Queen Mary W. I. Celebrate 30th Anniversary

On November 23rd a very enjoyable party was held in the Legion Hall at Murray Harbor when the Queen Mary Women's Institute of that place celebrated their 30th anniversary.

The hall was very artistically decorated with flowers, streamers, and spruce by some of the members. In spite of the disagreeable weather about 50 members and guests attended.

Mrs. J. J. MacKay, vice-president, was in the chair. After the singing of "Galway Bay", Mrs. MacKay made a few brief remarks, and called upon Mrs. Albert MacLeod to give a history of the Institute which was organized 30 years ago.

The Montague knitting club held their social evening this week at the home of Miss Barbara MacLure on Thursday evening with seven members present. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. MacLure.

The Aketa C.G.I.T. meeting was held at the home of Miss Ann Yeo on Tuesday night. There were eleven members present. The meeting opened with the C.G.I.T. devotionals followed by the business session. Following the business session, discussion took place regarding the Christmas vesper service, with parts given to each member. A delicious lunch was then served and a social half-hour enjoyed.

Rev. H. C. Rice of the Charlottetown Trinity United Church was guest speaker on Sunday at Montague United Church. His subject concerned Paul and his work in evangelizing. Hymns for the service were, "As pants the hart for cooling streams", "Mothers of Sion", and "How firm a foundation ye saints of the Lord." Special music was a solo "Let us have Peace" by Mr. Malcolm Patterson, and a solo, "Jesus Lover of my Soul" by Mr. Roy Smallman of Charlottetown.

The funeral of the late W.A. Johnstone, well-known merchant of Montague, who passed away in the Kings County Hospital on Nov. 27, was held from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. F.N. Young, assisted by Rev. A.D. MacKinnon, D.D., minister of the United Church. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", and "Lead, Kindly Light". The pallbearers A.D. MacLure, L.I. Poole, and George MacDonald. Interment took place in Lower Montague Cemetery where the service was conducted by the Order of the Masonic Lodge.

The November meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Montague, was held at the home of Mrs. James Lowery, and was conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Emery Macve. The meeting opened with the call to worship, followed by Psalm 67. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. H.E. Nelson, and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. A.C. MacKay gave a very interesting reading from the missionary study book. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by roll call which was answered by twelve members. A letter from Mrs. T.H. Russell Somers, Charlottetown, was read asking for a donation towards buying a piano for missionary work in British Guiana. Mrs. A.C. MacKay reported for the sick committee. The meeting closed with Psalm 72, and the Mizpah Benediction. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Chosen as the town of the week, Montague was the feature discussion on the Kate Aitken Program on Wednesday. Paying particular respects to the ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary, whose efforts have meant so much to the equipping of the hospital, Kate Aitken went on to describe the beautiful spots of the town, the industries, and the shipping. In view of the excellent work of these twenty-five women who form the ladies auxiliary, the Ogilvie Flour Company presented a cheque of $100.00 with which to carry on their work. Indeed, these ladies are to be well commended for, by their industry a great deal of money has been used for the hospit, and $1,800.00 has been given towards the procuring of new laundry equipment. The many varied methods of raising their funds have proved an incentive to many other organizations, all of which helps in the development of this community.

STRANGE, EVIL POWER OF MYSTERY TEMPER KEYS SUSPENSE FILM

A film tale to challenge the imagination of fans and cause plenty of excitement sparks to fly, is due to arrive to-day at the Capitol Theatre. It is Paramount's drama, "Alias Nick Beal," said to be very much off the beaten path of motion picture entertainment and charged with the kind of mystery that creates more than the usual amount of interest and goose-pimples.

"Alias Nick Beal" boasts three distinguished stars—Ray Milland, Audrey Totter and Thomas Mitchell, both men Academy Award holders. They are supported by George Macready, Fred Clark, Geraldine Wall, Darryl Hickman, Nestor Paiva and Henry O'Neill.

LOVES OF CARMEN FIERY ROMANCE IN VIVID COLOR
