WORDS OF CAUTION TO YOUNG MOTHER

Mother must keep guard over the health of her little ones during the summer months. Summer is an anxious time for all mothers. It is the most fatal time of the year for babies and young children. It is then that stomach and bowel troubles come almost without warning, and often before the mother realizes there is any danger, the little one may be beyond aid. The mother must take strict caution to keep her little one's stomach sweet and pure and his bowels moving regularly. No other medicine can do this so quickly and thoroughly as Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets should always be kept in the home. An occasional dose will keep baby well and illness comes on sudden. Tablets will quickly remove the cause and make baby well and happy. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

A. Zavitz, of the "Farm Groups and Farm Seeds," Hon. J. John Richards, Commissioner of Agriculture, was present and spoke regarding the work of the Department and general agricultural matters. There was also a very good attendance at the Tynes Valley meeting on Wednesday evening, at which addresses were given by Prof. Zavitz and the Commissioner of Agriculture. At these meetings Prof. Zavitz spoke in an interesting and practical way regarding the results of experiments carried on for a number of years at the O. A. College and naturally gave a lot of very valuable information. As it is not often that the services of men as able and experienced as Prof. Zavitz or one who is able to impart so much valuable information on the production of field crops can be secured, every one who possibly can, should make it a point to attend these meetings.

A sensational case is reported from Fortune Bridge, King's County, and the circumstances which led up to it, are alleged to be as follows:—About two years ago a Herbert Archibald, of Plymouth, N. H., and his wife became divorced. Both married again, he to a woman in Plymouth, and she to John Conahan, of Fortune Bridge. They had three children a girl and two boys. Mrs. Conahan states that at 10 o'clock Friday morning Archibald and a strange man drove up to the house and took the child out of her arms and then drove rapidly away. Mr. and Mrs. Conahan came to Charlottetown and placed the case in the hands of Mathieson & McDonald. Archibald states that she was allowed to keep the little girl under a temporary injunction granted to him by the Court, but that subsequently this order was annulled by the judges and that under this order he had a right to take the girl. The latter has been a year with Mrs. Conahan, who is a native of New Hampshire. Archibald contends that he will contest the case. At present the whereabouts of the child and the child are unknown and it is stated that they have left the Province.

On Thursday last, the pupils of West Newton School cleverly showed their ingenuity and taste by reading to their teacher, Russell Smith, Middleton, on the occasion of his giving up the school, a beautiful address, during the process of which they presented him with a very beautiful gift, a gentleman's toilet case and manicure set.

The address read:—"It is with great sorrow we learn that you are about to leave us. Since the time when first you came into our midst you have won our love and respect by your kindness and by good example. We feel we cannot allow you, dear teacher, to leave us without conveying to you in a few words our appreciation of your goodness and your striving efforts to teach us. We feel that the impression which you left on our young minds will always remain with us. Your genuine uprightness of character, and persevering efforts made on our behalf have won for you from both parent and pupil hearty recognition of favour."

We no longer ask you to accept this small token of our esteem which will, at least, show that we appreciate your good qualities and valuable services. And now farewell. The kindest wishes of those whom you leave go with you. Signed on behalf of the scholars: Mildred Farm-er, Adelaide Mulligan, Pearl McKen-ny, Myrtle Mulligan, Mary McCabe, Ruth Greenan, Helen McKenna, Bennett Carr, Thomas Mortagh, Violet McCabe, Clara Gallant, Madeline Greenan, Emily McIver.

Dear Sir: Before you depart to another field of labor we, the people of Black River Methodist Church, wish to convey to you an expression of our appreciation of your work while with us and also of our deep regret at your departure. During the three years of your ministry in this part of the circuit your appointments were always faithfully kept, your words of exhortation sank deeply into our hearts and will linger long in our memories.

The interest you awakened here in the cause of temperance and reform has, no doubt, been productive of much good. The revival services conducted by you during the winter seasons left deep and lasting impressions and will surely bear abundant fruit both for time and eternity. Your friendly visits amongst us will be very much missed indeed. Our thanks are due to both Mr. Wason and yourself for the kindness and hospitality shown to all who visited at the parsonage.

Trusting that your work in the future may be abundantly blessed and wishing you, Mrs. Wason and family every blessing that a kind Providence can bestow, we beg you to accept the accompanying small token of our esteem.

Average 89.2. Total 892. His many friends at Red Point had recently the pleasure of a visit from Donald McIntosh, New Harbony. A son of the late Hon. John McIntosh, for years the political colleague of the late William Cooper, the first Apostle of Eschat, they were the central figures in an important chapter of the Island's history, and took an unyielding stand for the rights of the people on issues and questions now settled, and settled rightly. Though the snows of eighty-four winters have whitened the once raven locks of Donald, and enfolded his once vigorous steps, yet an allusion to old times, and the political questions discussed in his youth will re-kindle the fire in his eye, and a waken the vim Celtic in his blood.

Average 89.2. Total 892. His many friends at Red Point had recently the pleasure of a visit from Donald McIntosh, New Harbony. A son of the late Hon. John McIntosh, for years the political colleague of the late William Cooper, the first Apostle of Eschat, they were the central figures in an important chapter of the Island's history, and took an unyielding stand for the rights of the people on issues and questions now settled, and settled rightly. Though the snows of eighty-four winters have whitened the once raven locks of Donald, and enfolded his once vigorous steps, yet an allusion to old times, and the political questions discussed in his youth will re-kindle the fire in his eye, and a waken the vim Celtic in his blood.
