Faint and Dizzy Spells.

Felt Weak and Nervous.

Could Scarcely Eat.

TWO BOXES OF MILBURN'S HEART and NERVE PILLS

Cured Mrs. Edmond Brown, Inwood, Ont., when she had almost given up hope of ever getting well again.

She writes: "I was so run down that I was not able to do my work, was short of breath, had a sour stomach every night and could scarcely eat. My heart palpitated, I had faint and dizzy spells and felt weak and nervous all the time. My husband got me a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills but I told him it was no use, that I had given up hope of ever being cured. He however persuaded me to take them and before I had used half the box I began to feel better. Two boxes made a new woman of me and I have been well and have been able to do my work ever since."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cts. box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or THE T. MILBURN CO., Ltd, Toronto, Ont.

HON. JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN.

BIRMINGHAM GIVES GREAT RECEPTION TO CHAMBERLAIN

Former Colonial Secretary Spoke to a Gathering of 9000 Enthusiastic Supporters.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Joseph Chamberlain made a speech to a gathering of 9,000 of his fellow townsmen at Bingley Hall, Birmingham. It was by far the largest audience the former Colonial Secretary had faced during the fiscal campaign and the enthusiasm, naturally, exceeded the remarkable scenes witnessed in the other cities and was emphasized by the Chamberlainite victory at yesterday's municipal election in Birmingham. Mr. Chamberlain, who was accompanied on the platform by many prominent persons, rose to speak at 8.10 p. m. He was given a great reception, the cheering and singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" lasting many minutes.

After dealing with conditions during the past fifty years under free trade and quoting figures to sustain his argument Mr. Chamberlain commented on Cobden's position and quoted Cobden as saying that "the United States would eventually abandon manufacturing and that their workmen would go back to the land and dig and delve for us."

"Americans, however," said Chamberlain, had not so conceived their national destiny and did not believe they were created by Providence to dig and delve and plow for the benefit of Great Britain. They knew they had resources of their own, and had built up their industries until they had reached a stage where, unsatisfied with the extent of their own markets, they were invading those of the United Kingdom.

Mr. Chamberlain said that he did not blame the United States, but he appealed to Englishmen to say whether they would adhere to the old system or adopt another which would prevent the American invasion. Mr. Chamberlain spoke for nearly two hours in the main, repeating former arguments and appealing to the patriotism and self-interest of the people of the United Kingdom to sustain his fiscal project.

Shooting Himself In.

At a party given last winter in a western city, says an exchange, was a bashful cowboy who had not been in civilized society for several years. He was a good looking fellow, and one of the young ladies present kindly took an interest in him and tried to make him feel at ease. He fell desperately in love at once, and the hostess, noticing this, encouraged him all she could. On leaving the house the young lady who had taken a friendly interest in the cowboy forgot her overshoes, and the hostess told the young Lochinvar from the plains that he might return them to the girl if he wished. The herder leaped at the chance and presented himself in due time at the young lady's house. She was surprised to see him, but greeted him cordially.

"You forgot your overshoes last night," he said, awkwardly handing her the package.

She thanked him and opened it. "Why, there's only one overshoe here!" she exclaimed.

"Yes, Miss X," said the blushing cowboy earnestly. "I'll bring round the other one tomorrow. I only wish, my dear miss, that you were a centiped!"
