MONDAY

RETURNS HOME—Mrs. W. L. McManus returned Saturday night from a pleasant trip to Boston, and other points in Massachusetts.

ENJOYABLE VISIT—L. Reginald Stewart who has been visiting friends and relatives in the Province for the past three weeks, is leaving by plane this morning on return to Portland, Me.

SPEND ENJOYABLE HOLIDAY HERE — Mrs. Grace Mader and daughter, Miss Hazel Mader of Taunton, Mass., and Miss Diane Mader of Brookhaven, Ga., who have been visiting Mrs. Mader's sister, Mrs. C. W. Patterson and Mr. Patterson, have returned to their homes with pleasant memories of a happy vacation spent in Charlottetown and vicinity.

—A pretty summer wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church, Tyne Valley, on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Gladys Audrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred MacDougall, Tyne Valley, was united in marriage to Kenneth MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKay, Stanley Bridge. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Young, assisted by Rev. Lorne MacKay, brother of the groom.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — Rev. and Mrs. Stewart Linkletter of Atlantic, Iowa, who are visiting Mrs. Linkletter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Schurman, Summerside, celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary on Friday by attending a dinner at "Briarcliff" in Fernwood with their immediate family. Later in the evening at Linkletter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linkletter entertained in their honor. On both occasions a beautifully decorated wedding cake with the thirty candles centred the table.—S.

The death occurred at his home on Arcona Street, Summerside on Saturday afternoon of Mr. Hubert Gaudet at the age of 56 years. The deceased, who had been in ill health for the past two years, was a native of St. Nicholas where he resided up to about eight years ago when he retired and moved to Summerside. Although he has been in failing health for some time, news of his death came as a severe shock to a large circle of friends both in Summerside and St. Nicholas where he was held in high esteem.

He leaves to mourn his widow, the former Aubeline Perry of St. Nicholas, two sons, Reginald of St. Nicholas and John P. in Summerside, two daughters Mrs. Arthur Bernard, Mary Ann, of Montreal and Zelma at home, also one sister, Mrs. Mary Morris of Miscouche to whom sympathy is extended.

In the Cherry Valley United Church, very attractively decorated for the occasion, on the evening of August 25th, Rev. A. S. Weir united in holy wedlock Reta Vernetta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mutch, Earnscliffe, and Ivan Hilson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hughes of Harrington.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a floor length gown of azure blue taffeta with finger-tip veil falling from a halo, and flower haddress of similar color. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only jewelery was a single strand of pearls, with matching earrings, gift of the groom.

She was attended by Miss Isabel Matheson acting as bridesmaid. She wore a dusky pink silk crepe, floor length dress and carried an arm bouquet of sorted seasonal flowers.

The death occurred Saturday evening at his home in the Cavendish Apartments, Charlottetown of Mr. David Rennie Laird in his 84th year. A retired bank manager, his death came after only a brief illness.

He was the eldest son of the late Hon. David Laird and Mrs Laird of Charlottetown. He was educated here and then joined the bank of Nova Scotia, advancing until he became branch manager. He was in charge of branches at Summerside, Hamilton, Ont., Vancouver, B.C. and Amherst, N.S., retiring some 15 to 20 years ago when he was located at the latter town.

He is survived by a daughter, Miss Lethe Laird, Charlottetown and a son, Arthur G. Laird, Summit, New Jersey. His wife, the former Alethe Gunn of Summerside, and a son, David Sidney Laird, predeceased him.

A prominent Charlottetown citizen in the person of Mr. W. J. Brown passed away early this morning. His death followed a long illness.

The late Mr. Brown was a man of varied interests in addition to his active business life. He was connected for years with the drug firm of Reddin Bros. Then he became Provincial representative for the pharmaceutical firm of Lyman's Ltd.

His other interests were concentrated principally in two loves, the choir of St. Dunstan's Basilica, and the horse racing game. He was choir director at St. Dunstan's for more than 30 years, and was associated with the choir for some 50 years. His connection with the horse racing game was equally long, and he acted as clerk of the course at the Charlottetown Driving Park for a great many years. He continued to fill both positions with rare ability until compelled to discontinue due to ill health.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY —The funeral of the late R.H. MacNeill was held yesterday afternoon from the Central Christian Church. Services were conducted by Rev. M.D. Dunbar and Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. Interment was in Sherwood Cemetery. The pallbearers were Col. C.L. MacKay, George Grant, T.G. Ives, J.B. Roper, Milton Stewart and J.P. Gordon.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY —The funeral of the late Harold A. Riggs of Cranbrook, B.C., was held yesterday afternoon from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home. Service was conducted by Rev. H. C. Rice. D.D. Stanley Lancaster sang very effectively, Just For Today". The pall bearers were James Fullerton, Frank Fraser, George Berrigan, Allison MacLeod, H. S. Strickland, K. M. Martin. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER —Miss Audrey MacDougall, previous to her marriage, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower by her friends and neighbors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred MacDougall, Tyne Valley. She was escorted to a prettily decorated chair by Mrs. Ivan MacKay, where she was assisted in opening the many attractively wrapped packages by Miss Wilna MacNevin. The accompanying verses were read by Miss June Sharp and the lovely gifts placed by Miss Phyllis Sharp, after which Miss MacDougall graciously thanked all. Refreshments were served by the visiting ladies.—S.

Yesterday two unusually severe electric storms were experienced in Summerside and vicinity and although no serious damage was reported, several narrow escapes were recorded.

The first storm occurred at about 9.30 a.m. and the second about 6 p.m.

Several dwellings on Ottawa Street were struck during the first storm. At the home of Mr. Harold Chlow the lightning entered an upstairs window, causing considerable damage to one of the bedrooms and hall. At the home of Mr. Fred Bingham a short distance away, Mrs. Bingham suffered severe shock to her right arm and throat. Across the street from Mr. Bingham's, at the home of Mr. Reginald Gay, the occupants experienced severe shock but no serious injury.

Mr. George Morrison, manager of the electric light plant stated that several transformer fuses had blown out between Summerside and St. Eleanors.

—A wedding of great interest to many relatives and friends of Memramcook parish and Prince Edward Island recently took place in St. Thomas Church, St. Joseph, N.B. when Marie Jeanne Mance Gaudet daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gaudet, St. Joseph, was united in marriage to Jean Euclide Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Arsenault of Wellington, P. E. I. The ceremony was conducted by Mgr. Jean V. Gaudet, pastor of Dieppe parish, uncle of the bride, who also celebrated the nuptial mass which followed immediately.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother. She looked beautiful dressed in a floor length gown of white brocaded eyelet with fitted bodice and skirt having a slight train. Her veil of embroidered tulle was held with coronet trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli.

Miss Yolande Gaudet, sister of the bride acted maid of honor and wore a floor length gown of yellow gold taffeta with a hair-cand of matching material. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

TUESDAY

—LOST BARN BY FIRE — Lightning struck a barn on the farm of Leigh Cole, Spring Brook, in the New London district, on Sunday morning. In a matter of minutes it was a mass of flame and burned to the ground with all its contents. The hay crop, poultry, hogs, binder, mower, harness and many small articles were burned, bringing the loss to several thousand dollars. There is said to be very little insurance. The loss is serious to the owner who is a young man, only recently settled on the farm.—Bur.

On Sunday, August 29th, Rev Owen Kiggins was tendered a gift on behif of the parishioners prior to his departure from the parish. The address was read by Mr. S. S. Hessian, K.C., and the gift presented by Mr. Louis MacDonald. Rev. Kiggins in a fitting address thonked his parishioners among whom he has labored for the past twenty-five years. During this time he has capably fulfilled his duties even under the greatest hardships and the most inclement weather. His kindness and geniality have won him the respect and friendship of all with whom he came in contact, and all his parishioners will regret his departure from this parish. His work will now be concentrated in Georgetown, where he has laboured for the same number of years. His constant solicitude for all, and his readiness to help in times of adversity will remain always in the minds of those who were under his care. His work will now be taken over by Rev. Louis Dougan who has been recently appointed to the charge. During the past year and a half Father Dougan has been assistant at St. Mary's Cathedral in Halifax. During the war he served as padre to the air force stationed in Charlottetown after which he was attached to the Cathedral staff. Father Dougan will take over his duties in the Montague parish on Sunday, September 5th.—Lan.

ENJOYED VISIT—Mrs. Wilfred Swanson of East Natick, Mass., left this morning for her home, after spending a delightful summer at Brighton Shore Cottage. Her two children, Alan Paul and Betsy, accompanied her. Several little social gatherings were held for her by her former Charlottetown friends.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of the late Mrs. John Casford was held yesterday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cudmore, 46 Douglas Street. Service at the home and grave was conducted by Rev. M. D. Dunbar. Pallbearers were Messrs. Alex Ford, Hammond Ford, Dan Malone, Fred Chandler, John Callaghan, John Garrett. Interment People's Cemetery.

The whole community of Kinzora was grieved by the death of Mrs. Thomas L. Shreenan in the Charlottetown Hospital on Tuesday afternoon, August 10th, 1948. Mrs. Shreenan had been a lifelong resident of Kinkora and endeared herself to all with whom she associated. Her seventy-nine years were happily spent in making others happy, and her cheerful disposition kept her ever youthful. With complete devotion and affec-

VISITORS ENJOYED HOLIDAY —Miss Eunice Wills, Johannesburg, South Africa, and Miss Anne Fyles, Montreal, who have been on a tour of the Maritime Provinces spent a few days visiting in Charlottetown. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crockett. Mrs. Crockett's daughter, Miss Stella MacLean, R.N., and Miss Wills spent four years together in the South African Army service. Miss Wills is in Canada on leave and will return to South Africa early next year.

Home after a marvellous trip that took him both ways across the Atlantic by air and two thrill-packed weeks in England and Scotland, Sgt. Robert Gay of the Summerside Air Cadet Squadron, really feels how lucky he was to have been chosen to represent the air cadets of this Province in the second exchange visit with air cadets of the United Kingdom. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gay, Sgt. Gay, who arrived home over the week-end has happy recollections of the friendship of the people over there especially the Scottish people who "would walk a mile to show you something you wanted to see."

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. William Kiggins took place yesterday morning at 9.45 from her late residence 135 Water Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. David McTague. Present in the Sanctuary were, Rt. Rev. Maurice MacDonald and Rev. Owen Kiggins. Assisting the choir was Rev. Dr Bernard Gillis. The pall bearers were, Dr. John Blake and Messrs Albert Wilson, Frank McPhee, William Bruce, Ignatius Murphy and Alban MacDonald. Burial was in the church cemetery where the service was conducted by Rev. David McTague, assisted by Rev. Owen Kiggins.

PAINFUL INJURIES — Mr. George McKay, 74-year-old resident of DeSable, is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital suffering from serious injuries sustained in an accident early last Monday afternoon when his wagon with which he was taking a load of hay to his farm was struck by a Quebec-registered automobile. The victim was turning in his gate when the crash occurred. Given immediate medical assistance he was rushed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where it was found that he was suffering from a broken hip and shoulder, a fractured wrist and internal injuries.

A pretty July wedding took place in St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon, when Rev. Fr. Mullally united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mary Winnifred, daughter of the late Henry Farrell and Mrs. Farrell, and Gerald Isidore, son of the late Benjamin B. and Mrs. MacDonald of Vernon River.

The bride was becomingly attired in a floor-length gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and ruffled skirt. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of English Tea Roses. Her only ornament was a double string of pearls with matching earrings.

HOME FOR BURIAL — The death occurred at Melrose, Mass., Aug. 27th. of Emma Jane, widow of George Alexander Nicholson, formerly of Lorne Valley, P. E. I. The funeral took place from the A. E. Long Memorial Chapel, North Cambridge, Mass., on Sunday, Aug. 29th., the remains being then forwarded to Lorne Valley, P. E. I. where the funeral will take place on Sept. 1st. at 2 p.m. The funeral service in Cambridge was conducted by Rev. Hilman R. Whichard of the Grace Episcopal Church, Medford, Mass. Those left to mourn are a son, Cabel R. Nicholson Cambridge, Mass., and daughters, Katherine E. Green, Medford, Mass. and Irene M. Bampton, Melrose, Mass.

ON TWO WEEKS VISIT —Mr. Alex Gillis accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Margaret MacDonald of Cambridge, Mass., arrived in the Province on Saturday night on a two weeks visit to their father Mr. William Gillis of New Argyle and other relatives throughout the Island.

—A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Alice Gordon was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wright one evening recently. While the wedding march was being played by Mrs. Hubert Campbell, Miss Gordon was led to a place of honor by Mrs. George Ramsay. "Oscar" had a busy evening as from time to time he directed the bride-to-be to numerous packages concealed about the house. The verses and good wishes which accompanied the beautiful gifts were read by Mrs. J. N. Smythe. After Miss Gordon had expressed her thanks and appreciation, all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A happy social hour, during which refreshments were served, was followed by "Auld Lang Syne."

—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Anthony's R. C. Church when Mary Mildred, daughter of Mrs. Moses Gallant, became the bride of OS. Clarence J. Pineau, son of Mr. and Mrs Urban Pineau of Bloomfield. Rev M. J. Rooney blessed the marriage and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride was beautifully dressed in white brocade satin with three quarter length veil and silver leaf ed head dress. She carried a pearl rosary and American Beauty roses. She was attended by her sister Edna who was dressed in pink taffeta with shoulder length veil and carried pink snapdragons. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Leo. The groom was ably supported by his brother Reginald. Appropriate hymns were rendered during Mass by Mr. Pius Finnan and members of the Sodality choir. After the ceremony breakfast was served at the bride's home to upwards of sixty guests. The bridal party then motored to Summerside to have photos taken. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the groom, where many friends and neighbors called with beautiful gifts and good wishes for the popular young couple. After the reception the happy pair left by plane and toured the Maritimes on their honeymoon. They will reside in Halifax where Mr. Pineau is at present stationed in the Royal Canadian Navy.

The many friends and relatives of Mr. Ivan McInnis, City, will learn with regret of his sudden death yesterday afternoon.

The late Mr. McInnis, who was well known in this City, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. McInnis, Granville St., had been associated with his father in the bakery business all his life, and was an active member of the Oddfellows Lodge. He was 43 years of age.

About 4:30 yesterday afternoon the deceased was bringing his truck to a stop in front of his home at 15 Granville Street when he was stricken with a heart attack and died about 10 minutes later in his own home.

40TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—On Wednesday evening last, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oakes, in a surprise party, to congratulate them on the occasion of their 40th anniversary. The house was appropriately decorated during the afternoon, while Mr. and Mrs. Oakes were in Charlottetown. Mrs. Urville Large played the Wedding March, and Mrs. Fred Walsh escorted the couple to the bridal chairs. Mr. Verner Moore was master of ceremonies and expressed the good wishes of the community to Mr. and Mrs. Oakes. Individual expressions were also made by Mr. Brent Wood, Ottawa, and others. A number of presentations were made. Mrs Lewis Francis presented a purse on behalf of those present. Mr. Stafford Leard presented a silver butter dish on behalf of the Crapaud Orange Lodge, and Mr. Arthur Inman read an appropriate address. The family presented them with a beautiful kitchen cabinet. Other gifts received were a silver butter dish from Mrs. A. Hyndman and a mirror from Miss Evelyn McAuslan. In a few appropriate words, Mr. and Mrs. Oakes expressed their thanks to all present. Toward the close of the evening generous refreshments were served under the convenorship of Mrs. Parker Francis. A lively sing-song of old songs and favourite hymns brought the evening to a close.
