

CHANNEY'S GREATEST TRIUMPH!

TRY AND SOLVE THIS EXCITING MYSTERY

Who killed Roger Balfour? For five years the mystery baffled the keenest of master man-hunters. And then Burke, of Scotland Yard, detective, hypnotist, psychologist, tackled it on a plan of his own.

Exciting? You won't be able to sit still! Never such a part for Chaney! Never such a breathless drama! You'll simply love it!

MONTROSE NOTES

We are glad to see Mrs. Watson Hardy out again after her recent indisposition.

Mrs. Arthur Hardy is spending a few days at the home of her father, Mr. Christopher Wright, of South Kildare.

At the annual congregational meeting of the United Church here, on January 18, it was decided to make arrangements for the painting of the exterior of the manse at Elmsdale in the Spring. A committee was also appointed to select suitable furniture.

On the evening of January 17, a pleasant social evening was spent in Montrose Hall. Games, contests, and an enjoyable sing-song were interesting features of the evening's fun and an excellent lunch was served by the ladies of the district. A small admission was charged and the proceeds will be used for school improvements.

The cutting and hauling of ice seems to be the order of the day at present, and many are securing their supply while the hauling is good. This is but another example of the faith which looks forward to the heat of midsummer even while the thermometer is hovering in the vicinity of ten below.

Mr. Harold Simpson, of Summerside, was a visitor to Alma on Thursday, Jan. 12, the occasion being the organization of the young men of Alma, Montrose and vicinity into a Tuxis Square. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. John E. Mountain, of Alma, and Mr. Mountain was appointed leader of the movement, with Mr. Herman Dyment, of Montrose, as assistant.

Mrs. Bertram Ramsay has the sympathy of many friends here in the death of her little granddaughter, Florence Matthews, who passed away at her home in Alberton on the 17th inst. at the age of three years. Death was caused by infantile paralysis.

The funeral of Mrs. Silas Rayner, of Greenmount, who passed away at the P. C. Hospital, was held on Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Donaldson, and the remains were laid to rest in Greenmount cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to her bereaved family and friends.

Mr. Reginald Hoekin had the misfortune to dislocate his wrist a few days ago, while threshing at a neighbor's. The joint was set by Dr. Kent, who is confident that it will be as good as ever in a couple of weeks.

NEW ARGYLE EXAMINATION

Although the evening of Dec. 23 was rather disagreeable, nevertheless, a large number of parents, friends and visitors assembled in the New Argyle school for the annual examination, concert and Christmas Tree.

The school was artistically decorated with evergreens and streamers, and brightly lighted with Mr. Frank Smith's gasoline lantern, kindly lent for the occasion. The pupils, examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Mr. Leo Berrigan, assisted by Miss Jean McArthur, showed their responsive and practical answers that they were faithfully loyal to the task assigned to and thoroughly taught. After the examination was over, Mr. Allison

McEachern was appointed chairman and a short entertainment was presented. The audience showed that they appreciated and enjoyed the different performances by the requests for encores and generous rounds of applause. Mr. Neil McNevin capably played for the dances. Following is the program:—

Chorus, Christmas All Year Long, school; recitation, Welcome, Stewart McEachern; dialogue, Painting a Chair, Vera Smith, John and Daniel McEachern and John McNevin; recitation, Christmas Time, Beth McKinnon; Highland Fling, Catherine Richardson and Cath. McNevin; recitation, When Father was a Boy, Archie McKinnon; quartette, Merry Christmas Day, Catherine McNevin, Catherine Richardson, Vera Smith, and Beth McKinnon; recitation, Little Willie, Lloyd Smith; dialogue, Seeing a Ghost, Catherine McNevin, Catherine Richardson and Beth McKinnon; recitation, Flirtation, John McNevin; dialogue, I Won't Marry You, Lloyd Smith and Catherine Richardson; drill, by 8 pupils; intermission, and sale of candy. The proceeds from this was used to purchase several school fixtures. Recitation, Funny Faces, Daniel McEachern; darky chorus (in costume), Sing a Song of Christmas, six coons; monologue, An Irishman's Perplexity, Vera Smith; dialogue, A Waiter's Trials, John and Mary McEachern and Beth McKinnon; recitation, A Timely Painter, Cath. Richardson; drill, by 8 pupils; dialogue, The Day After Christmas, Lloyd Smith, Mary McEachern and John McNevin; recitation, A Crippled Dolly, Catherine McNevin; duet, Side by Side, Vera Smith and Catherine Richardson; monologue, Santa's Petition, J. McEachern; Highland Fling, Beth McKinnon and Sadie McEachern; chorus, Santa is Coming, school; John McEachern; Grade VI, Catherine McNevin; Grade III, Sadie McEachern; Grade I, Archie McEachern. Accuracy Tests, 1st prize, Catherine Richardson; 2nd prize, Catherine McNevin; 3rd, Beth McKinnon. Attendance prize, Stewart McEachern.

Complimentary remarks were made by Allison McEachern, Harry McNevin and Neil McNevin. The National Anthem brought to a close a delightful evening's entertainment. (Patriot please copy.)

PRESENTATION

Presentation to Mrs. Dan, Arch. McLean, Organist of the Presbyterian Church, Brookfield.

On the evening of Wednesday, January 4th, a very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Archibald McLean, Darlington. For some years Mrs. McLean has been the organist in the Presbyterian church at Brookfield. Even with all of the duties and responsibilities of home life claiming her attention, she answers that they were faithfully loyal to the task assigned to and thoroughly taught. After the examination was over, Mr. Allison

HOCKEY

St. Pats (Albany) vs. Beavers (Bedeque) at Bedeque Monday evening, January 23rd. Score 3 all.

On the beautiful Monday evening of January 23rd the Albany St. Pats under the command of (Dad) Lyven and (Hardy Andy) Noonan, sallied forth to meet the Beavers of Bedeque on the latter's rink.

A superb brand of hockey was handed out to the large crowd gathered, and the game was kept well under control by the genial Jimmy Clark, who hands out equal justice to all. After twenty minutes play McLeod of the St. Pats, on a pass from McKenzie, netted the first and only goal in the first period.

In the second period McLeod again scored, followed in a few minutes by McDonald of the Beavers. This goal put new pep in the Beavers, and both sides worked hard and fast, till McLeod in a few minutes netted the third and last goal for the St. Pats. The third period was a real game of hockey, both sides extending themselves to the limit. After ten minutes play, McDonald on a long shot, again scored for the Beavers. The play waxed hot and furious and with only five minutes left to play, (Isaac) Bagnall on a nice run, tied the score amid tremendous applause.

The crowd wanted a play off, but this being their first appearance on ice this winter for both teams, they refused. Naturally I expect they were afraid of taking the heaves and judging by the puffing of them, I would say some had already developed the disease.

St. Pats	Goal	Beavers

NOTES

Start the game on time, boys, and do not keep the spectators shivering on the promenade.

More team work and less individual play. One man cannot play six.

We are all waiting for the next match which will make the Summer side vs. Sussex game look tame.

So long till we meet again. Winkle

COMMENTS ON ICE RACING

The Stanley Bridge Racing Club held their first race on Saturday, January 22. Although the afternoon was extremely cold with a very high wind, a wonderful crowd turned out to witness the usual good sport. The starter's bell brought together some new ones with three good performers from last year, namely: Teddy, by C. Brown, Graham's Road, being a big trotter, and his first start, appeared unsteady. Henry Houston, of Mayfield was there with his beautiful Tod mare, and always ready to take part in the games whether sleigh or not started in his driving sleigh, and made a good showing. A. McLean, Graham's Road, started a big trotter, and his first start, appeared unsteady. Henry Houston, of Mayfield was there with his beautiful Tod mare, and always ready to take part in the games whether sleigh or not started in his driving sleigh, and made a good showing. A. among the fastest ever witnessed on this ice. The next day's racing will likely take out some more new ones, including Lucy Grey, owned by Max Ferguson, a good-gaited mare sired by Young Aubrey, Windbreaker, owned by Joseph O. Gallant, sired by Prince Major, shows that the boys will have to keep their hats tied on next Saturday. Upton Smith, of Cavendish has his LaCopia filly in the pink of condition, as they are usually found in that locality. She has not been seen in company, but the air waves are murmuring sweet sounds and we are expecting some interesting news when she arrives. Mr. W. D. Farrah has his LaCopia gelding "Everready" in perfect shape and according to the reports from Kensington and that vicinity there is going to be more than one horse in the front row.

Bernie Hynes has been seen at twilight, giving his Kentucky Marquee mare "Middlesome Maity" a gentle work-out. At the close of last season he draped her legs into loops for the first time, and she could pace a half-mile while one would be getting ready to talk about it. J. I. Stewart, of Bay View, has purchased from Earl Chappell "Lady Gayette," which at present has no known record, but we always look forward for the future to bring out something good.

The Chappelle boys, of Granville has two more good "crackerjacks" as usual: "Guy Sharper" and "Evening Bells." Both horses are green, but will be there with the cherries on race day and you can bet they won't be out of hearing distance when William Taylor sounds the song. "Lady Etta," owned by Stanley Biggar, hasn't been seen rounding the point yet. Her last year's pacing performance was a little unsteady for the want of some extra harness. Mr. Biggar has other good colts in his barn, from Princess Etta that will be read about later. The famous "Little George" has changed hands this winter. Mr. Wm.

"Captures the Soul of the Music!"

—says Fritz Kreisler—famous violinist— in praise of the new Orthophonic Victrola. It captures all who listen to it!

Captures the soul of the violin, of the piano, the clarinet, the voice—captures the soul of any and all musical sounds, singly and together! Plays naturally the tones of these musical sounds, and all the rippling overtones, that give beauty and color to music. Captures the low fundamental notes that give instrumental music its depth and richness, and liberates them at your pleasure. All this is yours in the new Orthophonic Victrola (and only in this instrument). And all because scientists have shown us the practical application of the principle of "Matched Impedance" or "smooth flow of sound", the patents for which are Victor-controlled. Thus you may have beautiful, realistic, music at home, and you may have graceful cabinets finished in fine woods. Artistically designed models—all equipped with a device which stops every record after playing. Electric drive which eliminates winding is optional at slight additional cost. Prices from $140 to as low as $115. Obtainable on convenient payments at all His Master's Voice dealers.

Terrific Storm Causes Damage

(Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 26. An exceptionally heavy snow storm struck the entire province of Quebec Wednesday night and at 6 o'clock Thursday was still raging. From Quebec, Three Rivers, Sherbrooke and other points came reports of snowfalls to the depth of several feet, wire facilities were severely crippled, the telephone companies reporting the losses of most of their long distance wires, while both the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Telegraph Companies were accepting messages and press reports for Quebec, and the Maritime Provinces points, subject to heavy delay.
