

FREE OF TERRIBLE KIDNEY TROUBLE

After Three Years of Suffering, "FRUIT-A-LIVES" Brought Relief

MADAME HORMIDAS FOISY

624 Champlain St., Montreal.

"For three years, I was ill and exhausted and I suffered constantly from Kidney Trouble and Liver Disease. My health was miserable and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good. Then I started to use 'Fruit-a-lives' and the effect was remarkable.

I began to improve immediately and this wonderful fruit medicine entirely restored me to health. All the old pains, headaches, indigestion and constipation were relieved and once more I was well.

To all who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation, Rheumatic Pains or Great Fatigue, I advise the use of 'Fruit-a-lives'."

Madame HORMIDAS FOISY.

The Little Nurse for Little Ills

WEDNESDAY.
FORMER CHARLOTTETOWN LADY.—Mrs. Esdale is the new organist at St. Matthias church, Halifax, and there is great gratification at being able to secure her services, says the Halifax Herald.

SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITOR.—At the St. John Exhibition, Miss Margaret F. Irving of this city made a most creditable showing, winning first prize in pastel, fruit, and first pen and ink, flowers. Her charcoal work was highly commended. Miss Irving is to be congratulated on her success.

SCHOONER SEARCHED.—The Schooner Heeler McGregor, lying at Holman's Wharf, Summerside, was raided yesterday by Inspector Barbour and Constables Oakes and Grady, in the search for liquor. A barrel of empty bottles is said to have been the sole result. The Captain has not shown up.

OPENS BRANCH.—Mr. George A. Bowness of Summerside has recently opened out a branch of his harness making business in O'Leary. It will be under the management of Mr. Horace Heckbert, a very capable young man for this position having had experience of some years under the skilled guidance of Mr. Bowness who is himself an expert at this trade and his many friends wish him success in his new business.

The regular monthly meeting of the "W. C. C." was held last night. His Worship Mayor Riley in the chair and the following councillors present: Webster, Jenkins, Moraa, Yeo, Miller and Rat-tray. The matter of an extension of the railway track across the property on Water Street belonging to the city was left in the hands of the Public Property Co. His Worship the Mayor and His Honor the Recorder, Dr. McKinnon, milk and meat inspector, appeared before the Council and gave his report stating that quite a number of portions of meat and fish had been condemned. The milk supplied in the city was improving in quality but still left much to be desired. Some of the parties supplying milk had been notified that their licenses would be cancelled unless an improvement was made. A number of other matters were disposed of and the meeting adjourned.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howatt, Cape Traverse, will regret to hear of the sudden death of their dearly beloved and only son Robert Alexander, aged 4 years who died, Sept. 1st.

He had been sick nine days and his death came as a severe blow to his parents and relatives. He leaves to mourn besides his heart-broken parents, five sisters, namely Pearl, Hilda, Dorinda, Daisy and Beulah. It is hard to part with one so young and sweet, yet those who are left to mourn have the consolation of knowing that his death was a messenger of peace, calling his soul to Heaven.

Mr. and Mrs. Howatt and family have the sympathy of the community as it is only 7 weeks since the sudden death of their darling son Earl, aged 15 years.

These lovely lads that filled our

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in the chapel of the Ottawa University on Tuesday, September 7th, when Mary Edna, daughter of the late Joseph H. Lauthier and Mrs. Lauthier of Ottawa, was united in marriage to Mr. William Joseph, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Macdonald, of Mount Stewart, P.E.I.—Rev. E. J. Cornell, O.M.I., officiating. The bride, who was given away by her brother—Mr. Joseph Lauthier, was becomingly attired in a navy broadcloth suit with a large black velvet hat. She carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses and wore the gift of the groom a molekin scarf. Miss Monica Lauthier acted as bridesmaid while Mr. E. J. Sinnott assisted the groom. After the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, after which the happy couple left on a trip to Prince Edward Island and other eastern points.

A long and well spent life has come to a close in the passing away of Mrs. Elizabeth Dingwell of North Lake, P. E. I.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Stewart, she was born about eighty-four years ago. Mrs. Dingwell was twice married—first to Theophilus Anderson and subsequently to James Dingwell.

Three sons—Stewart Anderson, James and Charles Dingwell and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Morrow were with her in her last illness, ministering to her with the affectionate tenderness that characterized their attitude towards their mother. The pain of parting was increased by the illness of the eldest son, Stewart Anderson—necessitating his removal to the hospital before the mother passed away.

Mrs. Dingwell was a type of true, heroic and noble womanhood. Energetic and industrious she responded heartily to the call of duty. Sympathetic—the poor, the sick and the sorrowing found in her a friend. Hospitable, the friend of years and the stranger, alike, received a hearty welcome of her home.

GLASS BROKEN.—A large pane of glass in the store of Mr. L. R. Ings, 272 Euston Street, was smashed by some miscreant on Monday night. The police were notified.

BISHOP ON WAY HOME.—The Rt. Rev. Dr. D. Schofield, of Victoria (B. C.), Bishop of Columbia, and formerly of St. John and Fredericton, is on his way from England and is expected on this side in a few days, says the St. John Telegraph. Bishop Schofield will be remembered in Charlottetown, having studied at St. Peter's School and after his ordination had been an assistant at St. Peter's Cathedral.

THE MARKET.—There was a fair market yesterday. Chickens and fowl were selling from $1.00 to $1.35 each. Some blueberries are still offering and for these 25 cents per quart was demanded. Beef small retail was 18 to 25c; and 14 to 18c, by the quarter; lamb 20 to 25c; by the carcass and 25 to 35c. small; pork 21 to 22c; wholesale and 25 to 35 small. A small number of fresh mackerel were on sale at 25 to 30c. Salt mackerel were plentiful at 20 to 25c, fresh cod 8 cents per lb.

AT LENNOX ISLAND.—On Lennox Island, September 10th, to John J. Sark and Mrs. Sark, (Elsie Maud Houghton), a son, baptized John Reuben. Sponsors Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gillis and Mr. Ray Brown.—The Forty Hours Devotion was held on Lennox Island on Saturday and Sunday last and was largely attended.—Extensive road work has been carried out on Lennox Island and is now nearing completion. In addition to the voluntary labor performed, a grant of $200 from the Indian Department was judiciously spent, opening up drains and raising the road bed in low places.—Dr. W. E. Willer John's wife, who has returned from his and wife of Montreal, who spent a pleasant vacation in Path- to Montreal.

Mrs. C. D. Thompson of Moncton who is visiting in Charlottetown received word Monday morning of the unexpected death of her brother Mr. Frank P. MacLeod, he was the eldest son of the late Rev. J. M. MacLeod, for nearly a quarter of a century pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church, this city. At the time of his demise Mr. MacLeod was in the transportation department of the Western Passenger Association, Chicago, of which his brother, Eben, is President. The cause of his death was a sudden hemorrhage although he had been suffering with a severe cold for some time. Frank MacLeod will be well and kindly remembered by the grown up people. Like his revered and beloved father he had an unusually sympathetic nature and this together with a very friendly and genial disposition and personality gained for him a wide circle of friends who will sincerely regret to learn of his passing in the full vigor of his manhood. There are left to mourn a widow of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and one daughter, Marion, besides two sisters, Mrs. Thompson, Moncton and Mrs. Arnold Kenly, Los Angeles, Cal. also three brothers, Eben E. Chicago; Dr. Ernest, Centralia, Wash., and Jack, Santa Fe, Cal. To the bereaved the Guardian extends respectful sympathy.

THURSDAY.
WRECKED VESSEL.—The schooner Minnie Mac, which ran ashore at Indian Rocks is a vessel of 78 tons. She was on her way from Charlottetown to Hawkebury in ballast. The vessel is high and dry.

ON MOOSE HUNTING TRIP.—His many friends here will be pleased to learn that Dr. Douville has completely recovered after his recent accident. He left yesterday morning on a moose hunting trip through New Brunswick, which his friends hope may be both enjoyable and profitable.

SCHOONER ASHORE.—Mr. W. H. Prowse, Inspector of Lighthouses yesterday received intimation that the schooner Minnie Mac, Captain Murray went ashore on Indian Rocks, near Wood Islands. The accident happened yesterday. As the steamer Brany was at the time on her way from Picton to Charlottetown and no other steamer was available no assistance could be sent, but steps will be taken today to render what assistance may be needed. The schooner is owned by the captain.

VISITING OFFICIALS.—Mr. James White, Deputy head of the Conservation Commission, who has been here on business in connection with the exhibition of "Hive" foxes to be held in Montreal leaves this morning on return to Ottawa. This is Mr. White's third visit to the Island and he feels very optimistic as to the success of the exhibition. Mr. P. C. Nunnick, Agricultural Specialist of the Commission of Conservation will remain here for a few days longer. Mr. Nunnick has been appointed secretary of the exhibition, with headquarters at the office of the Commission of Agriculture, Ottawa and will open an office in Montreal ten days before the exhibition takes place in order to facilitate arrangements. The many friends of Mr. W. R. Reek, Assistant Live Stock Commissioner, and formerly connected with the Department of Agriculture in this Province are delighted to see him once more.

MCGREGOR - VICKERSON WEDDING.—A very pretty marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vickerson, Montague, on the evening of September 2nd, when their daughter Edith was united in the bonds of matrimony to Harry L. McGregor, of Montague in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride, who entered the room of the arm of her father, and the strains of the wedding march were rendered by Miss Lucy McLean. Rev. J. D. McKenzie was the officiating minister and was assisted by Rev. C. E. Armstrong. The bride was in pink georgette crepe over silk with pearl trimmings, and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas, Asters and Maiden hair fern. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold pendant set with pearls. The popularity of the young couple was in evidence by the large number of beautiful and valuable presents received, consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, furniture and cheques. Mr. and Mrs. McGregor will reside at "The Groves" Montague.

GIVE RECEPTION TO THE BRIDE AND GROOM.—A reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Edson H. Clark at the home of Mr. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Clark of 330 North Eagle Street, last evening. A large number of the friends of the recently married couple were present to welcome them and to present them with a number of beautiful and useful gifts. An informal musical programme was given and a general social time enjoyed. During the evening a buffet lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Clark, to whom this honor was paid by their friends last evening, were married in Boston, Prince Edward Island, a week ago yesterday, at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Clark was formerly Miss T. Howatt, a local nurse, who graduated from the local hospital in the class of 1918 and who practiced her profession in this city until she left here a little over a month ago. The groom, who has also made his home in this city, where he is well known and highly respected, is associated with his father in the management of the Model Laundry company. The Miss Howatt referred to above is a daughter of Mr. A. C. Howatt of the C. N. R. Borden, Lillie, as she was known in her home town was a most lovable person and had all kind friends and no enemies. A bright student at school, in short North Eagle has a gala week. All who had the pleasure of her acquaintance extend heartfelt congratulations.
