WAR TIME OFFICIAL HERE.—Mr. A. T. Wynne Plumtre, Secretary of the Wartime Prices Board, Ottawa, was in the city yesterday visiting business men, accompanied by Mr. Nicholson, in connection with the work of the Board. It was the intention of his chief, Mr. Donald Gordon, to make the tour, but pressure of business following his holiday in the West, prevented him. Mr. Plumtre said it was the Board's policy to reduce staffs as speedily as possible, and this was being accomplished by letting out officials, or transferring them to other essential jobs. So far as Charlottetown was concerned the staff had been reduced from four to one. Prior to assuming his present position, Mr. Plumptre was Financial Attache to the Canadian Embassy at Washington.

BIG TRANSPORT PLANE PURCHASED — When alterations and installations have been completed, a 28-passenger Dakota transport plane, purchased at Washington last week from the Surplus Property Board by T.G. Smith, chief engineer for Maritimes Airways, Ltd., is expected to be the finest ship of its kind in the Maritimes. Similar in type to several planes used by the Northeast Air Lines between Moncton, Montreal, and Boston, the big freight and passenger carrier is expected to be ready for operations this coming winter. With a wing span of 95 feet and a cruising speed of 170 miles per hour, obtained from two Pratt and Whitney twin row Wasp engines of 1050 h.p. each, the aircraft will carry a crew of three including the stewardess. Maritime Airway officials said last night that while the big ship had been used by the American Air Force, she had been in their words, "used but not abused" Mr. Smith, they said, was allowed to make his selection from scores of planes and they consider he made no mistake in selecting the big Dakota which is now resting on the apron of the Maritime Airways' landing field a short distance outside of Charlottetown.

Don't feel "slowed down," tired all the time—just because you've reached middle-age! Take a tip from this "young" grandmother who, like thousands of other modern people, simply refuses to allow her system to become slowed down with toxic waste—the result of too much rich, fatty food and too little exercise.

She knows the natural action of Bile Beans is mild and effective—tones up the whole system by stimulating the liver—and helps to keep her fit and trim. Try them tonight. Ask your druggist for BILE BEANS—the all-vegetable remedy that "Wakes Up Nature". 45 cause she suddenly found herself remembering a big-eyed baby fascinated by a single candle on a tiny white cake.

"Come on, blow!" somebody commanded.

And Phoebe looked down into the light, leaning a little forward, her face gave as she blew a hard puff. The eighteen candles bent, smoked, flickered—and all but one went out.

"A year to go!" cried Henrietta. "Another year before you'll marry, Phoebe!"

Phoebe stammered absurdly, "Oh wish!" and everybody laughed ex—Oh goodness, I forgot to make a cept Benjamin Prentice, who leaned forward and said that he had made a wish for Phoebe and he hoped it was the right one.

"Well, this is delightful," remarked Mr. Prentice in his smooth soft voice as the lights came up and Phoebe began cutting the cake. "Yes, indeed, very quaint. I don't know when I've attended an old-fashioned birthday dinner like this. In fact it takes me back to the days when I was a barefoot boy in overalls." There was something indefinable in Mr. Prentice's voice that implied he had travelled a long way from those days he mentioned, and that the party rather amused him.

A Young Sailors Experiences in Pacific

The following letter was written by Russell B. MacLure, son of Mr. Borden MacLure of Newtonville, Mass., formerly of Brackley Point, who is only 17 years of age and has been on the Pacific coast for a year:

Dear Mother and Dad, I have so much to tell you I don't know where to start. I am feeling fine except for my feet. I hope this letter reaches you and that you are all well in P.E.I.

Well, I left the U.S. on the same day you left for Canada. My first stop was Etiwitvk in the Marshall Islands. Next was Ulithia in the Carolina Islands. Then we reached Okinawa.

From Okinawa I was assigned to a sub chaser, and was striking for Yeomen. I told you all this in another letter but that letter is probably lost.

You will read in the papers, hear on the radio and see in the newsreel all about the typhoon we had here. The wind was 70 knots, pretty fast eh? And the waves were bigger than our ship. The ship is small and all wood. She is 110 ft. long and has a crew of 31, but the day the typhoon hit us, there were only 27 on the ship I was at the helm from 4 to 8 Sunday afternoon, the 16th, and I could hardly steer the ship, it was so bad. At 9.00, I was in my rack sleeping when the buzzer sounded, boy I flew topside, and grabbed a lifejacket. All I had on was a pair of shorts and sneakers. The waves almost knocked me off of the ship but a ready box saved me from going over the side. Then they cut a life raft loose as the ship was on a reef and practically on her side. When I saw the raft hit the water, I jumped over the side and almost missed it but finally got in it and we shot away from the ship, the wind and the waves carrying us out of sight of the ship in five minutes. There were three of us on the raft and it was really rough going. We finally got in about 300 yards or so from shore and then a wave capsized the raft and I thought I was a gonner. I held on to the line of the raft, but then I saw that she was going back out to sea, so I let go and tried to swim in. I had lost my sneakers, and the coral was cutting into my feet, but the undertough kept pulling me out, so I laid right down and held on to the coral and then when a wave came in I would ride it in. I was finally able to walk the rest of the way, but my feet and hands were all cut up. When I got on the island I called for the others and after about ten minutes, I found them both. We got back as far as we could and rested for about an hour. But first we thanked the Lord for answering our prayers, believe me I prayed while I was on that raft.

After we rested, we decided we would walk down the beach and try to find a road, as I was really cold. The other fellows took off their socks and gave them to me to wear. Then we started and it was tough going over coral and everything, boy it really cut my feet. We finally made the road and got picked up by a jeep and they took us to a mess hall and got us some coffee and some cigarettes. The Red Cross gave us a bag, with slippers, cigarettes, towel, soap, everything, even socks and candy. Then they gave us clothes. They took and got the other fellows a sack and then took me to sick bay where they fixed my feet and hands — than I went to sleep.

From the time we abandoned ship until we were picked up was only six hours but it seemed a lifetime. I was really scared but I wasn't a bit panicky. It was a wonder the depth charges didn't go off, if they had, the concussion would have killed us.

When I get home I will be able to tell you all about it. It was worse than I could ever say. But don't worry as now I am Okay, my feet still hurt, but otherwise I am all right.

At first there were only four of us, but they got a message from the ship this noon and the rest of them couldn't get off or were afraid to jump, but they are all safe. They had planes and everything patroling out to sea for us four, as we were the only four of all the ships, I believe, that were unaccounted for. But we finally got to the Navy base and reported this afternoon. They had us listed as missing, but I don't believe they sent any telegram. But if they did, they probably sent another saying we were Okay.

Well folws, I guess that's all for now. Please don't worry about me as I will be Okay. Also say hello to everyone and tell them I will write soon, as soon as I collect my wits.

I love you all very much, more than I ever could say,, and I'll get home soon, I hope. I will write later.

Love
Your devoted son,
Russ.

FREDERICTON W. I.

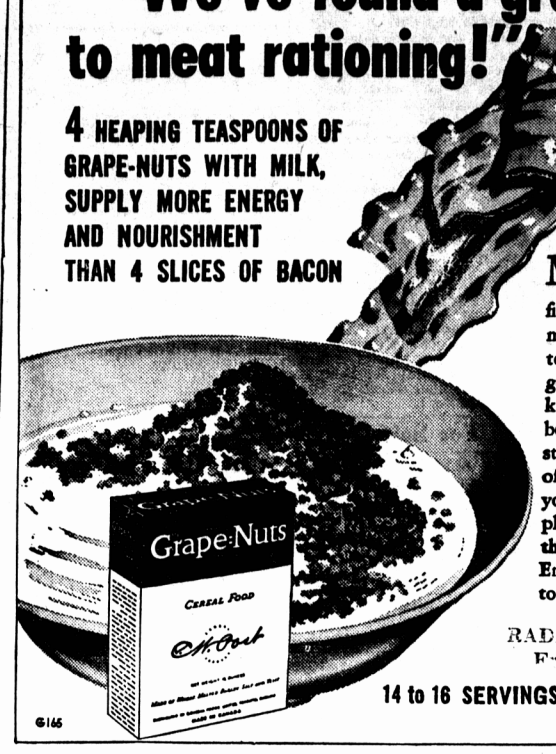
4 HEAPING TEASPOONS OF GRAPE-NUTS WITH MILK, SUPPLY MORE ENERGY AND NOURISHMENT THAN 4 SLICES OF BACON



MALTY-RICH, delicious Grape-Nuts are a really fine source of the kind of nourishment that meat supplies. Every tempting serving gives you a generous amount of protein—a kind of protein that replaces meat better than many other meat substitutes. Four heaping teaspoons of Grape-Nuts, with milk, give you more protein, calcium, phosphorus, iron and carbohydrates than a 4-slice serving of bacon! Enjoy delicious, "chewy", easy-to-digest Grape-Nuts often.

In Memoriam

MR. WILLARD DAY

A wide circle of friends and neighbours in Kensington and throughout the Province were saddened on the eve of Wednesday, September 19th, when the shocking word reached them of the untimely death of Willard Day of Norboro, following an auto accident which occurred earlier that day, one-half hour after he had exchanged the voes of Holy Matrimony with his bride, the former Miss Myra MacDonald of O'Leary.

His funeral which was held on Saturday from his late residence was conducted by the Rev. Lewis M. Murray assisted by the Rev. Kenneth Sullivan of the United Church at Summerside, the latter officiating at his marriage ceremony, and was very largely attended by friends from far and near who came to pay their last respects to one beloved by all.

The hymns sung were "Lead Kindly Light" and "Forever With The Lord". The Rev. Mr. Sullivan offered prayer. A solo "Sometime We'll Understand" was feelingly sung by the Rev. Mr. Murray. Mr. Murray preached the funeral sermon and spoke words of comfort to those who mourned, basing his message on the words of Jesus, "In My Father's House are Many Mansions."

He leaves to mourn his bride; his mother; four sisters, Viola, Mrs. Ed. Adams of Margate; Ruby, Mrs. Leonard Carter in New Brunswick; Orie, Mrs. Clayton Smith, Kinkora; Ethel, Mrs. Crawford Sinclair at Summerfield; and four brothers, Gordon at Kensington; Harlow, Summerfield; Howard in Western Canada and Archie at home.

Willard, on the brink of youth and promising young manhood, was a citizen of outstanding character, a friend to all, willing to lend a helping hand to his fellow men with an ever ready smile, close at hand. He leaves behind him a memory that cannot be erased and a vacancy that can never be filled, especially in the home. Death smote our gentle friend but we should rejoice for he has gone unto his Father, who is greater than all. God giveth and taketh away, is as true as ever; who are we to judge His actions; we can't but accept His works for we know our late departed friend has been called to his Heavenly Home to a seat prepared for him there. Life is full of pathos. Change and decay characterize our journey between birth and judgment; we can't now but maybe in the coming years we'll understand. The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to his young bride, who was so suddenly bereft and also to his sorrowing mother, brothers and sisters.

The pall bearers, friends of the deceased were: Aubrey Bowness, Ivan Bowness, George Douglas, Douglas Webster, Lloyd Sharpe and Louis Connick. Interment was in the family plot at the Margate United Church cemetery. Many beautiful wreaths and flowers in his memory were received from relatives and friends.

Steel Production In U. S. Disputed

CLEVELAND, Oct. 14 — (AP) —Restricted production caused by labor disturbances, coupled with heavy demand, has disrupted steel mill schedules, the trade publication Steel said today.

"Some producers regard the situation as worse than in early war days, before inauguration of the controlled materials plan," Steel reported.

Rationing by steelmakers is becoming prevalent, the magazine said, with quotas established in some cases and all orders being carefully scrutinized.

The estimated national steelmaking rate last week fell sharply 8 1-2 points to 73 1-2 per cent of capacity as a result of strikes in bituminous coal mines.
