

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Fred. Jenkins, formerly of this city, has arrived home from Calgary.

E. E. Clarke, New York, has arrived to visit relatives in this Province.

Mrs. James McDonald, New York, is on a visit to her old home at A. Berry Plains.

Rev. D. J. McPherson of Sydney, C. B., will preach at Grand View at 3 p. m. next Sunday.

Miss Mary Murnaghan, St. John, has arrived to spend her vacation with her parents in this city.

Everyone should watch for the Baptist Sunday school picnic, Thursday, July 28th, the last picnic of the season.

Rev. Sisters St. Ann and St. Catherine of Notre Dame Academy in this city left this morning for Quebec.

Miss Margaret E. Macdonald, Souris Line Road, is visiting in St. George's, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. F. McEachern.

Everyone should come and see for themselves what an ideal place Georgetown is for a picnic. Grace Church Sunday School goes there on 27th.

The funeral of the late John Shetren of Crapaud, whose demise took place yesterday in his eighty-first year, will take place tomorrow, Friday, at two o'clock from the residence of his son W. D. Shieren.

A fine speed launch was put into the water yesterday by John Trainor of this city. She was built by James Griffin and measures 25 feet by 4 feet and is equipped with a 7 horse-power engine. The new launch is decidedly good looking and should be able to take her place among the fast ones in this harbor.

K. M. Jenkins returned Tuesday morning from a week's business trip to P. E. Island. Mr. Jenkins visited nearly all parts of the Island while away and reports that from present appearances a great harvest will be reaped by the farmers this year. All kinds of crops are looking well and there is a general feeling in the Island that this will be a banner year.—Sydney Post.

The death occurred at the residence of Peter J. Edmunds, Summersville, on Saturday the 9th, inst, of Henry Furlong, aged thirty-four years, a son of the late John and Mary Dillon Furlong formerly of Charlottetown. Mr. Furlong had been a member of Mr. Edmunds' household from early boyhood from the death of his mother until he came to mature years, when he took up his residence in New York. After an absence of fourteen years having confidence in the guardians of his youth, he returned in rapidly to his home. Mr. Furlong was cared for in his last illness by the custodians of his childhood. All that tender care and kind solicitude could suggest for his spiritual and temporal comfort and consolation was done for him. Calmly and quietly he passed his last while the prayers for the dying were being recited at his bedside. The last sacraments were administered by Rev. Dr. Morrison who also celebrated Requiem Mass and conducted the burial service, after which the former companions and schoolmates of the deceased respectfully laid the remains to rest in the silent churchyard. The pall-bearers were:—James Walsh, Daniel Murphy, Shaw McMillan, Maxwell McLean, Peter Cairns and Peter Praught.

George W. McPhee, City, until recently a student at law in the office of W. A. Weeks, Jr., was admitted to the bar as a Barrister and Attorney of the Supreme Court at the July term of that court now in session at Georgetown. He has also been appointed a Commissioner for taking affidavits in the Supreme Courts. Mr. McPhee, at his recent law examinations, passed with high marks and is one of the cleverest of the young men in his profession. During his term as a law student he exhibited great ability along all lines of his chosen profession and at all times kept in close touch with public affairs. In many occasions he has appeared on the platform and in each instance exhibited much talent either as a debater, public speaker or lecturer, and has been widely known as an eloquent speaker. Mr. McPhee has opened offices in the New Prowse Block, on the second floor and it can be predicted with a great degree of certainty that in the future he will become in his profession an attorney of the first rank. He is possessed of every quality which speaks for success and untiring industry and exemplary habits are additional qualifications of his, which, added to his exceptionally studious disposition and retentive mind, will be important factors in his future career.

H. A. Roberts and his son, New York, are visiting Charlottetown. Mr. Roberts is a native of Summersville and was formerly an official of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co. at Charlottetown, Summersville and Sackville, N. B., and is now in the brokerage business.

A deep shadow had been cast over the community by the death of Theodore Shaw, eldest son of Robert and Mrs. Shaw, Bloomfield. The cause of death was blood-poisoning. He was confined to his bed for but a few days and the end came suddenly. Deceased was only in his fifteenth year. Mr. Shaw a few weeks ago was in the bloom of his young manhood with the brightest prospects for a happy future but God called him and the life work begun here is being carried on in the presence of the master he loved so faithfully. Possessing an endearing disposition and a fervent devotion of Christian character he was in all circles a universal favorite. To Mr. and Mrs. Shaw in this hour of dark bereavement is extended deepest sympathy, and to other members of the family who join with them in mourning and reading fully the joy the love, the contentment of the past which may afford memories deeper than present sorrow. Yet we speak to all the words of the apostle's conviction "To be with Christ is far better." The funeral was held July 19th and largely attended. C. E. Young, Lac conducted the services.
