

AMBEROL RECORDS for The EDISON PHONOGRAPH

The greatest improvement in sound-reproducing instruments was made when Mr. Edison invented Amberol Records for the Edison Phonograph

No one thing has added so much to the pleasure of the Edison Phonograph as a Record which plays more than four minutes, and reproduces the melody or voice so clearly and perfectly that the illusion almost defies detection.

Edison Amberol Records are the same size as the ordinary Edison Records. They can be played upon any Edison Phonograph by the addition of an attachment which any dealer can supply and any dealer can affix.

Longer selections are now available for the Edison Phonograph than have ever been available before for any sound-reproducing machine, and these selections are better given.

No Edison Phonograph outfit is complete without the attachment to play Edison Amberol Records.

You can hear these new Records at any dealer's. Learn about the attachment and equip your Phonograph with it today. If you haven't an Edison Phonograph, you can now buy one which plays both styles of Records—the two-minute and four-minute.

We will be glad to send to anyone, however, a booklet describing the new attachment, describing the Amberol Records, giving a list of the music now available on these Records and giving all the other information necessary to make it possible for you to get more than twice as much enjoyment out of your Edison Phonograph as you are now getting.

We desire Good, Live Dealers to sell Edison Phonographs in every town where we are not now well represented. Dealers having established stores should write at once to National Phonograph Company, 100 Lakeside Avenue, Orange, N. J., U. S. A.

A sample record of every one made by the Edison Company, received every month; 300 to select from at.

FARM HINTS FOR PROVINCIALIS

Many stockmen practice false economy in not giving farm animals sufficient food of the proper kind and requisite care during late fall and early winter. None should forget that it is much easier to keep a beast in good condition than it is to bring a run-down animal back to normal. On farms where stabling capacity is limited, and where feeding facilities are not up-to-date, sometimes there is a tendency to neglect the stock for the first few days, or perhaps weeks, after winter sets in. The progressive farmer has learned from experience that the general condition of his stock from November until June depends largely on the condition in which the animals are in November, and the treatment accorded them until January. Suffer from the first storms and extra precautions in feeding until they become accustomed to dry stable feeding avoids what in too many cases proves to be a chill, and a setback that weeks of special feeding later on cannot overcome. Particularly is this the case with young stock, or those animals that are not strong and rugged. In most cases milk cows receive due attention. The farmer has too often realized the serious effects of the first storm in a greatly diminished flow of milk. This decreased supply is a true warning that the animals demanded shelter and extra food. With those animals that are not giving milk the effects were also serious, but not so evident to any except those who know their stock.

125 MILES IN A ROWBOAT REMARKABLE STORY FROM MISSION CITY

Mr. John R. Wren, late Reeve of Mission City, B.C., is now 65 years of age and tells the following remarkable story: "Some years ago I was given up by the Doctors. I was so weak I could not walk across the floor, and was patiently waiting for death. I had paid at such as $25 a visit for a specialist who said I could not get relief. In this condition I sent for a sample of PSYCHINE. The first night PSYCHINE gave relief. The bleeding of the lungs ceased and in three weeks I was able to walk three miles before 7 o'clock a.m. and take the oversight of a score of men." This was in 1894, just 14 years ago. Since that time Mr. J. Wren has been Reeve of Mission City, and on August 17th, 1908, wrote: "I am now in my 68th year and weigh 238 pounds and do considerable business. Last week I travelled 125 miles in a row boat and slept on every night, and feel no bad effects from it. I owe this new lease of life to Dr. T. A. Stecum and his remedies."

No wonder Mr. Wren is grateful for PSYCHINE for it transformed him from a weakling into a sturdy, hardy man and this is a time of life when most people are awaiting the reverse. PSYCHINE is a wonderful Tonic and Life Giver. Leave no stone unturned, this statement for PSYCHINE cures are permanent. THERE IS LIFE IN EVERY DOSE. We want you to test its power and send for a trial bottle at our expense. Mail coupon to Dr. T. A. Stecum, Limited, Spadina Avenue, Toronto. PSYCHINE is sold by all druggists and stores at 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

We are open for a limited quantity Choice Green Mountain Potatoes and are also receiving Dressed Hogs.
