CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double strength.) Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one teaspoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmint used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

WAR WEARY. THEY WARMLY WELCOME RELEASE

James E. Compton, 11 Ellsworth Ave., Cambridge Mass. has received the following letter from his brother:

Somewhere in France
October 29th, 1918

Dear Brother:

I have received today your letter of September 14th, and am pleased once more to hear from home and dear old Boston. I am feeling fit again and since coming from the hospital have had things quite interesting. I have been in about all the big shows the Canadians have been in. I believe the censors will not object to my telling you. I have been at the breaking of the Hindenburg line which the Kaiser said was impossible to break, was at the push of Ca—, saw the bombing of D.—and the breaking D. I. C. line, also the pushing out of the Huns from a number of the towns and villages when the civilians were left behind.

In giving you a little description of the scenes in the first towns the Kilties entered, the poor people did not know how to receive us. The children came running towards us, climbing on our shoulders, kissing and hugging us. The old men were waving what French flags they kept hidden while in slavery for four years. Some old ladies served us with coffee and hot soup while others stood supported in the door entries weeping for joy. The Hun left them nothing to eat in many cases, not a hen or a rabbit, or any living animal did they leave behind. In one town where the young girls refused to go with the Huns they were brutally murdered. In another town where we were under fire of the German guns they deliberately threw a number of gas shells and while I was carrying a message to a company I stepped into a house to find a poor woman and four children overcome with gas. I revived them with my respirator. It would bring tears to the strongest to have those poor creatures clinging to you in their distress. They were told by the Huns that those devils in skirts were entering the towns and they must be prepared to meet a terrible end, but instead they met men with tears in their eyes at their pitiful plight.

Dear Brother, it makes one feel that it will be difficult to ever take the hand of one who is tainted with blood of a race that is capable of causing so much misery and torture. I would rather carry on for years than to leave a work unfinished. We must see the war terminated in a glorious end and I may say this is the feeling of all the boys. Many of the boys who enlisted in Boston and surrounding towns many of them my dear friends, have made the full sacrifice and now rests in the torn fields of France. One of them was a Mr. Finelson. who was employed at Jordan Marsh Company, Boston; another John Dixon. who was employed at F. G. Dunn Company, Boston. I was at his grave near C.

It is with pride I watch the wonderful progress the U. S is making, also the bonds of everlasting friendship that has welded the Canadians to the brothers across the border.

Trusting that you and your family are in good health, I am

Your affectionate brother,
PETER D. COMPTON.

Prince Edward Island Hospital
Charlottetown Special Collection

During the four years of war which caused an increase in the cost of everything used in the Hospital we accumulated a deficit of ever $6,000.00 An appeal has been made to the school districts of Queens and King's Counties for assistance in wiping out this deficit by Dec. 31st, and a yearly contribution to prevent further defects. This appeal is being most generously responded to, about one hundred districts having already reported, and we are now going to ask Charlottetown for a special collection to help finish the job. When the ladies were making their annual collections in the spring quite a number of our generous citizens recognized the needs of the Hospital and gave large amounts. Those will not be called on again. Others only gave small amounts and intimated that they would be willing to give generously when the special collection was put on. Also in the house to house collections many were missing and they will now be given a chance to help. The special list of names will be handled by members of the Rotary Club who have kindly volunteered their services for the work. The house collections will be done by the envelope system. The envelopes will be left at the houses on Saturday Dec. 7th and will be called for on the following Monday. The management asks your careful consideration of the needs of the Hospital and solicits a generous response to the appeal.

Positively no further collections will be made until October or Nov. 1919.

Window Placards Have a Small "Circulation"

Is the man who OUGHT to buy your property hard to find? Have you about concluded that he has placard-blindness? Or perhaps it occurred to you that a window placard has, after all, rather a LIMITED CIRCULATION, and is therefore, a poor thing to rely upon IF YOU REALLY WANT TO SELL!

Buyers, you see, have a theory that real estate that is of any importance, or that is DESIRABLE, is SURE to be advertised in the newspaper when the owner wants to sell it.
