CHALLENGE.—We the High- Mucka-Marines hereby challenge the King Edward boarders to a friendly game of hockey to be played in the Arena at any time they may name. William Ryan, Captain; C. Large, Manager.

NEW GLASGOW DEFEATED.—In a game replete with brilliant plays Captain Gregory, of New Glasgow, for- merly of Charlottetown and his hockey platoon went down to defeat at the Arena, Halifax this week to a score of six to two. The victors were Morton and Thompson's Socials, an aggrega- tion of players that is making a splen- did record on the ice.

A GRAND OLD MAN.—The Colches- ter Sun has this to say of a veteran preacher: "We are reminded that that grand old man, Pastor J. Clark, of Selma, the writer of Arrow Points and other good things, has reached his 74th birthday. He received many con- gratulations and good wishes, in all of which we heartily join. It can truthfully be said of him that the world is better for his having lived in it."— Pastor Clark was stationed at Tryon, P. E. I. some years ago.

NORTH MILTON AND VICINITY.—The North Milton School is pro- gressing under the management of Miss Hannah Moore. The many friends of Miss Gertrude Coles, are glad to know that she has recovered after her recent illness. The many friends of Miss Ethel Chandler, are glad to know that she has recovered after her recent illness. Miss Lilla Chandler spent Sunday at Brackley Point the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes. Mr. Eldon Ford was a visitor to Win-loe the fourth of Febru- ary.

BUSY TIME AT ELLIOTT'S.—Mr. J. R. Elliott, of Elliotts, who is now resident in Charlottetown, was visit- ing Bradalbane, Ektotta and Fred- ericton last week. Mr. Elliott reports that everything was humming there about with plenty of snow and good hauling. Mr. C. H. Warren, of Elliotts Mills, is replacing with his plant with a much bigger engine and boiler to cope with the greatly increased trade. His son, Mr. L. H. Warren, who re- cently returned from Alberta to assist him, is busily engaged superintending the new work. Everybody about seemed busy hauling wood and lum- ber for the coming season to the two establishments at Elliotts Station. Mr. L. Woods reports doing a rushing business with his new rotary saw mill and fully equipped woodwork, turning out a superior class of hardwood floor- ing. At Bradalbane Hon. Murdoch Kennedy had returned from disposing of a large cargo of peat-ashes at Halifax to good advantage. Mr. Pomroy Mur- ray, the newly appointed stationmas- ter, has taken over his duties and ap- pears of an enterprising frame of mind. He has installed an electric plant which he hopes to have fully established by midsummer for the lighting of Bradalbane and district. At Fredericton the Messrs. Weeks and brothers, noted for their fine easy- running stags, good horsemanship, and general blacksmithing, are as busy as bees. The patriotism of this place runs high, and recently an en- tertainment was given which realized over $80.00.

The publisher of the best Farmer's paper in the Maritime Provinces in writing to us states: "I would say that I do not know of a medicine that has stood the test of time like MINARD'S LINIMENT. It has been an unfailing remedy in our household ever since I can remem- ber, and has outlived dozens of would be competitors and imitators."

WEDDING BELLS.—Notre Dame, Convent, Rustico, was the scene of a pleasant event on Tuesday, Jan. 16th when Mr. Cyrus W. Vessey of Char- lottetown, and Miss Mary H. LeClair of North Rustico, were united in the holy sacrament of matrimony. The Mass was celebrated by the pastor Rev. Father Chaisson, music for the occasion was furnished by Notre Dame choir. The bride was attended by Miss Esther Vessey, sister of the groom, and Mr. Louis Hughes acted as groomsmen, after the marriage ce- remony the bride party drove to the home of the bride where breakfast was served. In the evening the friends of the bride and groom gathered where they indulged in dan- cing and singing until the wee sma hours. The many wedding presents showed the popularity of the young couple and all join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

DRUMORE SCHOOL EXAMINA- TIONS.—On Thursday, Feb. 1st, inst., the ratepayers of Drumore as- sembled in the schoolroom which was beautifully decorated for the occa- sion presenting a Christmas like ap- pearance. The pupils were examined on the following subjects by their teacher, Miss Gertrude Myanagh, as- sisted by Messrs Robert McGuirk, D. Hughes and Stephen Simpson. Read- ing, writing, arithmetic and geography and showed by their ready and cor- rect answers that diligent attention to study must be the watchword of teacher and scholars. After the ex- amination some beautiful recitations were given by the children and songs by the following young ladies: Miss Stella and Clara Hughes, solo, Edith Cavell; Miss Katie Hughes, solo; The Titanic, Miss Stella Kneebone, solo. A tragic love song; The following rate- payers expressed themselves in very approving terms of the good work done by the teacher, and all took charge in September. After which a treat of candy and nuts was passed around by the teacher. The singing of God Save The King brought one of the most successful examinations to a close.

FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT AT BRADALBANE.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Kennedy, Bradalbane, Friday evening, Jan. 12th, when a number of friends gathered to bid fare- well to Miss Christie McKinnon. The evening was spent in games and mu- sic. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, Mr. William McLeod was ap- pointed chairman, and Miss Margaret Todd read the following address: "Dear Miss McKinnon:—In our gather- ing here tonight we have but one object in view, that of expressing our sincere regret at your departure from amongst us, and to wish you every success wherever your future lot may be cast. We fully realize your de- parture will cause a blank in our so- cial circles, which cannot be easily filled. In our church choir where you have given so freely of your musical ability you will be especially missed. In parting we ask you to accept this slight token, not merely for its value, but as a token of the esteem in which you are held by your friends. Signed on behalf of all present. Miss Mc- Kinnon expressed herself in a few short words, and thanked the friends for their kindness. Then all depart- ed, after the singing of "God be With You 'Till We Meet Again." All went home pleased that the evening was well spent."
