

THE INVESTIGATION OF THE NORTH AMERICAN LIFE

Is Shown Highly Favorable to the Company - A Well Known Citizen Receives Substantial Returns.

1st. The financial standing of the Company is unexcelled. Its securities being of the highest character. 2nd. The Company is skillfully and carefully managed with one end in view, viz. to give its policy holders the best possible value for their money. 3rd. The Company does not speculate with its funds. It does not loan a dollar to any of its Officials or Directors, and is not interested in or controlled by any other subsidiary institutions. 4th. There are no over paid officials employed by the Company. No excessive dividends are paid shareholders and the returns to Policy-holders continue highly satisfactory to them. In proof of this we publish from time to time statements received right here in Charlottetown of parties whose policies are maturing, as we would be justified by the company's record for the past twenty years. CHARLOTTETOWN July 5th 1906. Messrs. Ross and Matthews, Representing the North American Life Assurance Co. GENTLEMEN - Twenty years ago I was induced by an agent of the Company Mr. Laver, to take out a 25 Payment Life policy with profits for $1000.00 in your Company paying a yearly premium of $25.00. Having been fortunate enough to live the 25 years, you now offer me several options on my policy, any one of which I consider good value. If I accept the cash value of $602.15 it will give me a return of all my premiums paid in and $111.15 for interest, which is certainly not a bad showing as it must have cost the Company at least ten or twelve dollars a year to keep me insured. The second option gives me a Paid up Policy for $1630.00 that is $430.00 in addition to the face of my policy which was guaranteed. The third option allows me to draw the cash profits of $229.00 and carry the $1000.00 free on my life. I may add, I only regret I did not take out a much larger policy at the time I insured, as the results of this one have proved so satisfactory. Yours truly, (Sgd) BERNARD TRAINOR. 61 new tw tw tl.
