LONDON, Oct. 19—(CP)—Racing days of the greatest greyhound since the immortal Mick the Miller ended on a London track when champion Ballynenny Moon pulled up lame. Now the Moon will take up stud duties at the previously unheard-of fee of approximately $475.

Made One Mistake

Gordie sized up the tough tar in the opening round during which he made only one mistake. A blow to the head forced the rubber guard to pick it up, and when he bent to pick it up, Reg socked him. Not that the blow really hurt, but Gordie confessed later he might have been kayoed by the punch and there.
