Union Commercial College Closing Exercises

On Thursday Last for the Term 1920-1921
The Union Commercial College closed for the term yesterday. Prim Moran reviewed the work done during the college term and congratulated the students on the excellent work of the returned men who made such a good showing in the recent Civil Service Examinations. Twelve students from the College passed and some of them made very high marks. The work done in the Business Department was very satisfactory and reflected credit on both teacher and pupils. In the Shorthand and Typewriting Department many new typewriters were installed during the term, also Mimeographs, Filing Cabinets and Adding Machines. Next term a further addition would be made, making the college equipment right up to date and equal to that of any business college in Maritime Provinces. He announced that College would re-open the first week in September. Following is list of Certificate, Diploma, and Prize Winners.
