That Fairyland the motion picture palace is becoming more popular every day is proven by the crowds that attend each evening last night was a bumper and the new lenses which the management has purchased at a great expense make the pictures five feet larger and decidedly steeper and clearer, thus giving the finest show that can possibly be procured. There will be a complete change of program tonight the subjects of which will be found on another page of this paper.

On Wednesday evening Sept. 18th at 8 o'clock a most beautiful and impressive event took place at the residence of A. J. Nicholson of Orwell Cove when his sister Annie Lauretta was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John Milton Furness of Vernon River Bridge, Rev. C. K. Hudson officiating. The bride who was one of Orwell Cove's most beautiful and popular maidens looked charming and was elegantly gowned in white silk Gloria with trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and was attended by her sister Miss Sadie L. who was dressed in white organza and carried pink carnations. The groom was ably supported by Artemus W. Furness, M. D. of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a most beautiful chain and locket set with pearls and to the bridesmaid a crescent of pearls. The many and costly presents received shows the esteem and popularity in which the young couple are held by their many friends. The wedding march was ably rendered by Miss Gay of Charlottetown. Amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple drove to their future home in Vernon River Bridge.

SAMPLE FURS SELLING

Substantial Saving

IN THESE DAYS when fur prices are high and going higher a real price saving in furs is matter of note.

This lot of which we are speaking, represents the whole line of samples small furs used by one of the largest houses in the country.

Being made as samples, they are thoroughly first rate in workmanship, being bought practically at our own price, they are selling now at saving of quarter to one third.

The lot includes ruffs, stoles, muffs, throws, and all sorts of small furs.

There is a particularly strong showing of marmot and fitch furs, in rich, beautifully marked browns, presenting an appearance very similar to mink, at about one sixth the price. Some of the prices of this line are attached—but for every one mentioned we have scores of others.

- A very nice fur is a Marmot Stole, in a medium shade has four tails, satin lined. Price $1.35
- Another one is a Marmot Cravat, sixty three long, medium shade, satin lined. Price $4.75
- Something altogether new is a Marmot Cravat with tail, of a unique, trimmed with heads and tails of seal sixty-three inches long. Price $9.00
- Beautiful high class furs in probably largest range in Charlottetown: Minks, Persian Lambs, Fox, Squirrel, Stone Marten—a sty e.
- A Jap Mink stole, one of our best mink, has ten tails, satin lined. Price $8.90
- A Marmot Collarette of a very dark shade with long stole ends finished with six large tails, and two heads, exceptionally good value at— $12.00
- A very large Marmot Caprine, fitting closely at the neck this fur is beautifully striped, resembles mink very much and has ten large tails. Price $14.95
