A VERY successful thank-offering and missionary entertainment was held in the Baptist church at Tryon on Tuesday, Oct. 29th. The evening being an ideal one the seating capacity was at a premium and many had to stand. The various parts of a carefully prepared program were excellently rendered and favorably received. Rev. E. P. Calder of Summerside was present and delivered an able and instructive address on Foreign Missions using blackboard illustrations. This address of the Rev. lecturer will linger long in the hearts and minds of those who had the pleasure of hearing him. A collection was taken which amounted to the handsome sum of $30. Much credit is due to the Women's Missionary Society who had charge of the entertainment for their untiring zeal in the noble cause of missions.

ABOUT 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Nell Shaw of De Sable, died suddenly from heart failure. The deceased lady was in her usual good health and in company with her sister Miss Annie McKinnon went to a neighbor's house about twenty chains distant for a bucket of water and returned to her own home and appeared to be in her usual health. Just as she passed over the threshold of the house she complained of a pain in her head and fell to the floor. All possible was done for her and medical aid was summoned but when the doctor came she had passed beyond human aid. The late Mrs. Shaw was a daughter of the late Archibald McKinnon of De Sable. Besides a grief stricken husband, four sons are left to mourn. The deceased was a highly respected lady and was a devout member of the Presbyterian church and her sudden demise has cast a gloom over the community.

CHARLOTTETOWN SCHOOL OF MUSIC.—Miss Fannie Baird was appointed assistant teacher by the Trustees Board at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Miss Baird has recently passed a very satisfactory examination in piano playing under Mr. Richardson, Miss Bae, the examiner of the Associated Board (Royal Academy of Music and Royal College of Music) both in practical and theoretical work. Miss Baird has scored high marks. Her selection bears testimony to her ability in executive and pedagogical work. The school annually enrolls some sixty pupils Director or assistant give a weekly paper with practical work for students. Pupils, or staff give instrumental selections at the Saturday class, these selections are given explanatory and critical notes. In this way the students become familiar with good music and have their critical faculties developed. The School has met with gratifying patronage and with its new assistant should enlarge its sphere of usefulness.

ON MAGNETIC HEALING. Much is spoken and written during these times about this mysterious method of treating disease. The most truly remarkable cases of magnetic healing, which have come under the notice of the writer have been those in which Dr. Chase's Ointment was used. This preparation seems to have magical powers in stopping the dreadful itching, burning sensations of Salt Rheum and Eczema and when used regularly makes the cure thorough and permanent.
