of the President of the United States in perhaps better equipped by experience to take up the administrative duties in the White House than was any of his predecessors who have been called to that high office by the death of a president.

Having won for himself in large measure the Vice-Presidential nomination by his executive forcefulness as Governor of Massachusetts he has kept throughout the Harding administration closely advised as to the problems of the Federal Government and has assisted in shaping administration policy by his constant attendance at cabinet meetings.

Police Campaign Against Defective Auto Brakes

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 3.—In an effort to reduce the number of accidents with autos the local police are taking action with regard to brakes. The following statement has been issued by the Police Department.

"As many accidents are due to defective brakes, the police have started a campaign of brake inspection. On Saturday last 25% of the 60 vehicles inspected were found defective in this respect. In future drivers found in charge of cars with defective brakes will be summoned."

Lieut. Gen. Sir E. Hutton, in command of the Canadian militia from 1898 to 1900, is seriously ill in London.

PRINCE STREET ADDED TO STREET CONSTRUCTION

Work on Street Was Finished Yesterday, and is Now One of the Finest in the City

Mr. E. P. Flannigan, paving developed in Charlottetown was the most uniform they had ever seen. This Mr. Flannigan attributed to the quality of the material used and the careful workmanship of the plant. Mr. Flannigan work of his kind done this summer was that on Prince Street which has been completed from Water to Euston streets. Mr. Flannigan inspected along with City Engineer Nicholson, all the streets in the city that have been laid with sheet asphalt and he declares the work on all these streets, without exception, is equal if not superior to any street in the world. In comparing notes in the University of Michigan with engineers from all parts of the United States and Canada, Mr. Flannigan says that the consensus of opinion among them was that the asphalt mixture

Hungary's Sherlock Holmes Gone With 200 Dollars

VIENNA, Aug. 3.—Hungary's Sherlock Holmes has gone wrong and gone gone with 200,000,000 crowns and the professional reputation of six star detectives of the Budapest police force, who helped him to make his get-away.

Hugo Kopinitz, the hero, is an ex-officer who has been studying at Budapest University and dabbling in criminology as a hobby.

Kopinitz decided to help out the police and to become a secret agent of the Budapest equivalent of Scotland Yard. In eleven big cases he did valuable work. His specialty was smugglers and the "valuta profiteers"—speculators in exchange.

Diplomats Abroad Pay Heavily to Entertain King

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The pomp of European courts has not decreased noticeably since the war, according to reports of American diplomats to the State Department. American ambassadors are continuing their complaints of inadequate salaries to meet the heavy drain of social entertainment, and are citing post-war troubles of entertaining royalty, at functions which cost or surpass the gilded affairs of pre-war days in Europe.

For instance, the state dinner given recently by George Harvey American Ambassador to the Court of St. James, to the British royal family set back the American treasury some $3,000—for one dinner and trimmings. In fact, the trimmings constituted a large part of the bill, which contained an item of $750 alone for palms and ferns given standing room in the fireplaces of the American embassy for the occasion.

McLachlan Admits Signing Original Circular Letter

(Canadian Press) HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 3.—At a preliminary examination today of J. B. McLachlan and Dan Livingstone, former officers of District 26 of the United Mine Workers of America, Mr. McLachlan stated he had signed the original of the circular letter which had been sent to the thirty-five local unions of the district.

It was in connection with this circular that the two officers were arrested on charges of "publishing false tales." The cases were continued until August 16 and bail of the two men renewed at one thousand dollars.

Scientists Caution Against Deadly Gas

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—That hydrogen sulphide, a gas often found in and about industrial plants, is extremely poisonous, although not heretofore recognized as such, is disclosed by the Bureau of Mines after a series of tests on men and animals. The investigation showed that acute poisoning can be produced by low concentrations of this gas and may result in respiratory paralysis followed by heart failure and death.

The gas is sometimes present in mines, railroad tunnels, sewers, and marshes, and is found in various stages of the manufacture of sulphuric acid, in the distillation of petroleum, particularly those oils known as high-sulphur crudes, and also about some gas wells, gas plants and smelters. It is colorless and in low concentrations has the odor of rotten eggs. In mines this has given it the term "stink damp."

At the Pittsburgh experimental station of the bureau a large chamber was used for making exposures of men and various animals. The study showed that complete inhalation causes almost immediate unconsciousness, and death follows frequently before rescue can be accomplished.

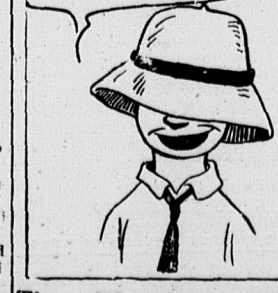

CHINESE TRADITIONS UPHELD

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A Chinese father's right to chastise disobedient and unjust sons is illustrated by a case in the Civil Court of Wei-hai-wei, and mentioned in the annual report of that colony.

Two sons had attempted to deprive their aged parent of property reserved for his personal use after the remainder of his belongings had been divided. Asked in court why he had not punished the offenders for their greed, the father replied that he was not strong enough.

But as the infirm sons, who are both over forty years of age, now appeared submissive before the magistrate, the parent gladly seized the opportunity to administer the overdue correction with a strap supplied to him in court. The sons took the medicine for their health without a murmur while the old man was delighted.

"Laddie Boy" Still Watches for Return of the President

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—"Laddie Boy," the shaggy Alredale pup that has been made famous in cartoon illustrations, photographs, in prose and in practically every American magazine since his elevation, two years ago to the dignity of favorite of all dumb pets, of President Harding is the only member of the White House household that does not realize the cause of the air of sadness that hangs over the executive mansion.

"Laddie Boy" sits with expectant expression, with ears cocked and listening, his eyes fixed on every car that rolls up to the White House and attendants wonder how they may make him understand.

Premier King Roundly Scored by A. R. McMaster

KNOWLTON, Que., Aug. 3.—Opening his campaign here tonight in justification of his action in passing from the Liberal to the Progressive side in the last session of the House of Commons, Andrew McMaster, K. C., Liberal, M. P., for Bromie, addressed a sparsely attended meeting of 44 members of which out of a total of 45 present endorsed his views.

His address was featured by an attack on Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada, in which he accused him of lack of consistency with the Liberal platform of 1919. Mr. McMaster said his own alienation was not sudden.

He made special reference to his campaign against cabinet ministers holding positions as directors in public utilities, corporations and banks, which he claimed had had the enthusiastic support of the Prime Minister when introduced by him in the house in the form of a resolution. However, it had been defeated.

In 1922 when he re-introduced this subject moving that companies in which cabinet ministers were directors should not be allowed to do business for the government, he said, that the Prime Minister and nearly all his followers in the House voted it down. "It was a complete somersault," he said.

The speaker said that Premier King had attempted to show that his acceptance of the Liberal platform was a qualified one, but he proceeded to read reports in which Mr. King had pledged full support to that platform.

Mr. McMaster said that the votes he had given against the Liberal government were votes he had given for Liberalism as he understood it. "I have not changed my principles," he said. "I believe I more truly represent the views of the great mass of the people, certainly of the rural districts, than the administration itself."

In conclusion he said: "I have been fighting what I consider the battle of the plain people of Canada. If the majority at this meeting and the other meetings, wish me to resign, I will do so."

The speaker then retired from the room and the meeting voted W. B. Robertson, 307-8-3-11, confidence by 44 to 1.

Deflated Mark Induces Gambling in Berlin

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—In the wake of the mark's depreciation and the consequent use of many-ciphered sums, gambling has become a veritable mania among Germans. The infection is particularly evident at the race courses. Crowds swarm about the grounds like ants every day, and the people literally stumple over each other trying to reach the betting machines before the horses are sent away in the various events.

Bookmakers flourish, and the betting machines do a huge business. The lowest bet accepted is 5,000 marks and the highest is an open question. At the Gruenewald track the other day a bookmaker was heard refusing a bet of 100,000,000 marks at even money.

Many of the foreigners in Germany patronize the German tracks but foreigners and Germans also follow easily the French races. The results from Paris are distributed about Berlin every night on sports agency leaflets at subscription or single-copy prices.

Yet much "loose" money appears to be about for other kinds of speculation. Lottery cards play claim a considerable following. One lottery involving a total of 19,500,000,000 marks is prominently advertised in Berlin. The police swoop down almost every night on private houses or clubs where unauthorized games of chance are under way. Many people not on the Bourse find means of acquiring stock shares which they have been "tipped" to buy, only to sell in a day or so when, they hope, the prices will be higher.
