Heavy Attacks

LONDON, Jan. 12 (AP)—This night against an onslaught of bombs dropped by heavy German bombers in a short but intense rain.

The attack threatened but never achieved the destruction done in the great fire-bomb attack Dec. 29. A vote of thanks was extended to all those who had assisted with the work of the Society.

Volunteer fire watchers and fighters quickly extinguished fires which were so bright for a time that one could read a newspaper on the blacked-out city's roofs.

One reporter counted at least 50 incendiaries as they swished to the ground at one time, starting rows of bright blue lights. One by one they went out as firemen reached them.

The dome of St. Paul's Cathedral once again stood out impressively against the flaming night sky. But, unlike the earlier raid, this time the main bombs were spent in sections where there were no residents or might be.

The competition has been running since the opening of the rink last week and keen interest has been taken in the games. Eleven teams entered the competition and were run off as follows:

Bible Society Meeting follows Prayer Service

The final meeting of the Week of Prayer was held in the Baptist Church and was very largely attended. The pastor, Rev. C. W. Cook conducted the service. A mixed choir from the different churches with Mrs. Dobson at the organ assisted with the service of song. Rev. L.E.G. Davies was the guest speaker and brought comfort and hope to the congregation as in a convincing sermon he showed that if we believe the teachings of Christ, we cannot but feel certain that He is the answer to the world's need.

Rev. George Ayers was the speaker on Thursday at the service which was held in the Presbyterian Church.

OCCUPATION

An Italian officer captured near Kilaura was reported as saying the "Italians are in a most critical situation as a result of the break in their lines."

The Greeks continued to clean up the Kilaura area while others fought around Tepeleni. In the coastal sector, the Greeks made further advances toward Valona despite desperate Fascist resistance. It was said the government spokesman gave this picture of the fighting:

"Despite difficulties of terrain and other difficulties governing operations in Albania, our units continued their attacks successfully and retook positions which had been held after extremely rapid action which took the Italians by surprise."

British military observers say now that Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, Italian commander in Libya, must fight in the future without his air eyes as the Royal Air Force has seized command of the air.

A Royal Air Force communiqué tonight told of more attacks on the Italians in Libya and a raid by the Fleet Air Arm and a raid on Sicily's northern coast.

The R.A.F. said fighters maintaining a constant patrol in eastern Libya reported "Derna, Martuba, El Timimi and El Grazaia were all clear of enemy aircraft except for a considerable number that were unserviceable" and that the Bomba sea-base, between Tobruk and Derna, "appears to have been abandoned by the enemy."

"Twenty burned-out aircraft were reported as abandoned on the Gazala landing ground," the communiqué said.

"At Palermo one bomb fell very close to a merchant vessel of about 8,000 tons," it said. "Of 12 ships along the outer mole, one received a hit and four others were believed to have sustained damage. Fires and explosions were caused among warehouses."

"His tremendous losses, Graziani has a considerable army to the west, but the fact that it is not coming to help British authorities in the capture of Tobruk will be a serious blow to the Italian defence system."

"It is the history of democracy that under such dire circumstances extraordinary powers must be granted to keep America out of war, but to keep war out of America, Democracy is in danger."

"And the American people are so aware of the danger that they have endorsed the policy of giving full and active aid to these democratic forces which are resisting aggression. At the same time, they have virtually unanimously in their desire to build for the United States the strongest defence system in the world."

"It is the history of democracy that under such dire circumstances extraordinary powers must be granted to keep America out of war, but to keep war out of America, Democracy is in danger."

"I favor for this reason only that I favor grant of powers at this time to the present administration."

"Willkie recommended that Congress carefully discuss and review the bill and not let it pass without being hurried into quick passage."

"The bill," he said, "should be subjected to thorough debate and such amendments should be made as Congress, representing the people, may deem necessary to retain in its own hands the fundamental power to declare war."

Bring up new Artillery for Tobruk attack

CAIRO, Jan. 12 (AP)—Fresh guns hauled across the Libyan sands joined the shelling of besieged Tobruk tonight under the constant protection of Royal Air Force aviators who disclosed Italian planes have been chased from five air bases in eastern Libya.

The new artillery came 70 miles from the Bardia region, where it had played a major role in softening Italian defences for the final attack on that captured Fascist base.

Tobruk, with a garrison believed smaller than the nearly 45,000 troops who were killed, wounded or captured in Bardia, has been caught in a ring of British steel for five days with the defenders' retreat cut off.

British military observers say now that Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, Italian commander in Libya, must fight in the future without his air eyes as the Royal Air Force has seized command of the air.

A Royal Air Force communiqué tonight told of more attacks on the Italians in Libya and a raid by the Fleet Air Arm and a raid on Sicily's northern coast.

Miss Catherine Ramsay, Lieut. H. P. Fisher wed

St. David's United Church, Saint John, was the scene of the wedding of wide interest on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Catherine Elizabeth Ramsay, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Ramsay, and Lieutenant Harold Percival Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bowman Fisher, Saint John, were united in marriage by Rev. Canon C. Gordon Lawrence, rector of Trinity Church, James M. Macdowall, organist of the church played the nuptial music.

The church was decorated with foliage which formed a background for gladioli blossoms. The processional was the wedding hymn "The Voice That Breathed Our Eden," sung by the Junior Choir. During the signing of the register Mrs. Harrison Biggs sang "O Perfect Love" and the recessional was Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Given in marriage by her brother Duval Ramsay, the bride wore a street length dress of imported crepe in dusky pink, having a high neck, with trim in scroll pattern of shirring of self material. The groom was dressed in a tuxedo with buttons of self material, and had a very full skirt. She wore a dainty ornament of lily of the valley, and matching earrings. Her accessories were dusky pink and she carried pink roses and blue lilies.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Denny Ramsay and George Fisher, twin brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Lieutenant Hugh Jones, and Lieutenant Beverly Howard. The bridesmaid was wearing a dress of Air Force blue with high neckline and the cuff of the three-quarter length sleeves had a ruffled trim. She wore a large of the face hat of black and carried talisman roses. Mrs. Ramsay, mother of the bride, wore a black and white dress of imported crepe, the bodice made of radiated tucking and trimmed with rhinestones. Her hat was black and she wore a corsage of roses.

Mrs. Fisher, mother of the groom, wearing black chiffon veil, and a matching hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

There were no invitations issued for the wedding, but following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and the bride and groom were "at home" at the home of the bride's parents, 29 Elliott Row, and many guests called to extend their congratulations.

Guard of Honor
The bridegroom's fellow officers formed a guard of honor for the bridal party leaving the church and the men of the bridegroom's company drew the military automobile to the residence. At the residence the bride's table had for adornment a silver vase of pink roses and a blue reflector, and a three-tiered wedding cake ornamented in silver and white. The drawing-room had for decoration silver ornaments, and blue and white decorations, and was lighted with blue candles in silver candlesticks.

Later, Lieutenant and Mrs. Fisher left on a wedding trip to points of interest in the Maritime and on their return will re-locate at the Eastern House, Princess Street. For travelling the bride wore a black crepe costume having a draped bodice and skirt. Her black coat was trimmed with mink and she wore a black hat and accessories.

The airman was Acting Squadron leader Eric Lawrence Moxey. He volunteered last August to remove two bombs embedded in an airplane. One bomb exploded and Moxey was killed. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Roy T. Harris, Croydon Corporation engineer, was awarded the Cross "for conspicuous bravery in carrying out dangerous duties."

GREKS ABDUCTED
ATHENS, Jan. 12 (AP)—Whole families of Greeks in the Albanian border region of Konitza were among a total of approximately 500 Greeks abducted by the retreating Italian army, the Ministry of home security declared tonight.

"Among those abducted are men, women, children, babies, priests, scientists, and agriculturists," the communiqué said.

Nazi boasting Of Trade Pact Is empty talk

By Harold Fair
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Jan. 12 (CP Cable)—Nazi trumpeting of the significance of the new Russo-German economic agreement is viewed skeptically in London.

Informed sources said the trade agreement extending one expiring in February is "not worth the paper which it is written on," although the German radio boasted that Russia undertook to supply the largest quantity of grain ever provided by one country for another.

While Russia agreed to boost the totals of grain and raw materials shipped to Germany, this source pointed to the transportation problem as the "nigger in the woodpile."

It was explained that the Russian transport system has never been efficient while German railway facilities have been impaired by Royal Air Force bombing and the British blockade which forces the Nazis to burden their rail routes with the bulk of goods formerly brought by boat from southeast Europe.

Russia sent raw materials, grain and oil to Germany last year but the amount of oil supplied or to be supplied is understood to be small as Russia has little surplus oil. In addition Russia is supplying China with wheat and gasoline.

Five awards of George Cross for Great bravery

By Pat Usher
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Jan. 12 (CP)—Award of the George Cross, for great gallantry and undaunted devotion to duty in the German aerial attack on three men of the Royal Navy, an aviator and an engineer, has been announced in the London Gazette. In three cases the hero was honored for an act that cost his life.

The men of the navy honored were Lt. Comdr. Richard John Hammersley Ryan and Chief Petty Officer Reginald Vincent Ellingworth, both of whom were killed, and Sp-1 Lt. Peter Victor Danckwerts. No details were issued.

The aviator was Acting Squadron leader Eric Lawrence Moxey. He volunteered last August to remove two bombs embedded in an airplane. One bomb exploded and Moxey was killed. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Editor bids Nation Face simpler life

Mr. S. Morgan-Powell, editor of The Montreal Daily Star, told a Canadian radio audience that they should be prepared to enjoy a simpler life after the war is over.

"An order of more healthy, happy way of life" despite a lack of luxuries which have been regarded as necessities.

Mr. Morgan-Powell
