THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

...The latest news, first of all.

...King's County readers interested in the Department of Agriculture's Seed Grain Competition will find information in the Queens County Column.

...A correspondent from Point Pleasant writes:—Mrs. Nathaniel Taylor, formerly of Point Pleasant, paid a visit to that vicinity last week. The many friends of the Rev J. B. Hogan, Murray River, are pleased to see him out again after his recent severe illness. The friends of Alex. McInnis and his daughter, Miss Florence, of Point Pleasant, will be pleased to hear of their recovery and glad to see them out again. Murray River is now the scene of many a gay party. The boats are very nicely made and painted which adds much pleasure to the owner. Rowing is the chief pastime of all the young people of Point Pleasant. Miss Florence Jenkins, Peter's Road, has returned home after spending a few days in Point Pleasant, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Jenkins. Miss Grace Moffatt and Miss Emily Sharkey spent Sunday in Sturgeon, the guests of Mrs. D. W. Mackinnon. Horace Reynolds and Forest Clow, Point Pleasant, are very busily employed gunning. They are having marvellous results from their hunting expeditions which are fast adding glory to their names as huntsmen. A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of J. and Mrs. Reynolds, Point Pleasant. The young people of the neighborhood were there and the evening was passed in music. Otis Jackson, Peter's Road, was violinist.

FATAL ACCIDENT NOT AS REPORTED.

MONTREAL, April 20.—Details received show that the recent coococ cache was not nearly so serious as the earlier despatches made it appear According to official reports three men were killed and ten injured. The dead men are not yet identified. Several were seriously injured, two having legs broken, while others had lesser injuries.

PLACED BABY ON HOT STOVE.

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 19—Local officers went to the Indian Reserve to investigate a case of alleged cruelty. A woman is said to have placed a baby on a hot stove causing the child to be burned severely. An arrest likely will be made.

TREASURER OF BOSTON COMPANY SUICIDES.

BOSTON, April 19—Warren B. Call, treasurer of the Horace Partridge Company, of Boston, after having written his wife at Bath (Me.) that he would go to that place early today to pass the holiday with her, came to the Hotel Essex from his home in Winchester this morning and committed suicide by shooting. His body was found by hotel employes late today.

METHODIST MINISTERS AGAINST THE FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 19—The Methodist Preachers' Associationhas adopted a resolution calling on all ministerial associations of the state to join a movement against prize fighting. Part of the resolution reads:

"To become a divorce clearing house for the nation, like Nevada and some other states is bad enough, but for the great state of California to be one of the vast coliseum for the exhibition of this most brutal sport is a disgrace and degradation which we ought not longer to submit."

...The following resolution of condolence was forwarded to Bro. John Stymeist and family by Morning Light Lodge, No. 237, L. T. B. A., Murray River, on the occasion of their recent double bereavement, the death of Mr. Stymeist's daughter and grand-daughter: "To Bro. John Stymeist and Sister Sarah Stymeist: We, the officers and members of Morning Light Lodge, No. 237, L. T. B. A., wish to express our sincere sympathy with you in your recent great bereavement. The hand of Death has been very heavy upon your home, and has taken away your loved ones, and we know how hard it is to say, 'Thy will be done.' But we should remember that, though they cannot come to us, yet we can go to them, to spend a glad eternity with them in that happy home where there shall be no more sorrow nor parting, where God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes. Now, may the Great Grand Master, who alone is able, comfort and console you, help us all to be prepared, so that when the summons comes, we may all gather in that place, where death-divided friends at last shall meet to part no more." Signed on behalf of Morning Light Lodge, Murray River, April 18th, Sister Emma Livingston, D. M., Sister Violet Finlayson, R. S., Bro. Dan. A. Simons.

MOB OF WOMEN STORMED CHURCH AT GOULD WEDDING

NEW YORK, April 19—Miss Marjorie Gwynne Gould, eldest daughter of George J. Gould, and one of the richest and most attractive girls in America, was married at four o'clock this afternoon to Anthony J. Drexel, jr., of Philadelphia, thus forming an alliance between two of the wealthiest and most aristocratic families in the land.

Two hours before the wedding the church was stormed by a crowd of women and before the police arrived blossoms were plucked and vines and ferns were torn down in the rush for souvenirs.

The ceremony, which was performed by Bishop Scarborough, of New Jersey, was asimple one. Thefloral display was beautiful.

A force of detectives stood on guard all day over the wedding presents. Various estimates were made of their value, some as high as $2,000,000.

LLOYDMINISTER WAS SAVED BY HARD WORK.

EDMONTON, April 20.—Lloydminister was only saved from destruction yesterday by a fierce prairie fire, by the efforts of the townspeople, who fought the flames with teams, plows and wagons, making fire breaks.

SENATOR SCOTT'S BILL.

OTTAWA, April 20.—The Senate has extinguished Senator Scott's bill, designed to prevent the carrying into Prince Edward Island of liquor intended for sale, and to penalize the Transportation Companies which handle liquor.

The failure of the measure was due chiefly to Senator Ross, former Premier of Ontario, himself a great temperance man, who declared that before the Federal House should enact the law, the Province should exhaust its constitutional powers.

The Province had a right, he said, to declare that no liquor should be landed on the Island and could seize any that was brought in.

Until the Province enacted such a law, t should not come to Ottawa seeking for relief.

PATON & CO'S STORE A BOWER OF BEAUTY

To Which Everybody is Invited Tonight--A Style Display Secured From European And American Markets

The millinery department of Paton & Co's beautiful big store will tonight look like a riotous garden in some favored clime, so exquisite are the millinery ideas there displayed for the visitor.

The approach of the spring season in the millinery world has brought out immense quantities of lovely flowers, in Nature's own colorings and others. Roses in bud, half-opened, or full-blown, from the most delicate shade of pink through all the old and new rose shades. Masses of these flowers, especially the small fine blooms, will be used on big hat shapes, sometimes the crown being wholly concealed beneath a wealth of blossom; again, the flowers are bunched on several places against the crown or in a wave of the brim; while often there is a double wreath or spray trailing half around the hat in the seemingly careless effect that is only gained by the art that conceals art. To give some idea of the colors and variety the millinery rooms have been superbly draped with foliage and flowers and the scene is one to linger long in the memory. The milliner, Miss Delahunt, who did the buying in New York, and took in the Easter Sunday show, has certainly cleverly transferred the scene from New York to Charlottetown. As for the creations secured by Miss Dorion, during her visit to Paris, they are unexcelled. It might be here mentioned that the firm had two European buyers this year and one American, thus covering all the leading markets of the world.

In the charming models sometimes the flowers put together are rather oddly assorted, but under the artist's hand the resulting color scheme is harmonious. The new ribbons are delightfully soft and sheeny, and come in every soft, pretty shade yet achieved. Moire ribbon of fine supple weave is more in evidence than it has been for a long time, and black and colored velvet ribbons are used in light touches, but to distinct advantage with the flower trimmings. One beautiful chapeau was of cream chip straw, Napoleon shape, with facing of black velvet, the whole set off with a striking black feathery ornament, making a style, suitable to any face. Having the hat brim faced with black velvet is also a device that is very popular and throws into relief all the different colors used.

A large chip hat shape of fine Milan braid has the back brim caught up against the crown and fastened there with an oval ornament of antique gold, set with imitation emeralds, a large stone rimmed with the gold hanging pendant, making a stylish model for the young lady.

One thing particularly striking will be the reasonable price of the outing and dress hats, there not being a freak hat in the assortment, and, where the price is high, the value is plainly visible. As an instance, a large mohair shape was on exhibition. This hat was artistically trimmed with pump bows of the new blue shade velvet, setting off the three handsome black ostrich plumes tipped with the new blue.

There are hundreds of models to be shown, no two alike, that to describe is impossible, but all the styles will be there, from the close-fitting toque, the large sailor model to the magnificent picture hat, that never loses favor.

There will be one special line of dress and outing hats for sale tonight that will range in price from $3.75 to $8, with all the intermediate popular prices, which will be at once the centre of attraction, for the styles are beautiful. The Chantecler will be there in all its loveliness, and, as the shape is becoming to almost any face, a ready sale is anticipated.

The little folks will be suited with the prettiest creations imaginable in large variety.

It would be useless to describe the dress materials and silks that will be displayed and for sale, so enormous is the quantity and style.

The blouses and evening waists could not help but make the wearer look handsome and the prices are a marvel of moderateness, the firm's idea being to show how stylishly and cheaply one can dress this season.

As this is the 25th anniversary of Mr. Paton's entering the business arena, no expense is being spared to make tonight's showing one of the best and most satisfactory in the Maritime Provinces, as no branch of the business once taken up in the past quarter of a century has been let drop, but has been successfully forged ahead.

The firm invites everybody to be present at tonight's showing.

REDMOND WILL STAND BY GOVERNMENT

LONDON, April 19—It is officially announced that the Irish Nationalist party has decided to support all the stages of the budget.

In the commons today, it was generally admitted that Chancellor Lloyd-George's reply to William O'Brien's allegations adequately disposed of them, so that the eagerly awaited incident is closed. O'Brien, however, got in a clever attack on the Redmondites, wherewith he is probably satisfied, charging them with losing great concessions to Ireland.

Premier Asquith was enabled to get a majority of 93 for his motion guillotining the discussion on the practically unaltered budget, and as its passage is assured, the road is now clear for the great fight on the lords' veto.

CHARLES COOK MUCH IMPROVED

MONCTON, April 19—Charles Cook, of Sackville, in the hospital here with a broken skull, is reported much improved tonight. He is able to converse and seems brighter in every way. Hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

STRIKING MINERS ARE TO BE EVICTED.

SYDNEY, N. S., April 20. — The Dominion Coal Company intend to evict those strikers living in their houses at the mines. There are still over 400 families living in the company's houses, the men of which are among the strikers.

FORMER ZULU PRINCE DIES IN A CHICAGO HOSPITAL

CHICAGO, April 19—Charles Stevens, former prince of a tribe of Zulu warriors living along the Zambesia River in East Africa, is dead at the County Hospital. In his last moments he pictured his early boyhood. He was sixty-five years old. His real name probably never will be known.

He was brought to the United States more than thirty-five years ago by Chas. Stevens, of Joliet, an explorer. While travelling along the Zambesia River, Mr. Steven's boat overturned. He was rescued by a powerful Zulu warrior. Mr. Stevens brought his rescuer to the United States with him. Later they separated and the Zulu adopted the name of Stevens.

MORE CHINESE TROUBLE FEARED

AMOY, April 19—It is feared that the dissatisfaction in the province of Hunan may spread throughout the Yangtse Kiang Valley. The American Cruiser Chattanooga and several Chinese cruisers have sailed for the mouth of the Yangtse Kiang River.

ECUADORIANS ARE IN "SCRAPPY" MOOD.

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, April 19—The Government has called into service the first reserves. About 1,000 reservists paraded the streets last night, shouting for Ecuador and demanding war with Peru.

The return of Ecuadorean families from Peru has been made the occasion for great patriotic demonstrations. Crowds have met the returning Ecuadoreans at the wharves and accompanied them with a great show of enthusiasm to their dwellings.

President Alfaro is expected here soon from Quita. Guayaquil capitalists have offered the Government all the money required for the war.

THE SANT' ANNA, LAUNCHED AT TOULON, FRANCE, FOR THE MARSEILLES-NEW YORK SERVICE.

The launching of the new liner for the Marseilles-Naples-New York service, at Toulon, France, is described by Francis Miltoun Mansfield, of the American Consulate at Toulon as follows:—

"In a howling mistral, which sprang up just as the vessel was launched, the Sant Anna, the new Fabre liner, intended for the company's Marseilles-New York passenger service, took the water on February 7 in majestic manner.

"The Forges et Chantiers de in Mediterranee at La Seyne, just opposite Toulon, France's greatest war port, are the builders of this last representative of French merchant shipping. On August 2 last, only seven months ago, the keel of the Sant Anna was laid; and to-day, with all her thirteen thousand tons displacemen, her four hundred and ninety feet of length and her breadth of fifty-six feet—becomingly painted white, as befits a vessel intended to steam over summer seas—she slipped off the ways, turned up a crest of foam astern and floated idly a cable's length off shore as gracefully as a swan.

"The benediction by the white and red clad clergy, the usual congratulations and hand shakes between builders and owners and their assembled guests finished the ceremony.

"In the autumn Bartholdi's Statue of Liberty will shed her radient welcome over this vessel as he enters the port of New York for the first time. The initiative of the firm of Cyprien Fabre et Cie. in meeting the new travel conditions which have so recently sprung up between New York and Mediterranean ports is meeting with praise on every hand."

THE MORNING PAPER.

Some Reasons Why it Makes The Best Advertising Medium.

A woman's curiosity to know about society, marriages, births, deaths, forces her to read it.

The Morning Paper is before her all day long, and it is she who is doing her household duties arranging and improving the appearance of her home, that the missing and necessary articles of furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains or other necessities, show up the plainest, and there could be no more opportune time for a dealer to tell about the new goods, the new styles and the bargains offered, for the day or week.

In a majority of homes the newspaper is practically the bulk of the reading matter, and the long, all-day life from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. of The Morning Paper gives not only the housewife but every member of the family an opportunity to read it.

The Morning paper is read at the breakfast table, again at home at noon, on the trains, in the restaurants. It is read in doctor's offices, professional offices, clubs, hotels, cafes, barber shops. It is read by daylight everywhere you go by both employer and employee.

It is a known fact that throughout the world, possibly with a half-dozen exceptions, the papers with editorial influence and national reputation are Morning Papers.

With these facts in mind, the business man who is looking after the real money-spenders of the family to interest in his goods will consult his best interests by placing his announcements where the women will read them.
