

OBITUARY.

Alexander J. McKenzie was born at Dundas, Prince Edward Island, June 2, 1835, and died in Kanorado, Kan., May 17, 1910. He was 75 years 11 months and 3 days of age.

He was united in marriage to Mary Ann Matheson, August 22, 1864, to whom was born fourteen children, two dying in infancy, and one, Mrs Annie Kidder, died, November 11, 1909, at Denver, Colo., leaving 11 children, six sons and five daughters now living.

All of these remaining children, excepting one son, Benjamin McKenzie, were present at the funeral.

Mr McKenzie came to the United States in 1873, settling first in Nebraska, from whence they came direct to this country, living on a homestead ten miles south of this place until three years ago this coming November, when they moved to town, where they have since been living.

Mr McKenzie made his first start in the Christian life in Nebraska, where he was united with the Presbyterian church, and came by letter joining this church during the pastorate of Brother Bates.

He lived up to most of the privileges of the Christian life, and in his latter days expressed earnest desire for the advancement of Christ's cause and his certainty of acceptance by the gentle Nazarene.

In conversation I found Brother McKenzie to be cheerful, thoughtful, and patient.

He told me Monday morning that he would not remain long in this town, but was going to a larger and better city.

He called the family and friends to the bedside and asked the writer to lead in prayer, during which he responded freely, and before passing away gave many evidences of his readiness to depart and be with the Lord.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church of Kanorado, Kan., May 20, by his pastor, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at Kanorado, to await the judgment morn.

For "behind the dim unknown, Standeth God within the shadows, Keeping watch above his own." REV. EDW. HUTCHINS.

Mr McKenzie has gone from us Tuesday afternoon our hearts were made sad by the sudden death of Mr. McKenzie. Mr McKenzie has gone from us. And oh, the bitter pang of these sad, sad words.

For weeks and weeks that grew into long dreary months, the family of Mr McKenzie have silently prayed and watched, battling incessantly day and night, hoping against hope that the cup of bitter sorrow, and anguish this pall of death that hung, oh, so darkly over the household, might pass and that he might be spared. But the great God of the heavens and earth had not so willed, and the era came. And the meritorious, well spent life, has ceased and a burdened soul has gone to its everlasting reward. The great transition of a true Christian heart from mortality to immortality has truly and surely transpired. Mr McKenzie has crossed the dark river and gone to that bourne whence none ever returns.

God in his infinite mercy has said, "It is appointed unto all men to die." And when we see our loved ones who may have served out their allotted three score years and ten, pass over the dark wave, we bow our heads and say, amen, it is enough. Tired with the cares of life we can more easily become reconciled, for it is appointed unto all men to die.

Many hearts in Kanorado and elsewhere will throb with pent up grief that knows no recompense save that vouchsafed to us in holy writ: "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord," and "Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, from which none ever wake to weep."

Many other friends and neighbors have dropped a tear on the bier of one whose life while here has made the world better for having lived therein.

Loving hands and willing hearts did all that could be done, but to no avail, for the sad heart slept, and Mr McKenzie passed to the great beyond.

Our great loss is his eternal gain. We know that he lived, loved and died, and God knows all the rest. Many the bright hopes that, some day, loved ones may greet him beyond death's rolling river in the bright Elysian fields of glory where death can never come, help his heart broken loved ones to wear this burden of grief.

"We shall sleep but not forever, There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part, no never, On the resurrection morn."

Mr McKenzie expressed his readiness to go. He was bright and cheerful to the end. He was born in 1835, died May 17, 1910. Funeral services were held Friday at 2 o'clock after which his body was laid in its last resting place in Kanorado cemetery.

He leaves a wife and eleven children to mourn his loss. And there it is: In the midst of health we are in death! "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Fondly have we hoped, fervently have we prayed, but in vain. Our cup of sorrow is full to overflowing. RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

A CROP OF RAGWORT.

Sir,—The bountiful crop of ragwort which is growing and fast ripening on the railway lands in Emerald and vicinity should be looked after at once, otherwise the seeds will be blown in all directions, and farms in the vicinity ruined. What about the "Noxious Seeds Act," or have the railway authorities no respect for it. It is disgraceful, as all persons passing through Emerald by train or otherwise are disgusted with the sight of this crop of poisonous weeds.

The Bread and Butter Age.

The growing child needs more good food at frequent intervals than the adult. Nothing is better and safer between meals than a slice of the good home-made bread. Formerly graham or whole wheat bread was favored; but Dr. Woods Hutchinson, the prominent hygienic writer, and other experts, have pointed out that the coarser flours are really less easily assimilated and are inferior in food value to the best white flour.

"Beaver" Flour

is a product uniting the merits of the coarser flours with the delicate, white, appetizing qualities appreciated by children and grown people alike. It is not a crude mixture, but an exactly proportioned scientific blend of Manitoba Spring Wheat and Ontario Fall Wheat. The famous Manitoba No. 1 Hard contains the gluten and proteids which build bone and sinew, and we balance this with the right proportion of the best Ontario wheat, softer, whiter and richer in carbohydrates, to make a perfect food. For bread, cake and pastry, use BEAVER FLOUR.

If you would only give NULIFE a trial you would be greatly benefitted.

Every NULIFE tablet means that much more and better blood--you can't get a better body builder.

NULIFE will put you on the road to perfect health and strength.

There are dozens of diseases due directly to impure blood--some doctors will say the disease is this, druggists will say it is that, but when the whole matter is sifted down, it is caused directly from impure or impoverished blood.

When you get that tired listless feeling of dissatisfaction, don't think for a moment that you can wear it off, because you are just taking your life in your own hands, and when your case is advanced you are simply courting disease and preparing the way for sickness to lay hold on your system.

You may think your stomach is not right or your liver is not as it should be, you are a nervous wreck or your heart is weak, but sift the matter down to one point and what is the cause? It is most probably impoverished blood--weak, thin, colorless blood is bound to drag down your system and the longer you delay the more danger you are incurring against a successful cure.

NULIFE (Red Blood Tablets) is not a cure-all it is simply a remedy that acts directly on the blood, purifying and strengthening it, bringing back health and strength by establishing the real foundation of health--good, pure, red blood. Do not impair your health and waste money on useless so-called remedies. Your health and that of your family is too precious to experiment with. NULIFE (Red Blood Tablets) will absolutely and in the quickest manner restore the body to its full physical vigor by soothing and strengthening the brain and nervous system, purifying and enriching the blood, restoring the appetite and banishing that terrible curse--indigestion.

Complications will set in and finally your case is considered hopeless. Nulife will then have to work at a disadvantage, but even then the results it will accomplish will astonish you.

Better a thousand times take this remedy at the beginning--before your system becomes weakened. There is not a particle of injurious properties used in its manufacture. If it will not cure it will not cause injury, but is a hopeless case indeed that it will not help.
