MONTREAL 1, DETROIT 1

MONTREAL, Jan. 29 (CP)—Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings played a 1-1 tie, return engagement Saturday night before a crowd of 14,231.

The same teams fought to the same result Thursday night in a rugged close-checking battle. The relative position of the teams in the National Hockey League standing were left unchanged. The Detroiters still far out in front of the second-place Canadiens.

As in the Thursday game, Canadiens scored first, the Wings tied it up and the teams fought doggedly to the end in the face of brilliant goaltending by Bill Durnan of the Canadiens and Harry Lumley of the Wings.

Maurice Richard gave Canadiens their lone goal, his 25th of the season, putting him one up on Sid Abel of Detroit.

Then, from an almost impossible angle, Steve Black quickly backhanded a low shot that curved to the far corner of the Montreal cage.

TORONTO 3, CHICAGO 1

TORONTO, Jan. 29 (CP)—The dashing Toronto Maple Leafs trampled Chicago Black Hawks 9-1 Saturday night in a National Hockey League game before 13,879 fans for their fifth straight victory and their eighth in nine tries.

Three centre players—Ted Kennedy, Max Bentley and rookie Johnny McCormack—sprawled the Leafs in their scoring rampage against the hapless Hawks who sank farther into the league cellar while the Leafs moved closer to the second-place Montreal Canadiens.

Kennedy, whose return to action at the first of the year after an injury signalled the start of the Leafs' winning drive, led in goal production with two. The others were scored by McCormack, Bentley, Howe, Meeker, Bill Barliko, Vic Lynn, Sid Smith and Joe Klukay.

Summary—
First Period
 1—Toronto, McCormack (Lynn) 1:53
 Penalties—Schmidt, Landen

Fourth Confederation Bonsel Opens Today At Local Curling Club

Curling fans are looking forward to the hottest week of curling ever to be played here as the 4th Confederation Bonsel gets underway at the Charlottetown Curling Club this morning at 8:30.

Stars of the broom and stone are gathering from as far as Manitoba to take part in competitions which will last until Saturday night. Excitement will be high—not only on the four artificial ice surfaces, but also in the spectators' enclosure where fans will be watching with a keen eye until the bonsel closes.

The rinks start out in the first section this morning, the goal of which is the Confederation Championship and the Maritime Central Airways Trophy. Five other trophies, the Imperial Oil, R. T. Holman, British American Oil, Morrison and McRae, and Prowse Bros., are also included in this section. The first section is expected to conclude on Thursday and the balance of the week will be taken up in a fight for the Wholesale Grocers Trophy and the Roake's Shield.

Due to limited space in the Observation Room it is not possible to invite the general public to the afternoon and evening matches, but spectators are invited to attend morning sessions upon receipt of an invitation from members of the curling club.

Competing teams are arriving from Sydney, Summerside, Brookline, Mass., Manitoba, Moncton, Carleton, and Saint John. Due to road conditions, visiting teams have been purposely left out of the early morning draws which are as follows (all rinks from Charlottetown):

8:30 A.M.
 Ice 1: E. S. Giddings vs. W. E. MacInnis
 Ice 2: Dr. L. E. Prowse vs. E. H. Saunders
 Ice 3: J. S. MacDonald vs. H. R. Carruthers
 Ice 4: G. E. Full vs. E. F. Acorn
 10:45 A.M.
 Ice 1: R. R. Bell vs. W. R. Jenkins
 Ice 2: F. B. Conrad vs. E. Tanton
 Ice 3: F. Hanson vs. E. J. Clarke
 Ice 4: A. W. Matheson vs. A. W. Hyndman

Membership Drive Planned By Abbies

The executive of the Charlottetown Abwegit Amateur Athletic Association announced yesterday that they will launch their annual drive for membership under way here today for the 1950 season.

The decision was made at a meeting of the club executive held at the Travel Bureau on Saturday under the chairmanship of the Club President, Lt.-Col. W. J. MacDonald.

Mr. A. Wins From King's In Exhibition

SACKVILLE, N.B., Jan. 29 (CP)—Mount Allison University defeated King's College of Halifax 3-1 in a one-sided exhibition hockey game here Saturday.

Only the stellar net minding of King's goalie, Ron Fraser, kept the Mounties from piling up a larger score. After a scoreless first period, Kings picked up the only second period tally. Mount Allison tallied all their goals in the final stanza.

Scoring for Mt. A. were Bob MacMichael, Joe Duffy and Blake Davis. Don Moir notched King's lone counter.

St. Mary's Edge Out Ramblers 4-2

HALIFAX, Jan. 29 (CP)—A penalty-shot goal early in the third period proved to be the margin of victory as Halifax St. Mary's edged last-place Amherst Ramblers 4-2 here Saturday night to climb within five points of pace-setting Saint John Beavers in the Maritime Senior Hockey League.

Tommy Brennan beat Amherst sub-goalie Bill White, filling in for the benched Angus (Sonny) MacDonald, easily on the penalty shot.

Keen Racing On Ice Saturday

The second harness house ice racing meet of the season was held over the North River course on Saturday afternoon by the Victoria Driving Club and produced some fast, close racing before a large crowd of spectators.

Performing over an almost perfect quarter-mile course the four classes totalling fifteen entries in all, were run off in record time, and came up with the keenest racing of the season to date.

Miners Defeat Millionaires 6-4

GLACE BAY, N. S., Jan. 29 (CP)—Glacé Bay Miners cracked two streaks here Saturday night by outlasting front-running Sydney Millionaires 6-4 to move within three points of second place in the Cape Breton Senior Hockey League.

The first game saw some of the nicest ball handling and defensive work in the league this year as the Flyers, held 14-12 at the half, came to life in the second frame to walk away with the verdict.

Each of the eleven players on the R.C.A.F. team shared in the harvest with their tall string centre, Eckley getting eleven points before he finally fouled out in the second half of the game.

Jackie Reardon was the game's highest scorer as he amassed a total of eighteen points for the losers with Dunphy and Mullaly next with five each.

In the second game the Millionaires rolled up a nine point lead in the first half and added nine more in the final act as they outplayed the collegians all the way. The score was 29-20 at the half.

Irv. MacKinnon, alternating between centre and guard all night, was the game's high scorer as he racked up a total of twenty-four points with Maurice Goodwin getting fifteen. Stott, a newcomer to the money men's ranks, having 12 and Earl Nicholson, Lt. Bill MacAndrew accounted for the other four points for the winners.

Charlie Hine was the leading scorer for the losers as he notched eighteen points, while Donnie MacLean had thirteen and Harold "Red" Howatt eleven.

Earl Goo refereed both games with Ian MacNeve acting as linesman in the first game and Harold Warren in the second game. Timer for both games was Lt.-Col. W. J. MacDonald.
