3'SIDE AND PRINCE CO.

"UNCLE JOHN" gives advice to the boys of Summerside in a poem in another column.

The entertainment at Emerald will be just as good as if it had taken place on St. Patrick's night, and to-morrow evening there will be plenty of amusement in the Hall at Emerald.

The foreign mail arrived here from Cape Traverse Saturday about 4 o'clock the mail from Charlottetown not reaching here until after 6, owing to the trains having been blocked by the snowstorm of the previous night. The horse and sleigh method gets there sometimes after all.

The New London Literary Society which was organized some years ago, has during the past few months come prominently to the front and is now one of the best equipped institutions of the kind in the province. Already their library consists of about 150 volumes and is constantly growing. During this year they have added some half dozen magazines to their reading matter. They hold regular meetings in the New London Hall where literary subjects are intelligently discussed. Their secretary, Mr. J. A. Meek, is a capable and obliging official and loses no opportunity to add something of value to the library.

The date of the hockey match between the Stars and the H's (Hollan's employes) has been set for to-morrow, Tuesday, evening. The hockeyists have generously offered the financial proceeds of this game to the managers of the public library for the purpose of reducing the debt on that institution. The Summerside Cornet Band has also tendered its services free for the occasion. Apart from the object, which is a worthy one and deserving of every encouragement at the hands of citizens who have enjoyed the free use of this library, the game will be one that every lover of hockey will want to witness. The laurel wreath of victory is still fresh on the brows of the Star team, while the H's have several veteran players in their ranks whose mettle is not to be trifled with. Besides the game a number of interesting races have been arranged for and the evening will be an enjoyable one. Admission only 15 cents.

Piles Cured without the Knife,

by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

Mr. Geo. Browne, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co., says:—"For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and relief I obtained by Chase's Ointment prompts me to give this testimonial. My physician wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without the knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure."

A LONG VOYAGE.

Portland March 15.—The Italian barquentine Emily, Capt. Trapani, arrived at Bucksport, Me., Monday, salt laden, 107 days out from Augusta, Sicily. Capt. ### The Medical Profession Recommend Dr.

A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in the American Journal of Health, February 10th, says:—"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is Dr. Chase's Ointment, as a remedy for Piles, Eczematic skin eruptions of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success and has affected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seem to baffle the skilful medical attendant."

Ian Maclean's New Work.

Ian Maclean, who is now on a lecturing tour in this country, begins in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal his latest piece of literary work. It is a series of popular articles in which he defines the relation that a minister holds to his congregation; how a preacher is helped by his people; how a congregation can make the most of a minister, and other phases of the most satisfactory attitude of a congregation to a pastor.

Pillows Made of Pine Needles

Are becoming popular, owing to their medicinal effect upon catarrhal maladies. Catarrh is like a breath from the pine woods, and yet is a powerful microbe destroyer and germ killer. It is a certain cure for catarrh, though until recently catarrh was considered incurable. It penetrates wherever air can go, and cleanses as by fire. You simply breathe it in—it does the rest. Send immediately for a free sample to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
