

The Family Group should be taken by the old reliable family photographers. COOK'S STUDIO

For The Best IN PHOTOGRAPHY CALL AT THE BAYER, Studio

FOR A GOOD PHOTO -VISIT THE-

A. E. Lyon--Studio

Finest work, moderate prices. Personal attention given to Amateur's Work.

DON'T FORGET BABY 107 Queen St. Charlottetown

Fresh Fish

We have on hand always a choice line of Halibut, Salmon, Mackerel, Haddock, Codfish, Eels and Smelts which we are offering at the lowest prices consistent with the quality.

Ch'town Fish Supply Company Phone 340-J Grafton Street.

Stupid Children

Children of bright parents are not naturally stupid. When study is disliked, study is painful, suspect their eyes rather than condemn their intellect.

H. J. Mabon Druggist & Optician Souris, P. E. I.

We insist on your examining the quality of fuel that slides down your chute. Plenty of dust slag and kinklers means money thrown away.

Save Money on Coal our yard will help you. Clean bright coal at the right price.

Phone 111

C. Lyons & Co

High Grade Coal is the only kind we carry. It does not matter when you order, you can be sure of getting satisfactory coal if you come to us.

Buntain Bell & Co

Agents Dominion Coal Co. Ltd., Black Diamond S. S. Line and Red Cross S. S. Line. PHONE 404

Here's Comfort For Your Feet

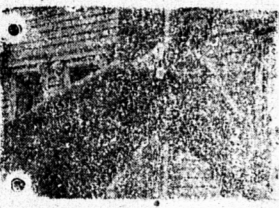

About the warmest things you can wear on your feet are these Lumbermen's Rubbers of ours. They are as easy and warm as Moccasins but will protect you from wet as well as the cold.

Best quality Kant Krack grade solid heel, high laced style $2.50, low laced style $1.75.

Best quality Kant Krack with seven inch leather tops in black and tan with solid rubber heels $3.00.

We have heavy knitted socks for these boots at 55c and 85c the pair.

Alley & Co. 135 Queen St.

How are your Horses Teeth?

J. M. Nicholson, D. V. D. HORSE DENTIST.

Horse dentistry in all its branches executed in the most skillful and humane manner.

STABLES 202 Kent St., Charlottetown.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR.

Anxious Old Lady—I say, my good man, is this boat going up or down? Deckhand—Well she's a leaky old tub, mum. So I shouldn't wonder if she was going down. But then again, her bilgeers ain't any too good, so she might go up.

"Did you do as I told you, Willie," inquired the mother, "and not ask Mrs. Winters for pie a second time?" "Yes'm," said Willie proudly; "I didn't have to ask more than once; I got the first piece without asking."

"Some of the distinctions of life are very puzzling to me," said Mrs. Gaddy.

"Indeed," said Professor Pundit; "what for example?"

"When you write anything bad and mean in a man's life in a book for everybody to read it's biography, but when you tell the same things to a few people on a front porch it's gossip."

Willie was doing penance in the corner. Presently he thought aloud pensively.

"I can't help it if I'm not perfect," he sighed. "I never heard of but one perfect boy, anyway."

"Who was that?" asked his mother, thinking to point a moral. "Papa," came the silencing reply, "when he was little."

A young wife, wishing to announce the birth of her first child to a friend in a distant city sent the telegram "teah 9:16," beginning: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Her friend, more literal and less familiar with the Scripture, read the message and said to her husband: "Margaret evidently has a boy, but why on earth did they ever name him Isaiah? He must be healthy, though, for he weighs nine pounds and six ounces."

At a negro wedding, when the clergymen read the words, "love, honor and obey," the bridegroom interrupted and said:

"Read that again, sah! Read it once mo', so's de lady kin ketch de full solemnity ob de meanin'. I's been married befo'."

"I will endeavor to be kind at all times both to mankind and animals."

To the aged I will be courteous and considerate, realizing that the burden of their years makes the lightest burden seem heavy. I will be gentle to women and little children, with due regard for their weakness and frailties.

I will keep my troubles and heart-aches to myself, so that other hearts will not be burdened by the weight of my misfortunes.

I will endeavor at all times to be cheerful and smile, so that MY SMILE may be an incentive for others to smile.

I will endeavor to be unselfish, not striving for more than what is mine in all fairness, and realizing that other people have rights and deserve consideration.

I will earnestly try to avoid saying unkind things to people and about them, realizing that slander is a blow from behind and the act of a coward, and I know that kind words have eternal life.

In short I will try to make this sad old world less sad, because I will never pass this way again.

The little book of sympathy, the little word of cheer,

Are precious gifts that we can never have too much of here;

So hide away your little cares and troubles for a while,

And brighten this old world of ours by showing it a smile.

AGAINST THE RULES

The new attendant stood sentry at the door of the local picture gallery.

Presently a visitor strolled up and was about to enter, when the attendant seized him by the arm and asked him for his walking stick.

"My walking stick?" exclaimed the man astonished. "I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

...IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

...T. GORDON IVES is Guardian agent in Montague.

...THE MORNING Guardian can be obtained in Souris at M. A. Paquet's.

...THE MONTAGUE RINK, is being well patronized this winter, and a large crowd attend every night. Come along with the boys and girls, and shake yourself out.—B.

...HOCKEY ACCIDENTS.—At Hockey practice in the Montague Rink one night last week, two of the local players, were badly disabled, one getting his right arm fractured, the other his eye, in a sling. The boys are reported as doing nicely when last heard from.—B.

...HORSE RACING.—The local horsemen of Montague are making good use of the now splendid ice speedway, and there is a large number of horses assembled on it every evening, and of course a crowd of spectators who are ever anxious to see the horses go. Sports are pleased to see, jockey "Joe" on a mount again, and expect to see him score which according to reports will be very soon. Murphy, also has a good green pacer, in Minnie M. by Brazilian, that will make the boys step some when the word GO is given.—B.

EASTERN PERSONALS

...Mr. Urban Hynes, O'Leary, is visiting in Montague this week.—B.

...Miss Clarinda McDonald, Charlottetown, is visiting her parents in Montague.—B.

...Mr. Vincent Murphy, Montague, employee of the P. E. I. Railway, left this week for T'gnish, on duty.—B.

...Miss Sadie Martin, Boston, Mass., arrived in Montague this week, where she will visit her old home here.—B.

...His friends are pleased to learn that Mr. D. A. Martin, Montague, is very much improved.—B.

...Mr. D. P. Murdoch, Charlottetown, representing the Rogers Hardware Co., was in Montague, this week, on a business trip.—B.

...Mr. Rysden, Charlottetown, representing the Frost & Wood Co., was in Montague this week on a business trip.—B.

...Mr. Allen B. Cosh, Charlottetown, representing the Crown Insurance Co., was in Montague last week, in the interest of his Company.—B.

...Mr. Bruce Huggan, Charlottetown, representing the Charlottetown Selling Agency, was in Montague this week, for a few days, on business.—B.

...Mr. Geo. A. Thompson, Montague, who has been confined to his house this week through illness, is, it is pleasing to report somewhat improved.—B.

...Mr. Seymour Compton, Montague, employed with the Montague Egg Circle, who has been for some time at Summerside, has returned to Montague again.—B.

...Dr. J. D. McIntyre, Messrs W. L. Poole and J. W. Carruthers, were in Charlottetown this week in attendance at the Fox Parliament held there. And have returned very much enthused at the splendid progress made by the Parliament at its first sitting.—B.

...Mr. and Mrs. George Bears, Alberta, who have been absent for some three years, in the wild and woolly West, are visiting in Montague this week, the guests of Mrs. Isaac Ives. They left for Brooklyn to visit their son John, the latter part of the week.—B.

"A splendid lot of new caps just received at the 'MENS STORE' the very smartest new shapes for rinks. See specials at $1.25 and $1.50. Moore & McLeod. 8285-1-16M31.

PRECIOUS GIFTS.

I will endeavor to be kind at all times both to mankind and animals."

To the aged I will be courteous and considerate, realizing that the burden of their years makes the lightest burden seem heavy. I will be gentle to women and little children, with due regard for their weakness and frailties.

I will keep my troubles and heart-aches to myself, so that other hearts will not be burdened by the weight of my misfortunes.

I will endeavor at all times to be cheerful and smile, so that MY SMILE may be an incentive for others to smile.

I will endeavor to be unselfish, not striving for more than what is mine in all fairness, and realizing that other people have rights and deserve consideration.

I will earnestly try to avoid saying unkind things to people and about them, realizing that slander is a blow from behind and the act of a coward, and I know that kind words have eternal life.

In short I will try to make this sad old world less sad, because I will never pass this way again.

The little book of sympathy, the little word of cheer,

Are precious gifts that we can never have too much of here;

So hide away your little cares and troubles for a while,

And brighten this old world of ours by showing it a smile.

AGAINST THE RULES

The new attendant stood sentry at the door of the local picture gallery.

Presently a visitor strolled up and was about to enter, when the attendant seized him by the arm and asked him for his walking stick.

"My walking stick?" exclaimed the man astonished. "I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

"Then you must go and get one," replied the attendant. "My orders are not to allow anyone to enter here without leaving his walking stick with me."

"I have not got one."

...ONE CENT per word each insertion for advertising in this column. Cash must accompany order.

...GOOD ICE FOR SPORTING.—The ice on the Montague River, is now excellent for skating, and horse racing, and there is a large number of people on same every afternoon.—B.

MODERN CHIVALRY.

Despite the efforts of Cervantes, chivalry did not die with Don Quixote. It is not dead. It lives and breathes and prevades our life to a great degree as ever in the days when knights were bold. But it assumes a different form.

Harken to its latest manifestation—a Colorado variety. In the Pueblo court J. W. Carter sought a divorce from his wife. Carter alleged that his health compelled him to live in the sunny climate of Colorado and that his wife refused to leave their former home in Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Carter made counter-accusations of desertion, and the cause was heard by twelve good men, and true. They found that the husband had established his cause. But the defendant was going to look upon it. She seemed especially designed to make some man happy.

The chivalrous jury thought it a shame that a divorce decree should be recorded against her, and thus, as one recorded candidly put it, "injure her chances of matrimony again." There fore, although she had not asked for freedom, but merely sought to preserve her present bonds, they awarded a decree to her.

The jury was discharged, but on examining the verdict the trial judge covered that it could not stand, because Mrs. Carter had made an application for divorce. Inasmuch as the jury had been discharged, the verdict could not be changed. Therefore an order of ministerial was entered and the case will be heard again.

A measure of justice? Possibly; but an amiable one, one in which mankind may take just pride. It was chivalry, modern chivalry of the most up-to-date kind. Those Colorado men are no whit behind Don Quixote. Equal suffrage has evidently not destroyed their high ideals of womanhood.

The next time anyone says that chivalry is dead, let it eternally confound him by the recital of the facts of the case of Carter vs. Carter, tried in Pueblo county, Colorado, and three determined with Solomonic wisdom to the eternal glory of twelve chivalrous jurymen.—Chicago Herald.

CHARGES OF ATROCITY MADE

LONDON, January 15.—At the request of the Belgian Legation in London the British Press Bureau today issued detailed allegations of the maltreatment of Catholic clergy in Belgium and the destruction of their institutions by German troops.

This statement says that churches and religious houses were destroyed or profaned in almost every village and in many towns where the German troops passed. In most cases the edifices were utilized as stables and prisons and, when not placed in safe hiding, the sacred vessels were stolen.

The statement makes the declaration that members of the clergy have been exposed to special indignities at the hands of German soldiers. In the Dioceses of Liege, Namur, Malines and Ghent many priests and others were shot or hanged. Many other priests were carried off to Germany, where they appear to have been "subjected to abominable usage."

SPECIFIC CASES OF MURDER ARE CITED.

The following specific instances are given in the statement of the Press Bureau:

August 27.—An American and a Spanish priest, among a group of seventy civilians, were dragged about from place to place all day and molested, insulted and threatened with military execution. They were taken to the church at Camphenout and shut up for the night.

August 21.—The priest of Duechen, an invalid, 87 years old, suffering from disease, was accused by the Germans of having fired on them. He was arrested, tortured and shot. The priest, Gelrode, brought into earshot on August 24 with three wounded men. The Germans said he was an English spy and took him to the town hall. The following day they beat him with rifle butts and then, on the Demer Bridge, they shot him and cast his body into the river.

HIS HONOR LOST

"She ought to drop dead for the awful lies she's telling," said the plaintiff, excitedly, listening to the witness for the defence.

"Don't say that," admonished the judge.

"She ought," repeated the plaintiff.

"Don't say that again!" warned the judge.

"Well, I won't but she ought."

TO GROW HAIR ON A BALD HEAD

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair, who, having tried nearly every advertised hair-restorer and hair-grower with no results, have resigned themselves to baldness and in attendant discomfort. Yet their case is hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist; Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavone de Compose, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics.

DEPOSITION BY A PRIEST TELLS OF TWENTY-SEVEN MURDERS.

A priest makes the following deposition: "August 15, German soldiers swarmed into the village of Schaffen and began to burn and pillage on the pretense that shots had been fired on them. One hundred and seventy houses were burned and twenty-seven civilians were murdered. The Germans maltreated me in every way. They erected a gallows on which they said they proposed to hang me. They thrust me into a house which was on fire, but dragged me out again. They sent me off, and at a distance of 200 yards, they began shooting at me. I fell and pretended to be dead, and so I escaped."

Continuing, the statement says the Commission of Inquiry collected evidence that in the Diocese of Malines alone, twenty-six priests were killed without cause. Similar atrocities occurred in other dioceses. In the Liege diocese, ten priests were shot and in the Namur Diocese twenty priests were killed. The priest of Spontin was first hung up by the feet and then by the hands and pierced with bayonets. In the diocese of Tournai a Bishop, 74 years old, was seized as a prisoner and struck by a soldier. Three ecclesiastics were shot in this diocese.

FOX DIVIDENDS PAID

The following is a list of companies which have paid dividends on account for 1914. Most of these companies expect to pay additional dividend later:

Spring Park.....10
Prince Albert.....10
Rayner International declared 40
paid.....20
R. J. McNeill Co. cash 50, stock 50
Rayner Stonehurst Silver Fox
Co. paid.....200
Rayner Clarke & Harlow Fox
Co.....paid 20
B. J. Rayner, West Gore
N. S.....paid 105
Black Prince Fox Co.....paid 50
General Fur Farms, Ltd.....paid 17
Mount Edward.....paid 10
(With additional 10 p. c. soon)
Murray Harbor.....cash 30
(More soon).....cash 10
Upton.....(More soon)

Westmoreland Silver & Patch
Co.....cash 35, stock, 70
Silver Tip.....(Added three pairs)

Imperial Silver Black Fox Company, Ltd., Montague.....15 (Added three pairs to ranch and hold securities for balance due on sale of foxes which when collected will enable them to pay another.....10 p. c.
Crapaud Fox Company.....cash 40
Willow Hill Fox Co. 35 p. c. cash
New London Fox and Farm Lands,
Ltd., 200 p. c. cash, and more later.....16
Dundas.....300 cash and 200 stock
Seal River Black Fox Co.....16
(Also 8 pups added to ranch)
Diamond.....30
Rogers Paton.....10
(More later)

The Freeland Silver Black Fox Co.,
Ltd., has paid a dividend of 50 per cent in stock.....10
The Carruthers Silver Black Fox Co.
has paid a 30 per cent cash dividend out of a declared dividend of 110. An additional sum will be paid after the general meeting on Dec. 8.
(Also 70 p. c. stock dividend)

Pure Canadian Sil. Blk. Fox Co., 40 and 35 per cent later.
Richmond Bay Fox Co., 20 per cent.
(More later)
Provincial Silver Black Fox Co., 40 per cent cash, with more to follow later.
Sovereign S. B. F. Co., cash.....15
(From 4 pairs)

Hartford D. S. Fox Co.....25
Peerless.....10
and balance after January 1st.)
Ellis Silver Black Beauty Fox
Co., 40 p. c. cash.....60
(With 60 or 70 later)

Hackett S. B. F. Co.....15
(and two foxes added to stock)
Magic Fox Co.....50
(In addition to stock dividend of 100 p. c.)
Charlottetown S. B. Fox Co.....15
(Also ten foxes added to ranch)
Bedeque Fur Farming Co., Ltd.....10
Glen