STRAIN ON YOUR EYES

Eyes used for close work—particularly if lighting is not correct—are subject to a greater than normal strain. This brings the patient discomfort if there is present any appreciable refractive error and shows itself in headaches, sore eyes, etc. A person has no way of knowing the degree of strain on the eyes until they are examined.

COMMISSION HEAR DROUGHT RELIEF REPORT

(By Carl Rebske) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) REGINA, Dec. 13—Transfer of settlers from Saskatchewan drought areas to the northern part of the province has stopped because all suitable land available for homesteading has been taken up, the Rosell Commission was told today.

Approximately 45,000 have been transferred to the north and it is expected most will be self-supporting by next year. Hon. R. J. M. Parker, Minister of Municipal Affairs, informed the Commission.

"We don't know of a quarter section (160 acres) of land open for homesteading," Mr. Parker said.

Many of the 45,000 had been placed on lands formerly part of provincial parks.

There were lands owned by loan companies which had reverted to them in many instances years ago before the province took over public lands. Homesteads often took place without inspection with the result land unsuitable for cultivation was settled before lands were returned to the province.

Reviewing the relief situation Mr. Parker stated 407,800 persons now on relief and the February peak would exceed 500,000 of a population of 928,000.

Of 26,888 on relief in the eight cities 21 per cent were said to be unemployable.

Mr. Parker stated the greatest problem in the cities was to deal with the influx from farms. Many of these people were living in school buildings.

Approximately 3,000 school districts were collecting no taxes so had to be assisted with fuel and grants.

In many cases teachers were getting not more than $300, and in some cases the teacher was "boarded out" among the district people without charge.

Mr. Parker outlined Dominion administration of aid to the Federal drought area. However, the province had had to give 100 per cent relief for four years to 12 municipalities outside the drought area.

Medical attention was guaranteed the whole province by the college of physicians and surgeons with the province paying every doctor with out an income $150 a month, with a small allowance for transportation and operations at 25 per cent of the usual fee, not exceeding $100 a month.

Placement of single unemployed on farms had been reasonably successful, Mr. Parker said. This year 42,000 had made application while placements last year were 23,000. Many applicants however would be needed out.

MAKE THE OTHER PERSON FEEL IMPORTANT

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE

By DALE CARNEGIE... Author of the famous book of this name

FOR INSTANCE

"There is one very important law of human conduct which, if obeyed, will bring us friends and happiness. The law is this: Always make the other person feel important—and do it sincerely."

"The greatest teacher of all time summed it up in these words: 'Do unto others as you would have others do unto you.'"

"Considerate little phrases such as 'I'm sorry to trouble you,' 'Won't you please,' 'Would you mind,' used throughout the day will make the people with whom you come in contact feel that you look upon them as fellow human beings, and recognize their individual importance. And don't forget to give praise whenever you can."
