THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

—IT PAYS TO buy in this Province

—Mr FRANK LAFFERTY is Guardian Agent in Summerside.

—THE MORNING Daily Guardian can be obtained at Lafferty's Tonsorial Parlors, Summerside.

—SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discounted promptly on expiry date.

—FOX PROMOTIONS.—Persons who contemplate starting a fox company and those requiring the services of an experienced promoter, organizer and bookkeeper would find it to their advantage to write P. O. Box 23, Summerside. 2982-6-16Mtf.

—BRIGHT BUSINESS MAN.—Mr. J. A. McLeod a young man who has returned from the country of Uncle Sam, has started in the plumbing business at Alberton. Judging from the number of new dwellings that are being built in the town and vicinity Mr. McLeod should have all the work he can handle.—A.

—MACKEREL STEAMER.—The steamer, Dominion Trader, owned by a Nova Scotia fish firm, has arrived at Alberton for the purpose of buying mackerel. It is hard to understand how the owners can expect to buy mackerel at a profit and pay the expenses of her plying between here and other ports when fish are worth practically nothing in the American markets. However, she has not begun to buy as yet.—A.

—MACKEREL.—At last the mackerel have struck Alberton after a prolonged absence from these shores, they have returned, silently, stealthily, but not as usual, swiftly. In fact they have rarely been as late in arriving as they were this season. But now that they are here, the fishermen can be depended upon to make the acquaintance of as any of them, as the limited time permits.—A.

—CLERMONT SCHOOL.—The report of the Clermont School for the month of May is as follows:—Grade VII.—1, Annie Macdonald, Grade VI.—1, Mattie Macdonald; 2, Kathleen Driscoll; 3, Penay Macdonald, Grade V.—1, Daisy Mill; 2, Sara Mill; 3, Petronilla McCarvill, Grade IV.—1, Roy Macdonald; 2, Brenton Driscoll, Grade III.—1, Mamy Mill; 2, Lois Mill; 2, Irene Campbell, Grade II.—1, Dorien Driscoll; 2, Freddy McCarvill. Perfect attendance, Mattie Macdonald, Ada Mill, Kathleen Driscoll, Petronilla McCarvill, Sara Mill, Brenton Driscoll, Roy Macdonald, Loreen Driscoll.

—ENTERTAINED.—Mrs. Lester W. Chase entertained several friends Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paynter, whose marriage took place in Summerside, Prince Edward Island, May 27th. The happy couple were showered with congratulations and good wishes and received many presents of silver, china and glassware. Miss Alice Cross played during the evening and Miss Greta Taylor sang a solo. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the hostess served refreshments of punch and wafers. (Bangor Commercial). Mrs. Paynter was a Miss Colwell of Northam and had many friends on the Island.—J.

IN MEMORIAM. MR. ALEX. S. STEWART. On the beautiful Lord's Day of June 7th, 1914, the whole community of Little Sands and High Bank were grief-stricken and saddened, on seeing a steamer flying a flag at half-mast conveying the remains of the late Alex. S. Stewart, son of Samuel Stewart of Little Sands. A fine robust young man, in the prime of manhood, so suddenly called away is always pathetic but in this case, is painfully so, as he was the sole support of his aged parents leaving a wife and four small children bereft of a tender, loving father's protection. The funeral, which was the largest seen in this community, showing the esteem in which he was held, was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Caledonia in the absence of his pastor, Rev. A. J. McNeill and men and women mingled their tears with the heart-broken father, the widow and little orphans, who mourned an affectionate son, a devoted husband and father. The late Mr. Stewart was an exemplary young man unobtrusively, of a kindly genial disposition beloved by everyone who had the pleasure of his acquaintance truly it may be said of him, "His friends were many and his enemies few." He will be missed in the community as an upright citizen, by his sorrowing partners, Time can never efface the memory of such a partner in the church where he was active in the work and mingled his voice in the choir, but words fail to express the sorrow and sadness in the home where he was so much beloved by all. Farewell devoted husband and father affectionate son and brother, beloved partner and friend thou art now mingling thy voice with those of the Heavenly Choir, we shall yet meet thee on the shore where there are no more billows, where Christ himself shall be our Refuge, and thou shalt greet us with thy genial smile and hearty handclasp in a land where ties are unbroken, and where partnership is never dissolved. Farewell!

O God our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our refuge from the stormy blast, And our Eternal Home.

A favorite hymn of the deceased.
