There was a very large attendance of friends from town and country at the funeral service for Richard A. Clark, which was held on Sunday afternoon from his late residence on Eustane Street, Summerside. Rev. Dr. Ryan conducted the service assisted by Rev. Mr. Nicholson of North Bedeque. Mr. George Bowness sang very feelingly "Good Night and Good Morning". A quartette sang "Crossing the Bar".

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. M. Nicholson, Eldon Robertson, Donald Baker, Chester Palmer, S. E. Cannon and Robert Walker. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

BACK TO WORK—A carpenters' strike for 10 cents more an hour, delayed work on the Prince Edward Theatre over the week-end. The workmen, however, employed by Mr. J. N. Kenny, Truro, N.S., contractor, were back to work early this morning, beginning work shortly after midnight. The work is being rushed with the opening scheduled for Thursday. Mr. Ed. Lundry, spokesman for the men, approached the Truro contractor Saturday with the demanded wage increase, but Mr. Kenny would not negotiate with them, and this morning the men are busy putting final touches to the remodelled theatre, which has been closed for three months. The dispute is still unsettled, however. Mr. H. Johns, engineer from Sackville N.B., has arrived to install the air conditioning equipment.

WINS AWARD—Saturday morning Mr. Phillip S. Cobb, sales manager of Carvell Bros., Ltd., received a notice from the Ceylon Tea Co., that he was the winner of a silver-plated tea service, as the tea bureau's award for the best answers in their recent competition, open to the Maritimes. For some time before the examination Mr. Cobb took a course, studying production, manufacturing and merchandizing. A number of questions were then sent by mail and Mr. Cobb was gratified to receive Saturday morning the announcement that in competition with many experienced and much older tea men in the Maritimes, he captured first place. In addition to the tea service Mr. Cobb will also receive a certificate.

On Sunday March the 17th, amid the quiet calm of the day or rest, the spirit of Francis Chowan, fled the mortal body to be with God who gave it.

He was a native of Fifteen Point and one of the early settlers there. He leaves to mourn his son, John, one daughter, Mrs. Joseph M. Gaudet in Summerside and another daughter, Mrs. Joseph A. Gallant, in Fifteen Point.

The funeral is taking place this morning at nine o'clock from St. Paul's Church to the R. C. Cemetery.

THREE FIRES OVER WEEK-END—A thirty-seven day respite from fire in Charlottetown was brought to an abrupt end when the firemen were called for three fires over the weekend. The first alarm was about 9.30 Saturday morning for a blaze on the roof of a double-tenement house at the corner of Union and King Streets. The chemical and hose wagon responded and on reaching the scene, it was found necessary to telephone for the Hook and Ladder truck. Considerable chopping was necessary, but the blaze was extinguished with little damage. The building is owned by Mr. James Offer and occupied by Messrs. James Hughes and A. Gormley. The next alarm at 12.30 p.m. Saturday was for a fire on Water Street. It was a roof blaze, which was extinguished without a hose line being laid. Little damage was done. Last night at 10.10 p.m. the firemen were again called for a fire in Mr. V. C. Smallwood's radio repair shop, North River Road. Two lines of hose were laid and a quantity of water used before the blaze was extinguished. The interior of the shop was considerably scorched. The equipment was out about half an hour.

Cameron, 260 Grafton Street, where there was a small blaze under a verandah at the rear of the house. A garden hose brought into play as soon as the alarm was sent in extinguished the blaze.

—BANKER PROMOTED—Promotion to the position of manager of the Provincial Bank branch at Tignish, P. E. I., has come to J. Gordon Campbell, son of Mrs. Annie Campbell, Exmouth Street, Saint John, and brother of Mrs. D. H. Ryan, Douglas Avenue. He passed through St. John from Montreal this week to assume his new duties. Mr. Campbell began his banking career with the Provincial Bank in St. John as a junior clerk and has advanced through the various stages to his present post. Prior to going to Prince Edward Island he was assistant manager at Windsor, Ont. He was accompanied to St. John by his wife, son and daughter, who are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ryan. News of Mr. Campbell's promotion was learned of with pleasure by his St. John friends.—Saint John Exchange.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. WILLARD P. MacNEILL—The funeral services for Mrs. Willard P. MacNeill were held on Monday morning from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillis, to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery. Many friends from Borden, Charlottetown and other parts of the province attended. Rev. Wm. E. Monaghan, parish priest at Borden, celebrated the Requiem Mass. In the Sanctuary were Rev. W. V. MacDonald, Hope River; Rev. R. E. MacDonald, Indian River; Rev. Dr. Smith, Kinkora; Rev. Fr. O'Hanley and Rev. Dr. MacLellan, V.G. At the grave Rev. W. E. Monaghan and Rev. W. V. MacDonald performed the last rites. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. P. Hogan, W. B. MacNeill and D. F. MacNeill, Summerside; James MacDonald, Bedeque; Bert Kelly, Kensington; James McAleer, Borden. S.

—PASSING OF MR. WILLIAM J. MacNEILL—Many friends will learn with regret of the passing of Mr. William James MacNeill at his home in Centreville Bedeque on Friday, April 5th, at 74 years of age. Mr. MacNeill had been in failing health for some time. He was a prominent farmer in the district and was held in high esteem by his neighbours and friends. There are left to mourn besides his widow, three daughters, Marie, Mrs. Jones of Pownal; Miss Bertha and Miss Marguerite; and two sons, Vernon in the U.S.A. and Allie at home, and to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence to the Church of Scotland and cemetery, Cape Traverse. Rev. Mr. Archibald conducted the service at the home and Rev. Mr. MacDougall, Charlottetown, at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Thomas Gillespie, Joseph Affleck, Judson Blackmore, Albert Maybe, D. Nicholson and J. Hoyt. S.

Past Presidents' Night was the special feature of the regular weekly meeting of the Charlottetown Gyro Club held last evening at the Canadian National Hotel, with Mr. R. C. Chandler, a past president, in the chair. Other past residents present were Messrs. Frank B. Clark, W. D. Gillis, C. M. Williams, Stewart Jones and Carl R. Tibert.

After the business of the meeting had been disposed of each guest of honour was called upon for a short address. Mr. Clark spoke of the general principle involved in the potato marketing scheme for Eastern Canada. He explained that the marketing plan formulated by the P. E. I. Board was generally accepted, with, however, some changes, for the five Provinces. He asked that the plan be given a fair chance and stated that he believed it would work out satisfactorily for all concerned. Mr. Gillis spoke of the splendid work that is and has been performed by the Club and hoped that it would be continued. Mr. Williams explained the working of the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act and stated that it was a plan, enacted by the Federal Government, whereby a farmer who found himself in financial difficulties could go to the official receiver of the district, state his case, list his liabilities, and present his plan for settlement. A meeting of all the creditors would then be called and a conference held with the farmer. Proper machinery has been set up to meet every angle of discussion that may come up. Mr. Williams stated that the Farm Loan Act is an entirely distinct and separate arrangement from the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act and is not yet in operation in this Province, although it will be shortly. Messrs. Jones and Tibert gave short talks on some features of the Club's activities, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

WEDNESDAY

MacIntyre and James MacLaughlin.

NINETY-THREE TODAY—Congratulations are being extended today to Mrs. Margaret Ferneaux, 201 Prince St. who is celebrating her 93rd birthday. Mrs. Ferneaux is still very active, rising each morning at half past seven to attend her household duties. Her eyesight has not been impaired and she takes much pleasure in her reading. Her friends wish her many happy returns of the day, and express the hope that she may be spared to round the century.

—DISLOCATES ELBOW—Mrs. John Murphy of Burlington was brought to the Prince County Hospital on Monday suffering from a dislocated elbow joint. This is rather an unusual accident, especially as the bone was not fractured. The lady had gone out into the yard after dark on Sunday evening and slipped on some ice, the fall causing the injury. The elbow joint was replaced and the patient is now resting comfortably. —S

The death occurred at his home, Union Road, on Sunday of James N. Lamont, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lamont of St. Catherines, West River. The deceased, who served overseas with the 105th Battalion operated a farm at Union Road in conjunction with his brother, who also is an overseas man, serving with the 5th Seige Battery.

Another brother, Donald F., who served overseas with a Halifax Regiment, taught school in Western Canada, later removing to this city where he died from pneumonia.

The late James N. Lamont leaves to mourn, his parents, one brother Malcolm and a sister Grace, at home to all of whom the Guardian tenders sincere sympathy.

ZION CHURCH ANNIVERSARY TO BE OBSERVED—Elaborate plans are being made for the observance of the 75th anniversary of Zion Presbyterian Church on May 12th. The church boasts one of the largest congregations amongst Presbyterian churches in the Maritime Provinces. Rev. Dr. George E. Ross of Fredericton is to be the special speaker. Zion has had a long line of distinguished ministers occupy its pulpit. The first was Rev. Dr. Alexander Falconer, father of Sir Robert Falconer, former president of Toronto University. The handsome communion table and chairs are the gift of the Falconer family in memory of their father.

MAGDALEN AIR SERVICE DISCONTINUED — Aerial service to the Magdelen Islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence has been discontinued for the season, it was announced at Upton Airport yesterday. The government ship Montcalm will leave North Sydney today to cut the way through to the isolated isles, and henceforth regular mail service will be maintained by the Lovett, connecting the islands with Souris, P. E. I. The last airplane flight was made April 1. Walter Fowler is at present in Quebec and will fly back a six-passenger plane for the Moncton-Charlottetown route. No announcement as to whether a New Glasgow, N. S.-Charlottetown service will be given this year has been made as yet by Canadian Airways.

The death of Sophia, widow of the late William McNeill Simpson, occurred Tuesday afternoon, April 9th at the home of her son, Mr. Frank Simpson, Beach Point. A private service will be held at Mr. Simpson's home Thursday afternoon followed by a service at the Princetown United Church commencing at 2 p. m. The late Mrs. Simpson was 92 years old last December.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her sister, Miss Matilda Clark, Kensington, the only surviving member of a family of twelve sons and daughters, the family of the late Andrew Clark and Sophia Bagnall, of Cavendish; also two daughters, Mrs. Norman McL. Ramsay, of Kensington. Mrs. Elmer Taylor, of Darnley, and four sons, Albert E., of Charlottetown; Andrew, of Vancouver, B.C.; Frank, of Beach Point, and John, of Hamilton, P. E. I.

Mrs. Simpson's genial smile and her happy disposition endeared her to a very wide circle of friends and relatives. She was faithful and unvarying in her Christian ideals and loyal to her Master.

LENTEN SERVICES — There was a large attendance at the Lenten services in Holy Redeemer Church last evening. Rev. R. I. McKenna, C.SS.R., continued his Tuesday evening Lenten sermons on "Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary", and last evening described the sorrow endured by the Blessed Virgin at the "Removal of Jesus from the Cross." Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament concluded the ervice.

The many friend of Mrs. Thos Noonan Richmond, will be pleased to hear that she has undergone her operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal on April 2 and is during well. She was accompanied by her husband who was with her during and after her operation Their many friends will be glad to welcome them home gain in the near future.

WEDNESDAY

On Thursday, March 12th., Mrs. Catherine Stevenson, a very highly respected resident of Albion, passed peacefully away at the home of her brother, James J. Creed, at the age of 79 years.

..ILLNESS REGRETTED—Being missed for the past few Sunday's from her accustomed place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, where she is an outstanding and valued member of the choir—inquiring by her hosts of friends, elicited the somewhat painful information that Mrs. Hubert E. Nelson has been confined to her home suffering from a very severe cold—so severe in fact that only the greatest care prevented an attack of pneunomia. Next Sunday it is hoped that Mrs. Nelson, who never wearies in well doing, and who delights in the glories of Zion, will be back in the choir, to again, take up her duties as a faithful worker in the vineyard.

SEVERELY INJURED. — Word has been received from Toronto that Mrs. F. G. Larkin has sustained severe injuries by falling down a cellar stairs. She and Dr. Larkin came to their apartment about midnight, after spending an enjoyable evening with friends. Mrs. Larkin, wishing a drink, opened the cellar door by mistake, and fell to the bottom of a twelve step stair. X Ray reveals that she has a broken wrist and a broken pelvic bone, besides suffering from severe shock. Later accounts say that she is improving. Pneumonia at first threatened, but that condition has cleared up, and good hopes are held out for her recovery. All her family were able to meet at her bedside. Mrs. Larkin is a sister of Mr. Allan Forsythe of this city.

The many friend of Mrs. Catherine Smith will learn with regret of her passing at the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday March 31st at the advanced age of 88 years. Mrs Smith was the widow of the late Michael Smith, for many years vice principal of Queen Square School.

During her last illness she was attended by Father Bernard Gillis and died fortified by the last rites of the Catholic Church.

There are left to mourn two sons and two daughters, Mrs. John Harper, Malden Mass. Mrs. Norman Randolph, Pictou, N S Edward and John of this city.

The funeral was held Tuesday mornin. A Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Cass. The Pall Bears were Messrs Thos. Smith, Thos. Power John Lightizer, James Lappin and P. McCarron.

SYDNEY, N. S., April 10—Rev. E. Melville Aitken, pastor of St. Andrew's Church here, announced tonight he had decided to accept the unanimous call extended him by Central United Church, Calgary.

He said he would not take his new charge until early in September.

A native of Charlottetown, he studied at Prince of Wales College and proceeded to Dalhousie University, Halifax, where he received his B. A. degree and in 1923 graduated from Pine Hill Divinity College.

His first charge was at Cavendish, P. E. I., and he had been with that presbytery up until he came to Sydney in 1931 to succeed Rev. Andrew D. Reid, now preaching in Winnipeg.

The people of Mayfield and surrounding districts were greatly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. William Davidson, which took place on March 26, 1935, at the age of 56. Although ailing for some time, he was able to be adout until a few days before his death. He had called for his doctor, but passed away before the Doctor arrived, heart trouble being the cause of his death. Mr. Davidson was born in Goldsboro, Guysborough, N. S., where he worked in the gold mines at Seal Harbour. Later he moved to New Glasgow where he was employed at the oil-shale. Owing to ill-health he came to P. E. Island three years ago to reside with his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Myers. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him, especially by his family. He is survived by three daughters and four sons, his wife having preceded him by thirteen years, also five children have predeceased him. The surviving members of his family are, Mrs. Ernest Myers, Mayfield; Mrs. Robert Arsenault, Mayfield; Miss Clara, at Clinton, Sidney, at Gualt, Ontario; Harry, Stellarton, N .S.; Andrew, Malagash N. S., and Scottie of Annapolis Valley, N. S. The funeral was conducted on March 27 by Rev. Mr. Patterson, and was largely attended. Interment being made in Cavendish cemetry. The pall-bearers were, Harold Toombs, Willard Nickolson, Jeremiah Peters, George Gallant, Alex. LeClair, Stanley Dolron.

—CELEBRATED DAY—Mr. Charles C. Barrett of Belmont, Lot 16, celebrated his 93rd birthday on Wednesday, April 10th, and received many messages of congratulation. His many friends wish him many happy returns of the day. S.

VISITED OTTAWA—Mr. Keith Myers of Hampton has just returned from a trip to Ottawa where he had been on a visit to his father and mother, John H. and Mrs. Myers. While in Ottawa Mr. Myers visited the House of Commons and the Senate, the Central Experimental Farm, the Museum, the J. R. Booth Pulp and Paper Mills and many other points of interest.

..ICE PLENTIFUL — Like the robin, the disappearing of the ice on the Montague River has always been looked upon as a harbinger of Spring—This year however a heavy coating of ice still covers the river, open water only being visible between the wharves where the strong current cuts the ice away, and which has often been known to be open practically the whole winter. If this is any sign Spring is yet in the distance.

ST. JAMES' Y. P. S.—The regular meeting of the St. James' Young People's Society was held in the schoolroom on Monday night. The speaker for the evening, Miss Jean Gill, in an interesting address, outlined the history of the Charlottetown Library and showed its value in the community. Following this Mr. R. R. Hurst mystified the audience with a number of tricks of chemical magic, and the evening closed with a sing-song, which was very much enjoyed by all those present. Miss Belle Agnew, the Society's pianist, was the accompanist.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Lawn Tennis Club was held last evening in the Y.M.C.A. with the retiring President Dr. T. E. Robins occupying the chair. Various reports were presented and officers elected for the year.

The following were appointed to comprise the executive:

President—Mr. Malcolm McKinnon.

Vice-President — Miss Lillian Duchemin.

Secretary-Treasurer — Mr. Fred Large.

Chairman of Tea Committee—Miss Ruth Stewart.

Chairman of Tournament Committee—Mr. A. S. Dickson.

Chairman of Membership Committee—Mr. A. W. Matheson.

Chairman of Entertainment Committee—Mr. D. M. Gass.

Chairman of Grounds Committee—Mr. J. E. Sterns.

Additional members of the executive include: Dr. T. E. E. Robins, Mr. Frank Hansen, Miss

K. OF P. AUCTION FORTY-FIVES—Much interest was taken in the auction forty-fives tournament held last night in the Knights of Pythias Hall. Twenty-four contestants participated, the winners being: 1st prize (donated by Mr. A. Robb, representing the Canadian General Electric Co.), equally merited by Edwin Johnston and Ivan Vessy, won by Ivan Vessy. 2nd prize, J. T. McKee and Percy Cox, won by Percy Cox. Consolation, B. Roy Holman and C. W. Bentley, won by Mr. Holman. A welcome guest last night was Past Grand Chancellor George Cameron of Amherst, who is on a business visit to Charlottetown.

In the passing of Mr. Charles H. Haines, whose death occurred on April 4th, another long and eventful earthly pilgrimage has come to a close.

The late Mr. Haines was born at County Harbour, Guysboro County, N. S. in the memorable year 1849, and came to this province with his parents at the age of fifteen.

In early manhood after the loss of his esteemed wife he emigrated to the United States where he lived and toiled about thirty-five years.

On his return to the Island he carried on farming operations at Georgetown Royalty and later at Brudenell Point. He had the misfortune of having his dwelling destroyed by fire a few years ago and was then induced to spend the remaining years of his life with his aged sister, Mrs. Barbara McDonald of Georgetown.

Besides Mrs. McDonald, the other immediate relatives left to mourn are another sister, Mrs. Cassie Stevens, and an only daughter, Mrs. John Publicover.

FRIDAY

HI-Y CLUB SUPPER — Professor J. H. Blanchard, M.A., of Prince of Wales College, was the guest speaker at the regular supper meeting of the Hi-Y Club held in the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening. Prof. Blanchard gave an exceedingly interesting and instructive talk on early Prince Edward Island history. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker. Mr. Arthur Jones presided.

TEA AND BAZAAR—The nnual tea and bazaar held yesterday afternoon in St. James Church Hall under the auspices of the Ladies Aid was an outstanding success. The tables and hall were beautifully decorated. Green was the predominant color with snap dragon, tulips, and daffodils artistically arranged on the tables. The novelty and tea tables were well patronized.

Friends on P. E. Island will learn with regret of the passing at her home in Glace Bay, N S., on Tuesday, March 26th, 1935, of Mary K. Morrison wife of D. R. Morrison, Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Glace Bay, N. S. The late Mrs. Morrison was well known and widely loved, and her passing will cause many to mourn, not only her sorrowing family, but a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mr. Morrison is well know on P. E. Island, being a son of the late George Morrison and Mrs. Morrison of Bradalbane, P. E. Island.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late James N. Lamont, Union Road, was held on Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. A short service was held at his late residence by Rev. Mr Wilson. Public service was held in Union Road Church after, and was also conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wilson. The pall bearers were: Harold Yeo, Harry Newman, James Maund, Ray Clark, Fred Henderson and B. C. Hardy.

SURPRISE PARTY—A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bain, Cornwall, on the evening of Wednesday, April 10. The occasion was the birthday of their daughter, Naomi, who received many attractive gifts. About thirty couples attended, old time and modern dancing being enjoyed by all. Excellent music was furnished by Chipman's Orchestra. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies.

A large circle of friends and acquaintances will regret to learn of the death of Nelson Currie, Springfield West, on March 30 aged 49 years. The deceased had not been in good health for the past three weeks, but only the last few days was his condition thought critical. His death came as a great shock to his sorrowing widow and family of eight children, three sons and five daughters—namely: Wilbert, Freeman, Lester, Muriel, Mary, Lulu, Clara, all at home also Mrs. Wilbert Waite of Springfield (nee Ruby). The people of this vicinity will long miss an obliging neighbor and kind friend. The funeral took place April 1st from his Springfield home to Bethel Cemetery where Mr. Currie was laid to rest beside his two children who predeceased him. The hymns sung were "Nearer to My God to Thee" "Shall We Gather at the River" and 'Asleep in Jesus." A duet was sung very touchingly by Mr. and Mrs. Ed MacDougall of Springfield, "We are Going Down the Valley One by One." Rev. Mr. Stirling officiated at house and grave.

Congratulations go out to the eight young ladies who left on Sept. 1, 1934, and entered as postulants, Mount St. Vincent, Halifax, and who on the Feast of St. Joseph, March 19th, received their Holy Habits and their name in religion.

There are as follows:

Doris McKenna, Sister Albert Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKenna.

Myrtle Greenan, Sister Jean Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greenan.

Margaret Greenan, Sister Francis Bridget, daughter of Mr. and late Mrs. Francis Greenan.

Anna Kathleen McMahon, Sister James Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. McMahon.

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS—On Friday evening, April 5, the members of St. Joseph's Literary and Debating Society, Kelly's Cross met in the Hall for the last debate of the season. The President, Mr. Thomas McAvinn, occupied the chair, and called the meeting to order. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, and adopted. A short program was then carried out. It consisted of Harmonica music by Messrs. Gerald Monaghan and Mark Higgins, Reading by Miss Eleanor Trainor, Reading by Miss Mary Bradley, Step Dance by Mr. Charles Toole. A five minute speech on the Fur Industry of Canada, was delivered by Miss Helen Nantes. The subject for debate was, Resolved that man derives more pleasure from the Radio than from the Printing Press." The speakers on the Pro side were Messrs. O'Leary Curley, Gordon Waddell and Miss Vera Trainor, and on the Con side were Mrs. Katherine Creamer, Mr. Peter Toole and Mr. Francis McAvinn. On counting the points the judges decided that the contest was so close that it was declared a draw. Before adjournment a vot of thanks to Rev. Father Peters and the other members of the Executive was moved by Mr. Peter Toole, seconded by Miss Mary Bradley and carried. Short speeches were made by the Officers present, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on February 28th at St. Anns Church, Lot 65, when Ada Griffin of Emyvale and Lawrence Kickham, New Haven, were united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony by their pastor, Rev. Leo. Herrell. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Aletha Noonon and the groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. James McFardgen. The wedding March was rendered by Mrs. Francis McQuaid.

The bride looked very winsome in a gown of blue, blue hat and dark muskrat coat. The bridesmaid wore beige crepe dress, brown coat and hat. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride where a host of friends and relatives awaited them, then all partook of a dainty breakfast. Violin music was rendered by Mr. Raymond Gallant accompanied by Miss Eveline Gallant on the organ, the remainder of the day was spent very pleasantly by singing and dancing. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous useful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a brilliant neck-lace and the bridesmaid a compact and to the groomsman a set of gold-filled cuff-links. At the close of the evening all departed wishing the bride and groom many years of happy wedded life.
